(Interim) PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

"The busy holiday season is now behind us and I hope all of you have a chance to be with family and friends, sharing the spirit of giving and sharing. We had much of that sharing at the Christmas party at the Art Center on Saturday, December 11th. There were many laughs while exchanging the White Elephant gifts. We wish all of you a Happy New Year filled with good will and good health.

Things are looking up downtown. More people are feeling safer and able to get out and shop. We have observed more visitors in the gallery. During the past couple of months, we have also seen an increase in sales. The Mayos' were working on a Saturday and had a thousand dollar day. The First Friday of December, Mark Engelein's reception, was a big success. He probably had over fifty visitors and within two hours, BAA sales were over $1,500. Sorry, this is not happening every day we are open, but is a good sign.

It is time to thank many of you who have donated monetarily over the past year. Some with monthly sustaining donations, many anonymous gifts and the generous gift from Bob and Pam Smith which will be noted up on the Giving Wall in the West gallery. Also, it must be noted that there are many of our gallery artists and members who give their time and talents in order for the Association to thrive. You are all appreciated. If you look at the list of volunteers on the second page of this newsletter, all the board and committee people are listed.

The coverage in the local newspaper and the BAA newsletter has been great, thanks to our publicity person, Mimi Placencia. December's issue had photos from Feature Wall artists, the information and photos of the High School student art show and many entries for the Satellite artists. Mimi also posts the monthly gallery information on BAA Facebook, and passes it on to the Website person and our Instagram person. If you don't send her information when it is requested, she has nothing to report. Charlotte White has been a big contributor to the newspaper also. Be sure to check out what is happening at the BAA and the Art Center gallery with any of the above sources.

Drop by the Art Center for a visit, and bring your friends to see some great art. Stay healthy and safe." -Iva Fendrick

DAGNY'S FEATURED ARTIST

"Everywhere a Sign" by Michael Todd Thorpe.
Photographs of Bakersfield landmarks, some gone but not forgotten. Photographer Michael Todd Thorpe has been carrying a camera of some sort ever since he was a child, starting with a Kodak Brownie. In high school he learned to shoot and edit video, which would later lead to a career in television. In college he studied photography, with a focus on composition, developing and printing.

In 2013, Thorpe left a 20+ year job as an award-winning writer/videographer/editor/producer in broadcast television to teach photography at Valley Oaks Charter High School. He still shoots film from time to time with his collection of classic 35mm cameras, not to mention his daily digital carry, a Canon EOS 70D DSLR.

Thorpe says, "In the end, it's not about the tools you use, it's how you use those tools to fulfill your vision."

JANUARY MEETING PROGRAM

At the January 8, general meeting, the program will be by Mark Engelein on using perspective in art . It is designed to simplify the use of perspective to simple terms.

This is a program designed to aid the artist in portraying three dimensional images on two dimensional planes that help create the relative sense of depth and scale.

It will cover how perspective is used as a tool to establish eyeline (horizon line), vanishing points and their importance in creating relative scale .

It will explore one, two and three point perspective for comparative understanding .

It will share techniques , or tricks, to help the artist confirm relative methods to divide or expand elements in perspective.

There will be handouts to reinforce the approaches explored in the presentation for the attendees future reference. -Mark Engelen

"For my part I know nothing with any certainty, but the sight of the stars makes me dream."

-Vincent Van Gogh

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

(by Charlotte White)

Bob Ross tries to explain, "I am often asked where my inspiration comes from and how I paint so often?! Well I don't have the right answer . . . It's a way of life for me and it make me happy!" One of God's greatest gifts to us is using our imagination to solve situations and create joy. Use your imagination as when you were young to "play"! Have fun . . . and grow.

Paint your feeling not the object, and let your viewer be a partner in the creation . Let them fill in the details. "The viewer is a participant in this creation story"

PLEIN AIRE TREKKERS

(by Charlotte White)

Jan. 15th Shafter Train Depot Museum, 150 Central Valley Highway (State Highway 43) 9 a.m. to noon. We will be outside if there is no fog. If there is fog, we will be sketching inside the depot.

January 29-30 Cambria and Morro Bay Field

On Saturday, we will be sketching/painting at a little open space on Nottingham Drive on the cliff overlooking the ocean. Artists should bring a lunch and drinks.

The following directions were given by Cindy Stiles. To get there, turn off of Hwy. 1 on Windsor Blvd. toward the ocean. Windsor is the 4th stop light on Hwy 1 going north. Continue straight (don't turn on Moonstone Beach Drive), at the park, the road turns to the left. Stay on Windsor until you get to Bristol or Plymouth Street. Then you're looking for where the houses on the ocean side of the street stop and there's a tiny park. Cindy said she thought the closest cross street is Dorset. The cliff is a little hike so you may want to only use your sketchbook. Warning: There is limited cell phone service in the Cambria area. Plan on critique and picnic at Shamel Park where there are tables and a bathroom.

In the evening, the artists will meet for dinner, tbd.

On Sunday, we will be sketching/painting on the southside of the Cayucos pier, if you want to paint Morro Rock. Or on the north side of the Cayucos pier, if you want to sketch/paint the cliff.

Lunch will be at a restaurant in Cayucos. Artists are responsible for their own transportation, motels, and meals. For questions call Charlotte White at (661) 330-2676.
