

The Biblical Apothecary: Natural Remedies Instead of Lab Created

An individual possessing the knowledge of compounding God's natural ingredients in set proportions was noted as an apothecary. Recognizing the human body was created by God and that man was fearfully and wonderfully made, designed by the Great Physician himself, the apothecary's objective was ultimately to honor man's temple through man's voluntary consent in the administration of natural remedies, boosting man's immune system, while increasing the body's overall capacity to fight infection. Given the intricacies of man's immune system, it was discovered the human body could virtually conquer any ailment sent its way. This would be augmented with God's hand overseeing the recovery process as well as those trained and educated in the art of biblical compounding and naturopathic medicine.

The Convergence of Atheism & Occultism: Alchemy's Sinister Side

The field of alchemy had a more sinister, spiritual identity to it. Its formulators were driven by greed and at times the sinister influence of Satan. Its practitioners cared little for man's temple or body, man's complex immune system, and whether the patient had consented to such treatment(s) or not. Engaging in forbidden verbal chants and mantras, their 'cures' were often spiked with a proprietary blend (potion) that would allow the practitioner some control over the patient, whether it involved deleterious physical side-effects, or the control of the patient's mind through a psychotropic elixir. The alchemists' ultimate objective was the sinister and incremental control over their clientele—a dependent class that would keep returning, thereby providing the alchemist a steady source of income. If you doubt my caricature of the alchemist, type the word alchemy in the search box either on bing.com or fineartamerica.com and it will confirm my suspicions.

Pharmakeia--Poisons, ‘Vaccines,’ Petroleum Products & the Bioweapon ‘Jab’

Taken from the Greek pharmakeia (φαρμακεία), the word reveals a field of endeavor and occupational pursuit that blends the spirituality of New Age thought[1] with the witchcraft of the biblically forbidden practices of alchemy. Pharmakeia includes a plethora of medicinal products that range from psychotropic drugs to poisons, to military grade bioweapons such as the Spanish Flu inoculation (1918-1920) to the recent Covid-19 ‘vaccine’ . . . dubbed the ‘jab’ by those enlightened truth tellers who have heeded their God-given moral conscience. While we were told these ‘remedies’ were marketed as ‘medically necessary,’[2] it has surfaced they were employed as bioagents to reduce the world’s population, especially following the Baby Boom shortly after WWII. This increase in the global population had the eugenicists and global elites[3] concerned because of their misplaced and perverted worship of Mother Earth (Gaia worship). We read about this veneration for the creation rather than the Creator, Jesus Christ, in Romans 1. This is what Earth Day is all about . . . the misdirected devotion toward the creation rather than the Creator. Yes, I believe we are to be stewards of God’s great storehouse of wealth (the dominion mandate as decreed by God in Genesis 1:26-28), while treating that storehouse with the utmost respect and care; however, we are to view this responsibility through the prism of a proper understanding of priorities: Christ first, then his creation with all of its interconnectedness and mutual reciprocity.

[1] We are told in Ecclesiastes 1:9, 10—The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be; and that which is done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun. 10 Is there any thing whereof it may be said, See, this is new? it hath been already of old time, which was before us. there is nothing new under the sun . . . that which is; has been, and that which will be; has previously occurred.

[3] Collectively engaged in the phony practice of virtue signaling and a disingenuous compassion for humanity, these Luciferians have revealed their foul spirit over the past four years (2020-2024).
