

A Bible Study Comparing Scripture with Scripture and Reliance on the Holy Spirit (Genesis 1:1)

- GOD'S PHYSICAL LAWS DECREED--gravity, planetary motion, sound, light, etc.
- THE APPEARANCE OF TIME--day (p.m. & a.m.), seasons (determined by constellation movement & location NOT weather), days (Moon's orbit around the Earth determines 30 days), years (360-day Earth orbit around Sun)
- GOD AS THREE-IN-ONE APPARENT--Elohim--a uni-plural noun
- METHOD OF CREATION OF THE VISIBLE & INVISIBLE--ex-nihilo--from nothing visible
- THE CREATION OF THE BLACK MATRIX OF SPACE--undefinable, unable to capture
- EARTH'S SPECIAL CREATION, POSITION, & CENTER OF GOD'S FOCUS IN THE UNIVERSE--No place like it!

With the creation of the black matrix of space AND our planet's appearance in the first verse of Genesis 1:1, God decreed all natural laws governing the visible and invisible universe. The calculated and sequenced order of events in creation are in total contradiction to the evolutionist's long eons of time required, while obliterating the unscientific narrative that, through the Big Bang, the existence of matter¹ gave rise to incredible complexity and diversity within the universe. This of course was accomplished through a cosmic explosion, that was to have occurred 13.8 billion years ago,² whose magnitude was one of incomprehensible chaos³ and intensity.

Christian belief is grounded in objective history (the Bible), observational evidence (the scientific method), and supported by God's natural-physical laws. The origin's model for the atheist is based on assumption, unsubstantiated uniformitarian⁴ speculation, and proven impossible by the mathematical laws of probability (Anything above 10^{50} is said to be impossible-- it will not happen).

¹ The evolutionist will not answer this, because they cannot. Matter is NOT self-existent. The Law of Conservation of Mass had this confirmed repeatedly by lab experiments conducted by the French chemist Antoine Lavoisier in 1789.

² The evolutionist must convince you that this number is correct even though there is no way to substantiate such an outrageous value. You just must believe him because he, as well as his other unimpeachable colleagues passing themselves off as 'scientists,' say so.

³ Ever heard of chaos creating order? Really! They want you believe this drivel just because they say so!

⁴ The present proves the past.

Introduction

Bible citations will be taken from the Pure Cambridge Edition (PCEKJV) of the King James Bible, circa 1900, Australia. The difference of the PCEKJV from that of the 1607 Authorized Version involves publisher's errors and orthography (standardization of word spelling of the English language at that time). Again, these 'changes' in no way affected doctrine contained in the original apostolic autographs from Antioch, Syria, NOR do they omit words found in the originals. These are NOT Jesuit VERSIONS⁵ or new counterfeits as the countless 'Bible' publishing houses routinely fleece their public with. The subsequent K.J.V. Bibles that appeared after the original 1607 publication are publisher's corrected EDITIONS of the original, NOT VERSIONS.

The italics contained in the KJV were words the translators employed to aid the reader in thought and narrative continuity, better known as clarity.⁶ While the counterfeit corrupters condemn the KJV translators for doing this, these hypocrites engage in the same practice. They refuse to indicate to their reading audience, by use of italics or brackets, where they themselves have done the same thing. Unfortunately, their OMISSIONS of countless verses AND countless words,⁷ which alter the context of the verse, are legion!

