“A Bar with Purpose”

Our Purpose

The Keel is about exploring the history of the Sailor's Home and the importance of taking care of those on a journey.

In the 1800's this building housed those sailors arriving and departing from these shores. They would tell tall tales of the sea by the comfort of the old fireplace and enjoy each other's company before they would continue to explore this world.

We at The Keel believe in community and taking care of people in need. As such 50% of all profits go to reforestation of the Australian rainforest and giving custodianship of the land back to the Kuku Yalangi people of the Daintree.

If you feel a little weary after your journey, then let us help guide you through. If you feel like a well abled sailor then feel free to read about our charity or contribute to the cause via the link below.

Cocktails, Punch & Sours

- Native Pine 22
Cold pressed pineapple, Davidson plum, rosella flower, rum, lime
A Daiquiri by any other name would be just as sweet. This native aperitivo version brings two summer loves together again.
- Grace O'Malley 21
Cold drip coffee, macadamia, wattleseed demerara, Jameson Irish
A formidable Irish pirate, she defended her lands against both the English & hostile Irish clans. O'Malley fortified important coastal lands against invaders.
- Berry Bush 23
Watermelon, blackberry compote, Hickson Sydney gin, bush tomato
Bush tomatoes are a desert plant that love the drier bush fire seasons to grow and were part of the hot spices used in the indigenous diet. It's a perfect complement to a more tropical watermelon with Hickson's locally sourced gin .
- Beenleigh to Beerenberg 21
Fresh grapefruit, Beerenberg marmalade, Beenleigh rum, aperitivo
Brisbane had some of Australia's most important river runs for sugar harvesting. It was here that a river boat moored in Beenleigh had the idea to avoid the taxman by hiding a distillery on a ship and travelling the harbour to sell rum & sugar.
- Splice the Main Brace 25
Mango Sorbet, Coconut, Iridium white, Uncle Wray, orgeat, lemon
It was a difficult task on a ship board to repair the main brace hemp rigging. It would often deserve a justifiable reward.
- Calico Jack Fashioned 24
House cacao & coffee bean rum, pedro ximenez, smoked rosemary
More of a lover than a fighter, Calico Jack loved his wine and fierce female pirates. This old fashioned is a reminder than some things can be sweet & fierce.

Our Spirits Offering

We are very proud of our extensive range of rum & whisky.

We have crafted a unique offering with a number of rotating vintage spirits that are only available at The Keel. Take a step back in time and try one of these unique spirits.

We have also added a number of Australian local spirits to each category as well. We believe buying local is not only because Australia produces the best, but also that it means a lower carbon footprint for each drink you imbibe.
