A GUIDE FOR BAA ARTISTS DISPLAYING THEIR WORK ON THE WEBSITE

There is no extra fee to have your work posted for sale on the Website if you presently pay to display your art at the BAA Gallery.
There is a fee of $10 per month for those members who wish to have their work posted on the Website for sale and do not pay to display their art at the BAA Gallery.

Here are some Guidelines to keep in mind for those posting their work on the Website.

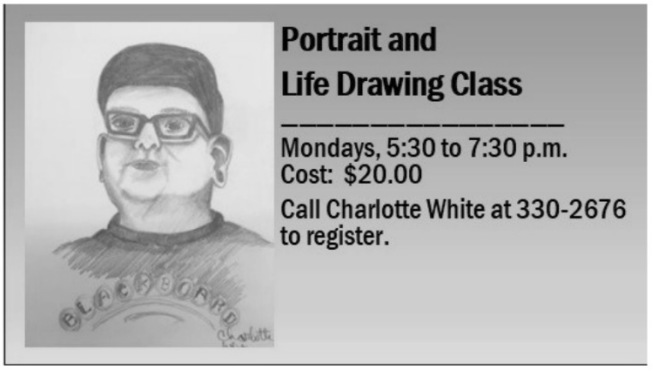
Submit a BIO (include contact info: phone number and/or email) with a picture of yourself to Edwina (edavis1@bak.rr.com).

Submit clear photos (JPG format, 1-2 Mb) of your work. Include "Title","Medium", "Size and/or Weight", and "Sale Price". A limit of not more than10 art works at a time to display is desirable.

Check your Web Page at least once a month to ensure that your information posted is current and correct. If you want to add or delete items, you may do so any time by emailing me the information.

If you have sold an item that has been posted on your Web Page; contact me as soon as possible and I will remove it (edavis1@bak.rr.com).

Art work sales from your Web Page will be processed the same way as sales made at the BAA Gallery store. Make arrangements with your buyer for payment and pickup of your work at the BAA Art Gallery.

If you are showing at a Satellite location and include work that is currently posted on you Web Page, please notify me. Art work can not be displayed at both locations at the same time and must be removed from the photo gallery on your Web Page for the duration of your Satellite show.


Our Web Site averages 1,600 views a month. People are looking at us and your art work. Although we do not currently have an on-line sales process, posting your art and contact information to a personal Web Page on our Website can encourage sales. Please help me to keep your personal page current and enticing for our web visitors.