If you want more damning evidence against these Roman Catholic counterfeits, there is plenty of ammunition out there: Gail Riplinger's book, "New Age Bible Versions," as well as her avpublicaitons.com web site, Dr. David Otis' Fuller's fine work on, "Which Bible?", Chick Publication's comic entitled, Sabotage?, and numerous YouTube videos by David Daniels. All of these are good resources on the subjects dealing with: 1. Strategies of the Jesuit corruptors 2. Bible inspiration 3. Objective church history 4. The academic ⁵ Those who say these versions 'All say the same thing,' know nothing of what they say. You cannot plagiarize what someone else writes, NOR can you engage in copyright infringement. You will get sued up the wazoo! A derivative copyright work says that the new work must be SIGNIFICANTLY DIFFERENT in its message from the original. Not only do the corrupt versions differ dramatically from the original, namely the 1900 Pure Cambridge Edition of the K.J.V., but the multitudinous versions substitute words altering the meaning of the verse, leave verses out, as well as plant doubt in the reader, for example in Isaiah 14:4-23 known as Satan's biography, specifically 14:12. The K.J.V. makes no mistake who this verse is talking about, no ambiguity. The K.J.V. says, "Lucifer, son the morning!" In the N.A.S.B. it says, "O star of the morning, son of the dawn!" The verses that are supposed to aid the reader in figuring out who God is talking about, DO NOT ASSIST THE READER! The verses are, Isaiah 34:4, Luke 10:18, Rev. 9:1. Revelation 9:1 is speaking of king Abaddon or in the Greek Apollyon. Satan is the prince of the power of the air (Eph. 2:2) not a king. He serves the King of kings (1 Tim. 6:15, Rev. 17:14, Rev. 19:16).

⁶ See the article on the K.J.V.'s use of italics.

propagandizing of Christian youth by Jesuits and their surrogates 5. Videos addressing the concerns the uninformed have regarding the authority and inspiration of the K.J.V.

Be wary; however, of Arminian teaching⁸ from Gail Riplinger and David Daniels. While their defense of the scriptures is stellar, their Arminian theology becomes incrementally and disturbingly apparent. This has resulted from their need to get ‘their message out.’ In their urgency and misplaced sincerity to expose the lies of the Jesuits, many of these same churches they have evangelized with the Bible’s doctrine of inspiration also routinely deny in their Statements of Faith biblical inspiration, preservation, and transmission. Does this make any sense? Hardly! These very same churches they are trying to ‘reach’ are also engaged in evolutionary teaching, as well as the strategy of silence by omission. They refuse to acknowledge the Holy Spirit as the believer’s Teacher and Regenerator. Every week these ‘Christian’ assemblies shipwreck the faith of millions.

A few visuals . . . Then on with the study of God’s inspired and inerrant word--the K.J.V. Bible!

⁸ James or Jacobus Arminius (1560-1609) was a Roman Catholic who taught God’s grace came from within, surfacing usually in a moment of deep, personal ‘crisis.’ He called this “prevenient grace.” This is contrary to the Bible’s teaching that conversion is secured by the complete and perfect involvement of the Godhead in redemption, namely through the Bible’s doctrines of election and predestination. Arminius went on to reject the Bible’s doctrines of: 1. MAN’S TOTAL DEPRAVITY 2. GOD’S UNCONDITIONAL ELECTION 3. THAT CHRIST DIED ONLY FOR THE ELECT. WHILE CHRIST’S SACRIFICE IS AVAILABLE TO ALL, 1 JOHN 2:2 IS NOT IMPLYING UNIVERSAL SALVATION FOR ALL. To Arminius, he believed in universal salvation for all. 4. MEN ARE MIGHTIER THAN GOD OR GOD’S GRACE CAN BE RESISTED. Men who resist the grace of God are those “who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.” (Jude 1:4) 5. ARMINIANISM REJECTS THE FATHER’S SEALING OF THE SAINT AND THE HOLY SPIRIT’S CONTINUAL INDWELLING, NAMELY THE PERSEVERANCE OF THE SAINTS. The Arminian paradigm is one of works. There is no place for grace through faith. In Arminian theology there is no perseverance of the saints. THERE IS NO ETERNAL SECURITY AS BESTOWED UPON THE SINNER BY GOD’S GRACE!

HOW TO KNOW THE PURE CAMBRIDGE EDITION OF THE KING JAMES BIBLE

It is important to have the correct, perfect and final text of the King James Bible, since there are correctors (e.g. publishers) who have changed some aspects of King James Bible texts. The final form of the King James Bible is the Pure Cambridge Edition (circa 1900), which conforms to the following:

