

Crystal Anthony is a seasoned professional in the optical industry with over 20 years of experience spanning dispensing, buying, and compliance. Currently serving as the Project and Training Manager at Hilco Vision, Crystal combines her deep industry knowledge with a passion for education and professional development. As an ABO Certified Optician and Level 2 Approved Speaker, Crystal has trained and spoken to audiences of all sizes, making complex concepts approachable and engaging. Her dynamic approach to continuing education reflects her belief in lifelong learning and professional excellence. Crystal also serves as the President of the Illinois Opticians Association, where she actively advocates for the advancement of opticians in the state. In recognition of her leadership and impact, she was honored as one of the 2024 Most Influential Women in Optical.