Vocational Employment seeks to increase employability and self-sufficiency by providing job skills training and a job coach to work with clients. Job types performed by clients may include:

- Lawn care
- House cleaning
- Janitorial
- Seasonal yard clean-ups
- Miscellaneous jobs

Independent Living provides individuals with basic living skills to facilitate independent living. Services provided include:

- Support and reassurance
- Teaching skills related to housekeeping, menu planning, meal preparation, shopping, budgeting and personal hygiene, help with locating housing, and relocation
- Advocacy
- Assistance with accessing community resources

The programs provide on-site training and supervision as well as independent living support and services to individuals with persistent mental health illnesses.

Vocational Employment is designed to prepare and assist individuals who have difficulty obtaining and/or maintaining employment.

Referrals to the programs are made by Mental Health Services only.