1. "or Sheba" not "and Sheba" in Joshua 19:2
2. "sin" not "sins" in 2 Chronicles 33:19
3. "Spirit of God" not "spirit of God" in Job 33:4
4. "whom ye" not "whom he" in Jeremiah 34:16
5. "Spirit of God" not "spirit of God" in Ezekiel 11:24
6. "flieth" not "fleeth" in Nahum 3:16
7. "Spirit" not "spirit" in Matthew 4:1
8. "further" not "farther" in Matthew 26:39
9. "bewrayeth" not "betrayeth" in Matthew 26:73
10. "Spirit" not "spirit" in Mark 1:12
11. "spirit" not "Spirit" in Acts 11:28
12. "spirit" not "Spirit" in 1 John 5:8

THE GUARDIANS OF THE PURE CAMBRIDGE EDITION

Corrupt K.J.V. publishing houses have taken 'liberties' they should not have! This is the reason for the Pure Cambridge Edition of the King James Bible.

THE AUTHORIZED KING JAMES VERSION

This exhaustive and well documented tome by Gail Riplinger resulted from her experience as a teacher at Kent State University. During her tenure she discovered that students who read the King James Bible had fewer personal problems, were less confused regarding their worldview while appearing to have more confidence, and surprisingly, possessed more peace. This work lays bare the strategies of modern 'critical' translators and their ultimate objective of eviscerating and rendering Christ's words, Christ himself, and the Holy Spirit completely irrelevant and impotent.

Part 1

WHY THIS BOOK?

David Otis Fuller

In many important matters everyone recognizes the need for an authority — a supreme “court of appeal” higher than which no one can go. In the realm of supernatural things there is only One Authority recognized by Christian people. This is not the church, nor the “infallible” words of men, nor one’s own ego, nor a hierarchy of Roman “priests,” Protestant ministers, or Jewish rabbis. All such are fallible and prone to error and prejudice. The Bible makes high claims to Divine inspiration, inerrancy and authority; and if it is true that the Sovereign God of the universe has condescended to reveal Himself supernaturally in His Book, even as He has revealed Himself naturally in the material universe, then man — even in a world ruined by sin — has a firm foundation on which to build for time and eternity.

Fuller’s book highlights the life and contributions of the translators that King James I of England assembled and commissioned to translate the countless manuscripts, while examining and collating William Tyndale’s exhaustive efforts. The K.J.V. is 80% William Tyndale (1494-1536). Perhaps that is why King Henry VIII had him strangled and then burned at the stake. But not before Tyndale’s last words, “Lord! Open the King of England’s eyes.” This book also lays bare the real reason for Rome’s Council of Trent—their absolute hatred for Christ’s words and their resolve to eventually have the Jesuits create ‘Bible’ societies that would formulate and promote counterfeits. Fuller also mentions Rome’s attempt to destroy Protestant Mary’s England through Philip II’s Spanish Armada. You will see how God miraculously intervened!

Like all successive religious and political efforts by collectivists, Marxists or Jesuits, they target the youth. By employing the same practice, namely sorcery, Simon bewitched his Samaritan audience. This was prior to Philip's arrival and preaching of the gospel of Christ in Acts 8. Sorcery involves casting down the truth, while at the same time elevating a lie in place of the truth. Simon who had made himself "some great one" (Acts 8:9) convinced his disciples that his character was beyond question. Simon accomplished this by Nimrod's animal mimicry, camouflage, and decoy strategies. Remember, Nimrod was referred to as "a mighty hunter before the LORD." Simon, I am sure, was also adept at employing 'the blame game' known as psychology. Sounds a little like the cult of personality evident in the Protestant pastors and ministers of today, who hide behind the false mantle of 'righteousness,' while lecturing their dumbed-down flock through their intuitive, phony virtue signaling.

Genesis 1:1--In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth.

The first words we encounter in Genesis 1, “In the beginning” is God in eternity invoking time into this dimension--the physical. Time has a beginning⁹ and an end.¹⁰ Eternity does not! In the LORD’s conversation, in Exodus 3:14, God told Moses that when confronted by Israel’s elders, Moses was to tell them “I AM” sent him. In John 8:58 Jesus tells the Jewish religious leaders “Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am.”

If you understand the significance of this concept, you will see that God is always in the present, between the past and the future. Standing outside of time, Providence is not bound by the natural laws he imposed on this universe. The importance of this, is that God is not part of his creation but rather independent from it.

