NEWS RELEASEFor Immediate Release*Extraction Systems Receive Manufacturing Certification

Vancouver, B.C., March 5, 2019 – HERITAGE CANNABIS HOLDINGS CORP. (CSE: CANN) (“Heritage” or “Company”) is pleased to announce the installed extraction systems at the PhyeinMed Inc. (“PhyeinMed”) facility in Falkland, British Columbia has received manufacturing certification.

The extraction machines have been calibrated and tested and are now being prepared to receive dried hemp feedstock to begin processing it into high grade CBD oil. Vitalis’ certification guarantees each pressure equipment meets ASME and CSA standards for Boiler, Pressure Vessel and Pressure Piping Code, and carry CRN and NB registration numbers as confirmation. PhyeinMed extractions machines are also subject to an elaborate internal commissioning process prior to operating.

“As we continue to invest in our growth, the timing couldn’t be better to receive certification of our extraction systems. We have positioned ourselves very well to be able to service the rising demand for refined concentrates in Canada.” said Clint Sharples, CEO of Heritage “Execution of our business plan continues to be the focus in our company. A key part of strategy is extracting our own products, as well as offering our services to other Licenced Producers.”
