Judy is a licensed Team Lead Optician with expertise in business operations and teaching. Based in Bridgewater, NJ, she leads a high-revenue LensCrafters store under Essilor/Luxottica, consistently surpassing performance goals while delivering exceptional customer service. Skilled in eyewear dispensing, lab edging, and frame adjustments, Judy has helped countless clients improve their vision and confidence. She is also dedicated to advancing opticianry through apprenticeship programs, educational materials, and speaking engagements at opticianry schools and industry events.

Judy is an ABO Certified Public Speaker and a contributing writer for Pro to Pro 20/20 Magazine, where she authors articles and continuing education courses that support professional growth. She serves on her state optical board and co-chairs the Optical Women's Association's 30's subcommittee, focused on growing membership across ophthalmology, optometry, and opticianry.

Judy holds a Bachelor's in Economics and an Associate of Applied Science in Ophthalmics, along with executive management certifications. Fluent in English, Spanish, Italian, and French, she brings a global perspective to her work. Passionate about both opticianry and business, Judy continues to make meaningful contributions to the optical field through education and leadership.