Biblical Time

Because time has a beginning it cannot have a starting point along a linear continuum constantly giving way to the past, while relentlessly moving toward the future. Examples of this would be attempting to calculate time from B.C.¹¹ or A.D.¹² computations. For those atheists who cannot handle the truth, taking Christ out of the equation, they render the above B.C.E. (before the common era), or A.C.E. (after the common era). What you would expect from the seed of the serpent!

Before God created the Sun, Moon, and stars on day 4 and told us they were given “for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years,” we are given the definition of the day AND when the day starts. The day begins in the EVENING and consists of 12 hours of darkness. The darkness then gives way to the MORNING which comprise 12 hours of daylight. By they way, throughout the creation narrative, God also ENUMERATES each day. The idea that these days were long periods of time is not supported anywhere in scripture and represents a complete rejection of the Hebrew passages found in the book of Exodus.¹³

⁹ This was the beginning of time.

¹⁰ According to Daniel 12:7 and Revelation 10:6 time ends when Christ’s millennium begins. God’s methodology for calculating time will be in effect--12 hrs. of darkness giving way to 12 hrs. of daylight; the 7-day week starting on Sunday, ends with the sabbath, Saturday; 12, 30 day, lunar calculated months; 360 day years; April as the first month of the year; a routine, reliable calendar year re-set so EVERY DAY falls on the SAME DATE. This reliability and dependability aids the farmer and merchant tremendously.

¹¹ Before Christ’s birth

¹² Anno Domini, after Christ’s birth, or in the year of our Lord

¹³ Exodus 20:6--For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day and hallowed it.

In short, God defined the day, told us when it began, AND then enumerated each day. Long eons of time belong to the unscientific field of consensus “science falsely so called” weighted in assumption.

The huge problem for assigning long ages to each defined and enumerated day is that death would have to have occurred before the Fall of man in Genesis 3. ABSURD! This would also pose the problem for Adam and Eve in that they did not consummate their marriage until after the Fall and their expulsion from Eden¹⁴ . . . And you mean this took eons of time for them to figure out ‘the birds and the bees?’¹⁵ RIDICULOUS!

“ . . . God ”

What God is Not!

Let us pause and examine three terms and their origin (etymology): pantheism, panentheism, and animism. First, Joseph Raphson a mathematician in 1697, coined the word from the Greek. Consider the Greeks, a heathen empire that rejected the biblical, Elohim God of three persons in one. They also denied God’s inspired, revelation to man--the inerrant Bible. They denied the work and person of Christ, as well as the Holy Spirit’s regenerating baptism resulting from the crucifixion of man’s sin nature.

So, in Greek ‘pan’ means all, while ‘theos’ means God. Pantheism therefore means ‘all is God.’ In other words, God is NOT distinct from his creation. Imagine putting God in a test tube. Pathetic! Pantheism also promotes the idea that the universe is a manifestation of God.

Karl Christian Friedrich Krause in 1828 coined the term panentheism to placate the growing evolutionary, Age of Enlightenment mindset that was raging in Europe. Krause saw this as a counter option to the Bible’s, rational, theistic view of the biblical God. Panentheism, means ‘all in God.’ Listen to this definition by C.A.R.M. (Christian Apologetics

Exodus 31:17--It is a sign between me and the children of Israel for ever: for in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed.

¹⁴ If Eve had conceived before the Fall, and there is no biblical evidence for this, then that child would have been conceived without sin. Genesis 4 tells us that only after the Fall and their expulsion from the garden, did Adam and Eve produce children.

¹⁵ Genesis 4:1--And Adam knew Eve his wife; and she conceived, and bare Cain, and said, I have gotten a man from the LORD.

While some reference Bibles indicate that Cain means acquired, I believe it means man. In Genesis 4:1 did not Eve say, “I have gotten a man from the LORD”? This was not any man. This was Cain, a murderer of his brother and unrepentant sinner, who blamed God, while moving to Nod and ignoring God’s grace. Cain was truly a spawn of the seed of the serpent. Was it not “the daughters of men” that corrupted the sons of God by their appearance that lacked godly character? Abel, it has been suggested, means breath or spirit. Abel was clearly a godly man who desired God by first listening to his God-given moral conscience, or God’s still, small voice, AND then acting upon what he knew God wanted him to surrender--an animal sacrifice for his sin.

