NEWS RELEASE*For Immediate Release*HERITAGE ANNOUNCES DR. SPOONER AS CHIEF SCIENCE OFFICER

Vancouver, B.C., October 16, 2018 – HERITAGE CANNABIS HOLDINGS CORPORATION (CSE: CANN) (“Heritage” or “Company”) is pleased to announce that Dr. Chris Spooner has joined the management team as Chief Science Officer.

Heritage is projecting that the cannabis industry will mirror the growth and development of the nutraceutical and integrative medicine industries, and Dr. Spooner’s clinical experience and insight in the areas of regulation and business development will prove incredibly useful in creating product lines, patient care protocols and customer satisfaction programs.

Dr. Spooner is a North Okanagan naturopathic doctor with extensive academic, clinical and business development experience. With over 20 years of experience owning and operating integrative care clinics, Dr. Spooner brings a targeted skill set that encompasses nutraceutical development, patient care protocols and clinic development. He is a member of numerous medical advisory boards, including of Atrium Innovations, a division of Nestlé Health Sciences, Translational Life Sciences and Kisameet Glacial Clay. In addition to this, Dr. Spooner has over a decade of experience on the board of directors of the College of Naturopathic Physicians of British Columbia.

Clint Sharples, Chairman and interim CEO says “We are excited to expand our management team to include Dr. Spooner. He is uniquely qualified and has ample experience to lead our efforts to become a significant participant in the quickly changing industry of natural health products. He brings both knowledge and existing agreements to our company, and will move us forward in this part of the business much quicker than on our own.”
