SILENT AUCTION DECEMBER 13th

We will be having a Silent Auction at the December 13th meeting to raise funds for art student & teacher scholarships to be presented at the spring June 13th meeting. An art student will receive a $1,000 scholarship to further their art education & a high school art teacher will receive $500 to use in their art classes. The funds raised will fund the scholarships.

We are asking all members to participate by asking businesses, individuals or yourself to donate. A letter is available at the Art Center front desk for any donation you obtain, which contains our Tax ID# for tax purposes for both businesses & your donations.

Members are encouraged to donate baskets, cellophane wrap, & ribbons for the merchandise. Charlotte will be putting the baskets together on the 3rd & 4th. Anyone & everyone is encouraged to come in to assist on those days. All help is welcomed!

Sample ideas: restaurant - donate dinner for two; store - basket of merchandise, or art teacher donate art classes. Other ideas for baskets: art supplies, car washes, rides down the Kern River; hot air balloon rides, Disneyland tickets, hockey tickets, etc., etc.

All donations (including estimated value) must be turned into the Art Center by 10 a.m. on or before Wednesday, December 4, 2025. All donations will then be placed in baskets and put on display. The public will be able to come into the Art Center to bid on the baskets. For questions or to participate, please call Charlotte White at (661) 330-2676.

Items already being donated for the Silent Auction: A 10 X 6 Audubon's Birds of America lithograph of three Black-bellied Plover birds nesting; a Salty's gift card and a coloring book; two art classes; two photo prints by Todd Thorpe; a Costco basket; a Mary Kay basket, a Dewar's basket, a Trader Joe's basket; baskets and wrapping supplies & art supplies basket, plus donations.
