Pakk ALERT PRIORITY RESPONSE

The first 12 to 72 hours after a disaster are critical in determining whether your business fully recovers.

Pakk ALERT program can reduce response time, improve your chances of full recovery, and limit the financial impact of a disaster to your business operation.

Pakk ALERT is activated with one call to our 24-hour hotline. A dedicated account manager is assigned to each Pakk ALERT member so that your company is given priority attention.

With PAKK as your recovery partner, your business has access to the most experienced recovery team and most effective solutions in the world.