Research Ministries founder, Matt Slick), and then I will comment on the essence of the definition. “Panentheism is the position that God is greater than the universe, that the universe is in God, that he permeates every part of nature, is part of nature, extends beyond nature, and is also distinct from it.” Slick’s definition is correct. What is sadly noticeable is the idiocy of the statement, “God is greater than the universe, the universe is in God, God permeates every part of nature, God is part of nature, God extends beyond nature,” and finally, that “God is distinct from nature.” Not only does this not make sense, we see God countless times, entering and exiting the physical dimension--God speaking directly to Adam and Eve; the destruction of the first world by a flood; God destroying the five, perverse cities of the plain; God speaking directly to Moses; the 10 plagues brought against Egypt; the division of the Red Sea (Gulf of Aqaba) allowing the children of Israel to pass through, while destroying Pharaoh’s army; the cloud by day AND the pillar of fire by night . . . Need I go on!

In 1871 a British anthropologist, Sir Edward Tyler, wrote a book, “Primitive Culture,” where the author insisted that starting with animism, man progressed to polytheism, and then ultimately to monotheism. All he had to do was read the Bible!

Animism, from the German Animismus and Latin anima soul, says that a “supernatural power” is animating everything in the universe, and that all objects possess a soul and spirit, even inanimate objects--rocks, waterfalls, wind, dirt. By refusing the light of Christ, which is THE animating power behind everything in the universe, the animist depersonalizes the biblical God and labels it a “supernatural power.” Pantheism, panentheism, and animism are one of the many antichristian concepts that circulated in Europe when the Bible’s authority was clearly being assailed by the secularists of evolution and John Locke’s disciples of Enlightenment.

God’s First Name: Elohim

In Genesis 1:1 God calls himself¹⁶ Elohim, a uni-plural noun. This uni-plural noun is expanded upon in the same chapter when God says in verse 26, “And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness.” In Genesis 3:22 we read, “And the LORD God said, Behold, the man is become as one of us, to know good and evil.” One can see therefore, the three-in-one nature of God, “For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one.” (I John 5:7)¹⁷

¹⁶ Remember, Jesus is the Word .

¹⁷ This verse is completely absent in the Jehovah’s Witness corrupt New World Translation. Eliminating verse 7, they move verse 8 up into verse 7. Many other corrupt versions are guilty of the same thing.

Finally, other names for God AND the Holy Spirit, applied to Christ, are the everlasting Father (Isa. 9:6), AND in Romans 8:2, “the Spirit of life in Christ,” as well as in Romans 8:9, “the Spirit of Christ.” In I Peter 1:11 it also says the prophets, filled with “the Spirit of Christ” had revealed to them the testimony when Christ should suffer, AND his glory that would follow.

“ . . . created ”

Ex-nihilo

Ex-nihilo means something from nothing. Specifically, in Hebrews 11:3 God amplifies this for us, “Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.” The key phrase from the verse above is “framed by the word of God.”

Another way of saying this is Jesus, the Word, brought everything into existence. In Psalm 33:8, 9 it says, “Let all the earth fear the LORD: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him. 9 For he spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast.”

For those of you not familiar with the K.J.V., God the Father, distinguishes himself from the Jesus Christ the Son, by using the title LORD. In the Old Testament Jesus is Lord, even as he is Lord in the New Testament. Psalm 33:8, 9 therefore is saying God, the Father, spoke everything into existence by Jesus Christ. This is consistent with John 1:1-3, “In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 The same was in the beginning with God. 3 All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.”

It also says of Christ as Creator in Colossians 1:15, 16, “Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature: 16 For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him.”

“ . . . the heaven ”

Heaven, NOT Heavens

The K.J.V. correctly translates the Hebrew word as “heaven,” not plural as countless of the counterfeit ‘bibles’ have rendered it. This is of profound importance in the order in which everything was created. This heaven is the black matrix from which much of the universe is composed. The firmament, in which the stars and planets were placed was created on day 2.¹⁸ This firmament is a pliable coordinate matrix where God set¹⁹ each celestial object, a specific distance and a specific location, from the Earth.

