The reason for all our success in the administrative department was because of John. Thank you for all you do for our team and our clients John! You'll always be my rockstar VA.

I w/ the admin dept. appreciate you!

I don't have better words for the work John do! He's a well oiled machine.

I was a bit intimidated at first to hire a VA. From the time I interviewed him 'til the time I have him onboard, and even prior to that, John was always on top of every step of the way. To me, there's nothing more important in taking such a huge step than having I was a bit intimidated by buying but Ozzy was there to make sure I made the right moves as a first time homebuyer. From the time I placed an offer to when I signed, and even prior to that, Ozzy was present every step of the way. To me, there's nothing more important in taking such a huge step than having clear communication.

You won't be making a mistake by having John on your side.
