

The Origin of Collectivism and Its Players: The Seed of the Serpent vs. The Seed of the Woman

By Paul J. Wickliffe Sunday, January 28, 2024

Figure 1— Babylon, the Etemenaki or the Tower of Babel, 550 BC. by J.R. Casals

The man, Nimrod, founder and architect of collectivism, as well as all religion, was an imposing personality. Referred to by God as “a mighty one,” and “a mighty hunter before the LORD,” this divine description referred to Nimrod’s size, strength, and prowess. A post-diluvian giant, Nimrod was a keen observer of animal behavior. From Nimrod’s celebrated animal pursuits, his observations turned to the hunting, enslavement, and ultimately destruction of men’s souls. Under the guise of false promises, a vast intelligence gathering apparatus known as the confessional, and subversive-clandestine influence over civil magistrates, Nimrod’s regional empire within Shinar grew to include the city-states of Babel, Erech (Uruk), Accad, and Calneh. Little did he know that one day his religion of self would captivate the world and oppose his Creator in a final showdown of epic, biblical proportions—ARMAGEDDON. Yes indeed, Nimrod was the offspring of the seed of the serpent from Genesis 3:15

Gen. 10:8-12—And Cush begat Nimrod: he began to be a mighty one in the earth. 9 He was a mighty hunter before the LORD: wherefore it is said, Even as Nimrod the mighty hunter before the LORD. 10 And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel, and Erech, and Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar. 11 Out of that land went forth Asshur, and builded Nineveh, and the city Rehoboth, and Calah, 12 And Resen between Nineveh and Calah: the same is a great city.

Pure Cambridge Editon K.J.V. 1906

The Seed of the Serpent

The Bible personality appearing after Noah's flood in Genesis 10:8-12 is a figure known as Nimrod. Nimrod's father was Cush. His grandfather was Ham. His great grandfather was Noah.

Mentioned in the Table of Nations genealogy, Nimrod was probably one of the most influential personalities for evil that ever lived. Embodying the seed of the serpent and all that would become evil in the world, Nimrod was very aware of the evil that emerged in Eden, as well as the serpent's processes and techniques for eroding and eventually destroying trust in Jehovah.

Nimrod's tower of Babel became the standard for all subsequent, religious endeavors providing the blueprint to Babel's identity, structure, operation, and maintenance.

Babel's identity was clearly religious. Nimrod understood the power of captivating and oppressing men's souls. Babel's framework was collectivist in its structure and utilized the social memory complex of the group to keep the individual from realizing their full, God-given potential.

Its operation was predatory, utilizing fear as the main component in its mechanism of control. Its operation relied on the complete secularization of thought through the religion of evolution. Its maintenance relied on the 'dumbing down' of its disciples through propaganda, sorcery, controlling the narrative, eliminating opposition, while controlling the levers of education, academia, medicine, the military-industrial complex, the arts, the cartel of corporations, as well as corrupt monetary policies.¹

All of this would be accomplished by Nimrod and his observation of animal behavior as "the mighty hunter before the LORD." As a hunter, Nimrod accomplished his objectives on human subjects through three simple field observations:

¹ Eccles. 1:9—The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be; and that which is done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun.

- I. decoys (duplicity of appearance)—Convince and delude the hunted you pose no threat to them . . . Until they come within range. Your appearance, as one of them, will convince them you can be trusted.
- II. animal mimicry (sound like your enemy)—You must tell them what they want to hear. You must sound like them.
- III. camouflage (invisibility)—You do not want to be noticed or seen. Creating a dialectic, thesis-antithesis=synthesis is the most diabolical method ever conceived. Frame the truth. Attack the truth. Provide a solution which always is a compromise of the truth, which results in a lie. The lie of collectivism is always advanced, while a subsequent erosion and loss of individual liberties results. No one will ever suspect that the contrast between thesis and antithesis, with its compromise, always results in personal bondage, oppression, and slavery.

Ten Collectivist Traits:

1. hypocritical—do what I say, not as I do
2. partisan—mentally blind, enslaved and imprisoned; partial in judgment
3. unjust; lawless—Psa. 57:3-5 [1]
4. atheistic—enmity towards the righteous; imagining and devising mischief continually
5. shallow—human worth based on outward behavior and appearance, not inward character
6. evolutionary—man is no better than an animal; advocacy of abortion, the phony Covid inoculation, Margaret Sanger’s Planned Parenthood and Aryan eugenics
7. complicit—condones sin in their life and those of others; psychology justifies sin
8. unstable—driven and directed by emotion not empirical or observational evidence
9. dishonest—lack of integrity; unreliable; lying can become pathological or compulsive
10. selfish—free-will advocate; foundation built on subjective experience NOT objective truth; cannot discern between good and evil
11. oppressive—‘my way or the highway’ mentality, implacable
12. deceitful—they must act this way, for if people discovered their intentions, they would hang ‘em

1. Psa. 57:3-5—The wicked are estranged from the womb: they go astray as soon as they be born, speaking lies. 4 Their poison is like the poison of a serpent: they are like the deaf adder that stoppeth her ear; 5 Which will not hearken to the voice of charmers, charming never so wisely.

