For Immediate Release

ANOTHER HERITAGE SUBSIDIARY RECEIVES UPDATED LICENSE FROM HEALTH CANADA

Vancouver, B.C., November 15, 2018 – HERITAGE CANNABIS HOLDINGS CORPORATION (CSE: CANN) (“Heritage” or “Company”) is pleased to announce that its other subsidiary and Licensed Producer, CannaCure Corp. (“CannaCure”) has received its updated license in accordance with Health Canada’s Cannabis Act and Cannabis Regulations.

As previously announced on November 13, 2018 with subsidiary company PhyeinMed Inc., this new updated Standard Cultivation License, permits CannaCure to sell seeds and clones wholesale to either a provincial distribution channel or dried flower and oil to a company with a Cultivation/Processing License - Micro or Standard.

In accordance with subsection 11(5) of the Cannabis Regulations, this new license authorizes CannaCure to sell cannabis to other qualified license holders under the Cannabis Act and Cannabis Regulations, as well it allows for:

- The sale and distribution of dried cannabis, fresh cannabis, cannabis plants and cannabis plant seeds to any qualified license holders.
- The sale and distribution of cannabis plants and cannabis plant seeds to a holder of a license for a nursery;
- The sale and distribution of cannabis plants and cannabis plant seeds, that are cannabis products to: a holder of a license for sale, or a person authorized to sell cannabis

“This has been a big week for Heritage and our subsidiaries who are preparing for production. Now with CannaCure joining PhyeinMed with an updated license, we have expanded our optionality and ability to execute on our partnership programs” states Clint Sharples, Chairman and interim CEO of Heritage “we look forward to receiving our first batch of genetics and starting to grow in Fort Erie very soon.”
