“Clutter is anything that gets between you and the life you want to be living.”

-Peter Walsh

Let's shake off the confines of lockdown by cleaning out the Covid clutter!

If you are like me, you may have been a bit overzealous with ordering online over the past year. Or maybe try a few new hobbies that require new supplies and equipment. My winter of baking was delicious but now I need to find space for the new pans, cake decorating tools, and ingredients. Unfortunately, I did not follow a basic rule of organizing... for everything that comes in, something needs to go. So, 2021 is the summer of declutter. If you are in the same overcrowded boat let me help you reclaim space and sanity.

Like so many other small businesses, 2020 had its share of challenges and creative solutions. I am happy to share that business is rebounding as clients once again need a pet sitter while traveling, assistance to appointments, or a declutter coach. Call me if you or anyone you care about can benefit from these services individually or by monthly packages.

REDUCE STRESS.
SAVE TIME.

Help! I'm Moving: The latest Real Estate market developments have motivated quite a few to find new homes. This year I have painted, shampooed rugs, staged rooms, coordinated with vendors, met with contractors, packed, and unpacked for clients helping to relieve stress and save valuable time.

Transport to Appointments: After months of ferrying clients to get vaccinations, I am now able to bring them to salons, shops, appointments, and visits. I am so happy to reconnect with my regulars and look forward to meeting new clients.

Pet/House Sitting: I offer overnight and 30 minute day visits for your fur babies.

No pets? I can take in mail, water plants, put out trash, and confirm your house is secure.

New Offerings

- Sell Items online – I am offering a new service for declutter clients by selling or donating items using my business account on Facebook Marketplace. Items sold are split 70/30.
- Private Winery or Spirit Tours – Looking for a great day with a special someone or a way to entertain out of town guests? How about a private tour of local pubs, wineries, and/or distilleries? Tours are custom designed and I'll even provide snacks between stops.

There are more projects and exciting plans on the horizon so look for updates, photos, and my full list of services on Facebook and at asyouwishlvpa.com.

Finally, Thank You to all my friends, clients, and family for another successful year in business. Be well!