God Had a Specific Sequence in Which Creation Unfolded

‘Could not have God created everything the way the evolutionists claim?’ Absolutely NOT! Just as God defined the day and told us how long the day was, God also enumerated each day. Even though what we read in the creation account is miraculous, God wanted us to understand there was a sequence to everything he created. This sequence of creation poses an insurmountable conflict within the mind of the evolutionist. Let me explain!

God’s first order of business in creation was to impose his natural laws . . . You know, things like gravity, planetary motion, centrifugal force; those things that can be observed and repeated by the scientific, experimental method of induction. The next thing he did was to create what some scientists call dark matter. It is that stuff that the men and women in the white coats cannot physically explain or capture. God did this to confound the wisdom of the wise . . . Kind of like the platypus and the archeopteryx to the evolutionists! Not transitional forms, but unique creations to befuddle the simple minded.

As I understand it, this invisible yet apparent substance comprises most of the ‘known’ universe. I call it the black matrix decreed by God that will continue to astound scientists forever. God imposed this black matrix upon the temporal dimension for purpose of God veiling himself from men . . . For no living things can look upon God and live.

Our Earth is Unique

While the evolutionist and the unredeemed ufologist persuade the beguiled, a stark contrast of the Earth’s special creation emerges from the first verse in God’s first book, Genesis. God in his creation narrative tells us that the black matrix of interstellar space and the Earth were so special, they were created before everything else. The uniqueness of Earth demands the attention of all of God’s activities.

If some ufologist suggests that life exists elsewhere, he obviously is ignorant of this biblical truth, namely the account of the Earth’s special creation and the attention God has placed on this planet. All the information suggesting that life is not unique to the Earth is coming from the atheist and ignorant. Just so you know, life is unique to this planet because of the presence of oxygen and Earth's ozone, O₃, protection. Life cannot occur on any other planet in the absence of oxygen and O₃. The ultraviolet light from nearby stars, many of them larger than our Sun, would make life impossible in the absence of O₃.

¹⁸ Genesis 1:6-8--And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters. 7 And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament: and it was so. 8 And God called the firmament Heaven. And the evening and the morning were the second day.

The appearance of water on another planet does not imply life. Hydrolysis, or the action of water on molecules, destroys chemical bonds, a process necessary for the formation of amino acids, substances necessary for life. Mars, it is argued because of its ice caps, may be an incubator for life. No! Not only because of the absence of oxygen, ozone--O₃, but also because of water's, O₂, nature of destroying chemical bonds, in this case amino acids--the building blocks of life.

Finally, concerning extra-terrestrials, the following comments will be made from the perspective of a student that has studied the Bible for 50 years, not influenced by denominational or church propaganda. My comments are not subjective but bring to bear God's inerrant word²⁰ on this fascinating spiritual phenomenon. When addressing these spiritual phantoms, it is important to keep in mind the following:

- ANGELS: ELECT & DAMNED--The angels that kept not their first estate but are reserved in chains under darkness until the judgement of the great day are found in Jude 1:6 . In Revelation 12:3, 4 we find when the angelic rebellion commenced in Revelation 12 the dragon's "tail drew a third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth." Remember, this occurred at Christ's incarnation, NOT in Genesis 1 or "In the beginning."
- ANGELS ARE CREATED BEINGS--This is revealed in John 1:1-3. The Word, Jesus Christ, created them all
- THE ANGEL'S CREATOR: JESUS CHRIST--All things visible and invisible were created by Jesus Christ--Colossians 1:16
- UNCLEAN SPIRITS SENT TO THOSE WHO HOLD THE TRUTH IN UNRIGHTEOUSNESS--Demonic activity exploded in the New Testament as the Creator, Jesus Christ, God incarnate, became the nemesis and only solution to demonic deliverance, exorcism. See the false exorcism in Acts 19:13-16 , as well as a Roman priest performing a false exorcism in Alberto Rivera's, The Force
- GOD'S ORIGINAL DESIGN & PURPOSE OF ANGELS--They are ministering spirits sent to those whom God has called and chosen (Heb. 1:13, 14)

²⁰ The Pure Cambridge Edition of the King James Bible, Australia, circa 1900.

