

Name: _____

Legal Terminology

Due 3-21-24 - Use the words from the Vocabulary assignment this week to complete the puzzle.

Across

2. A full and complete right to a thing
4. The intentional disfiguring of a person; chaos
7. A corporation organized for a charitable purpose
11. The heading of a legal instrument
15. When a doctor or other person who aids in an emergency cannot be held liable for any resulting negligence claims
16. A binding agreement between two or more parties to do or not to do a specified thing
18. For this special purpose
19. A system by which overextended debtors may seek relief
20. To deny away

Down

1. Laws that are common to all the people
3. A party to a lawsuit
5. A corporation that has been granted a charter after complying with all statutory requirements
6. An outline by counsel of what they intend to prove during the course of the trial
8. A written accusation of a crime, prepared by the prosecuting attorney
9. When an accused person is released on his reputation and need not give any money bail
10. With intention to gain or profit
12. Indicating that a thing is in being or in existence
13. To plead guilty to a lesser charge that can be proven in order to save the time and expense of a trial
14. An agreement in which performance on the part of one side is conditional on an uncertain or fortuitous event
17. To speak the truth; a preliminary interrogation of prospective jurors or a witness