

Mike Gzik NCLE Speaker

contactmikeg@yahoo.com

Mike Gzik is a graduate of Erie Community College in Ophthalmic Dispensing. He is a New York State licensed optician /contact lens practitioner. He is a Fellow in the Contact Lens Society of America, JCAHPO Certified Ophthalmic Technician and NCLE certified. Mr. Gzik works in a private optical office in Syracuse NY, "New York Optometric" He has worked as a consultant and technical trainer for Bausch & Lomb professional services. He is a adjunct instructor for contact lens technology at SUNY Health Science Center Syracuse NY, Department of Ophthalmology resident program. He has worked as a site coordinator for Taunton Excimer laser in Syracuse, he is a past president of the NY Contact Lens Society. He has served the Contact Lens Society of America as a director and treasurer. He was the Contact Lens Society of America member of the year in 2001 and presented the Theo E. Obrig lecture at the 2002 CLES meeting.