What’s New

Its finally time for us to rake leaves and prepare for the chaotic holidays. Don't panic! I'm here to help shop for presents, host parties, declutter or decorate.

I am thrilled to share that business is booming! Word is spreading from happy clients and networking friends. Both new and original clients are taking advantage of seasonal services and filling the time slots.

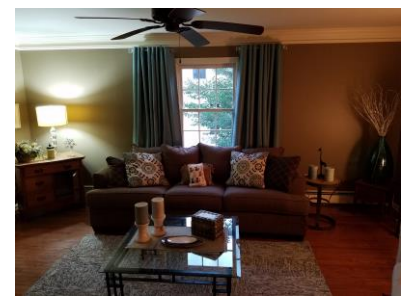

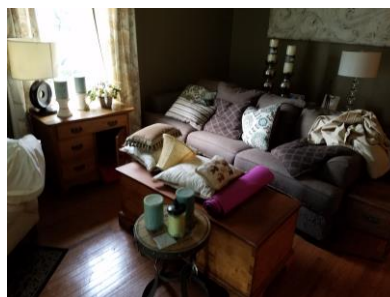

Here are some recent services;

- PARTIES! I have had hosted a fun happy hour for Parkland Abstracts at a distillery. I was honored to host the ribbon cutting ceremony for Holistic Awakenings, a new wellness center in Catasauqua.
- TRANSPORT: Rides to Newark's Liberty Airport are a popular request. The holidays will add a lot of family visits. I can deliver them to you with a flair, so book early.
- New Members: A new membership client has needed medical, transport, and organizational assistance. I'm helping her move forward and stand tall.
- Pets: I've posted a quick video of my favorite furry clients on Facebook and asyouwishlvpa.com.
- Decluttering: I've been having fun with a friend in NJ reorganizing her full house into a home she feels calm in. Check out this before and after.