A Proper View of History

The following is taken from the book, "Is Alberto for Real?" by Sidney Hunter, Copyright © 1988. Dr. Alberto Rivera was an ex-Jesuit priest who defected to the true church of Jesus Christ and was silenced by Rome for exposing their global agenda.

Rivera's "Conspiracy Theory" is extreme and paranoid.

Answer: There are only two ways in which world history can be explained:

1. The accidental theory. All events, such as those world depressions, revolutions, wars and political plots are the results of pure chance. Such a view is as ridiculous as belief in evolution!

2. The conspiratorial theory. World events such as mentioned above, take place because some influential people want them to happen and make them happen. People with power meet behind closed doors and work out plans to achieve their aims. The most precise way to describe such conduct is - conspiracy.

To us, the conspiratorial theory makes far more sense than the accidental theory. The conspiracy claims Rivera has made are by no means extreme and paranoid. Indeed, many respected and thorough researchers have, after many years of painstaking research, come to the conclusion that there is a conspiracy at work which desires to control the world by controlling the banks, commerce and the media.

And I need not mention to students of the Bible, the accidental theory contradicts the entire theme of the Bible, not to mention large portions of Bible prophecy.

I give you here the titles of eleven books in which the authors, who are also listed, make their conspiracy beliefs known.

1. None Dare Call It Conspiracy - Gary Allen
2. The Rockefeller File - Gary Allen
3. Proofs of a Conspiracy - John Robinson A.M.
4. Descent Into Slavery - Des Griffin
5. Fourth Reich of the Rich - Des Griffin
6. The Red Fog Over America - W. G. Carr
7. The New Unhappy Lords - A. K. Chesterton
8. National Suicide - Anthony C. Sutton
9. Betrayal by Rulers - Michael Sturdza
10. The Naked Capitalist - W. Cleon Skousen
11. Series of tapes by Dr. Stuart Crane, made in Montreal in 1976

While we do not agree with all that these men have written, nevertheless, the one common fact on which they all seem to agree is that there is a conspiracy at work in the world. These conspirators, they conclude, are attempting to manipulate and rule the world through their control of the banks, commerce and media. So, in that respect, they agree with Rivera's claims.

The one area where Rivera differs from them is the powers behind the scenes. The other authors basically blame the Illuminati, the International Bankers or the Zionists. These smaller groups form only a part of this conspiracy by evil forces.

Rivera, on the other hand, takes a more Biblical stance and blames MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH, namely the city on seven hills (i.e., Romanism) as understood by the great Protestant Reformers. (See Rev. 17, 18.)

Surely then, Rivera is not alone in his view, but rather is just one among an almost endless line of respected authors, including modern writers, who are saying much the same thing.

Read the following books by Avro Manhattan:

- Catholic Power Today
- Catholic Terror Today
- The Vatican Moscow Washington Alliance
- The Vatican Billions
- Vietnam, Why Did We Go?

Other good books include:

- The Vatican Against Europe, by Edmond Paris
- The Secret History of the Jesuits , by Edmond Paris
- Peter's Tomb Recently Discovered, by F. P. Peterson
- The Broadcasting Controversy - The Pope And Catholic Action, by O. T. Beswick B. Sc.
- Fifty Years in the "Church" Of Rome, by Charles Chiniquy.
- What About the Silent Conspiracy? by Andrew Sinclair

For more information see also the book, "No Pope Here," by Dr. Ian Paisley

Or get a copy of his cassette tape The Black Pope and His Murder Men.

Did Ecumenism triumph over Protestantism? According to ex-Jesuit priest, Dr. Alberto Rivera while still under the extreme Jesuit oath, in February of 1981, believed a sign was to be given—the swearing in of an American president facing an obelisk for the first time in U.S. history. The obelisk is a cultic symbol with four sides (global-north, south, east, and west) and a pyramid on top representing religious and political power and symbolic of a one-world government. Ceremonies were moved to the west front of the Capitol where Ronald Reagan received the oath of office before the Washington Monument. This sign would be confirmed by the signing of a concordat between the Vatican and the United States. A concordat is a mutual agreement, or formal contract, between the Vatican and a foreign country concerning the ecclesiastical affairs of state. This course of events occurred January 20, 1981 ! [1] Is America now officially Roman Catholic in its teaching, direction and politics? Just look at the Protestant churches where the answer to that question is frightening—Arminianism is prevalent from American pulpits.

ENDNOTES:

1. Chick, Jack T. The Godfathers, 3 of 6 in Alberto Series, P.O. Box 3500, Ontario, CA 91716-1019, Copyright © 1982, p. 26