- NO! ANGELS CANNOT HAVE SEX WITH HUMANS--Their Creator, Jesus Christ, clarifies for us in Matthew 22:24-30, that the seven short-lived husbands who had left no offspring to the woman whom they had married, were told they neither marry NOR are they given in marriage, therefore they are like the angels in heaven. In conclusion, angels lack genitalia or the reproductive capacity to procreate after their own kind. Jesus' comment on the resurrected man neither being married, nor those "given in marriage" is an indirect suggestion that angels are not feminine. Be my guest! Look throughout the scriptures and you will find that God's angels always appear in masculine form. Oh, and in Genesis 6:4 where it says that giants resulted from the union between the sons of God and the daughters of men, these were human giants. These individuals were ordinary in their human appearance, but extraordinary in their stature, "mighty men which were of old, men of renown," towering up to 20-30'. The sons of God were offspring from Adam, Seth, Enos . . . Those of Adam's genealogy from Genesis 5. Those who would convince you that the sons of God are angels, are the unlearned, ignorant, naïve, or sinister and are wrestling with the scriptures at the expense of their own souls
- THE ANGEL'S CREATOR, JESUS CHRIST, PERMITS THEM TO MATERIALIZE AND DE-MATERIALIZE--The ELECT ANGELS have never faced the predicament the FALLEN ANGELS have, namely physical death. Even though fallen angels have been permitted to materialize, their mortality is allowed to run its course--they physically die.²¹ This never appears to be the case with elect angels who are permitted to materialize, seamlessly execute God's will, then de-materialize back into eternity.
- THE SPIRIT OF TRUTH AND THE SPIRIT OF ERROR: AS FAR AS THE EAST IS FROM THE WEST--Unclean spirits, devils, lying spirits, Legion, etc. all mimic Satan in their consistent message of falsehood,²² namely, to deceive those who hold the truth in unrighteousness. If you are a child of disobedience and not one of the elect, you have a giant bullseye of deception on your back!
- THE SOCIAL MEMORY COMPLEX OF THE FALLEN ANGELS VS. THE LIBERTY OF CONSCIENCE FOR THE ELECT ANGELS--There could not be a more

²¹ For those familiar with the Roswell incident beginning on July 4, 1947, about 11:50 p.m., shortly thereafter a number of these biological entities were recovered and secretly conveyed to Wright-Patterson AFB, Ohio. I will not refer to them as extraterrestrial biological entities (E.B.E.'s) because they are from a DIFFERENT DIMENSION, not 'another world' or from some distant constellation such as Zeta Reticuli.

²² Jesus said of the Jewish religious leaders in John 8:44, "Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it."

chasmic contrast between the collectivist thinking within the demonic realm and those angels elected of God. When I speak of liberty of conscience, I mean angels in the presence of God, knowing that should they rebel against their Creator, there is only one sentence for them--consignment "in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day." Angels know nothing of God's grace through faith--they are in the very presence of God in heaven. Such was the case of those angels that also rebelled--no grace, no mercy, no leniency, no forgiveness.

- REDEEMED MEN WILL JUDGE ANGELS--In 1 Corinthians 6:1,2 Paul admonishes the Corinthian church in their refusal to judge those living in open sin (fornication, incest, adultery), while at the same time going to the unbelieving magistrates and taking their Christian brothers to court. In the millennium Paul was reminding them that the judgment of the resurrected saints will have preeminence over the elect angels.

As for the debris retrieved out of the desert that July, it had another destiny. Shipped to Fort Bliss, Texas, headquarters of the 8th Army Air Force, and summarily analyzed for what it was and what it might contain, all of it was transferred to the control of the military. As quickly as it arrived, some of the debris was flown to Ohio, where it was put under lock and key at Wright Airfield - later Wright - Patterson. The rest of it was loaded onto trucks and sent up to a rest stop at Fort Riley in Kansas. The 509th returned to its daily routine, Jesse Marcel went back to work as if he'd never held the wreckage from the strange craft in his own hands, and the contractors returned to their work on the pipes and doors and walls at the base just as if nothing had ever arrived there from the desert.
