

This is what we do:

- Work with the client to try to find and maintain housing;
- Assist with filling out applications;
- Support clients throughout their move into housing;
- Provide support to the tenant and landlord relationship, as required;
- Connect clients to additional resources and support;
- Provide a current Housing Directory;
- Provide training, workshops, and resources on housing related topics.

Our Housing Directory and other information which you may find helpful can be found at signyorkton.ca/housing-support

“ When individuals and families live in and maintain safe, suitable housing, their health, social and economic conditions will improve. ”

We strive to decrease barriers that homeless or hard-to-house individuals and families face in Yorkton.

Our program is proactive and preventative, focusing on assisting the unhoused and housing insecure to find and maintaining healthy, safe, suitable housing.

We accept self-referrals and agency referrals.

Call or email us to set up an appointment or for further information.

Society for the Involvement of Good Neighbours HOUSING SUPPORT

We believe individuals and families have the right to healthy, safe, secure housing. We support hard-to-house or homeless individuals and families who are trying to secure adequate housing.

We do not own or administer housing, but provide referrals, resources, information, training and workshops to assist those looking for housing.

We embrace diversity and welcome all who need healthy, safe, secure housing in Yorkton. We offer support and education to decrease barriers that people face, and we pledge to be open, transparent and honest in all our interactions.

If you are homeless or need help finding healthy, safe, suitable housing in Yorkton for yourself or your family, you are welcome to contact us.

What is homelessness?

The situation of an individual or family without stable, safe, permanent, appropriate housing, or the immediate prospect, means and ability to acquire it.
