Bakersfield Art Association

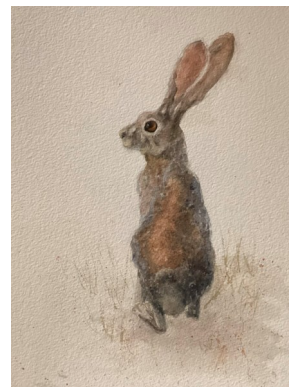

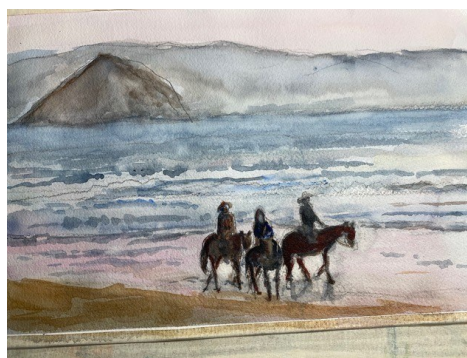

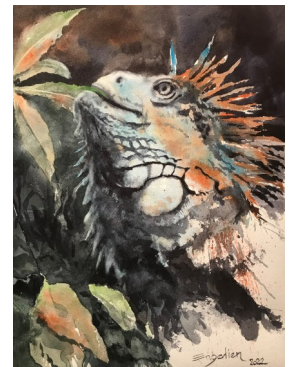

January 2023

January Featured Artist

“Critters & Creatures” is the featured art at the BAA Art Center through January. There will be an artist's reception on First Friday, January 6 from 5 to 8 pm. Refreshments will be served. There will also be a virtual show on the Bakersfield Art Association website, Facebook and Instagram pages.

Artists were requested to enter works about animals that fly, walk, crawl, trot or slither; domesticated or wild. And that is what we got in every medium and style. There is something for everyone in this show if you love animals. Artists include Stacey Wingate, Mark Englien, Norma Eaton, Edwina Davis, Stella Mullins, Vicki Meadows, Deborah Cooper, Roline Leung Witt, Chrissy Rogers, Marsha Black, Iva Fendrick and Phyllis Oliver.

Dagny's Featured Artist

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

We're in the cold weather now! Brrr! We are hoping to get more members out to events in the New Year! Onward to 2023!

The December 2nd First Friday featured paintings by the students of Julie Fleming. Julie graciously agreed to exhibit the work of her students at the last minute after someone else was not able to show in December. Julie's all media class is held at the Art Center on Mondays from 12 to 3 p.m. Thank you, Julie.

The December 10th general members meeting was our Annual Potluck along with a fun White Elephant Gift Exchange. We had a good turn-out and all attending had a great time during the fun gift exchange. My sparkly lighted mushroom got stolen 3 times. What fun!

Also of note, the Arts Council of Kern sponsored the first First Friday of the year on the sidewalks in front of and near our gallery. We're hoping to see more excitement for the upcoming First Fridays.

The January First Friday reception on the 6th will feature the group show entitled "Critters and Creatures" organized by Norma Eaton. This is going to be a fun show for all to enjoy. The possibility of a July 2023 Group Show about Book Covers is also in the works. Norma opined that she felt that show just might be as popular as the Masterpieces Show. Here's an extra thanks going out to Norma Eaton as she's getting busier in her new home to the north (Washington) and will be passing the group shows on to someone new.

The program for the January general members meeting on the second Saturday (January 14th at 10 a.m.) is presently being planned. VP Micki Schulz will send out a blast when the details are set in stone. Anyone for a critique by the members, or new ideas are welcomed.

The January High School Exhibit will feature Independence HS students; and Stockdale HS students. A reception will be held on Saturday, December 7th between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. Two new high schools will be featured each month. All are welcome to view this great student art.

We are always looking for new exhibitors. In January we will have two small spaces and possibly two other spaces available. Be sure to contact Jim Bates or Martin Varga if you are interested or know someone who is wanting to be a part of the gallery (contact information on this page under Contacts).

Bob Ross, our Workshop Chairman, is looking for ideas. Under discussion is a workshop by Cathi Thorpe, David Gordon and a possible watercolor workshop by a previous BAA member who now lives in Morro Bay (Kathy Miller). Something to look forward to. When we know for certain, information will go out to you.

Stella Mullins, President

BAA MISSION STATEMENT

It is important for us to revisit the Objectives and Purposes for which the BAA was formed (the Mission Statement).

- To provide an opportunity for study and improvement in art technique;
- To encourage an interest in and an appreciation of art in the community;
- To provide opportunities for exhibition and for sales of member's work.
- To recognize the works of other artists; and
- To offer scholarships to the community for art education.

DAGNY'S FEATURED ARTIST

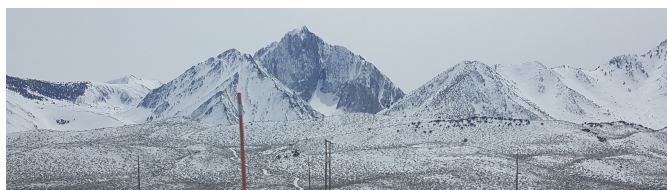

Karen Schuett, "Studies in Form" is the featured artist at Dagny's for January. Recently retired after a rewarding career in elementary education, Karen has been able to devote her time and energy to her own art. One of her pleasures in teaching was ensuring that her students were able to work on a variety of art projects when the focus on art as a part of education was diminished. The classroom was always filled with student artwork, which gave them great pride in their creations and allowed them to create a piece that did not have a wrong or right answer.

For a number of years, she has been expressing herself through her work as a jewelry designer. Karen's jewelry, utilizing freshwater pearls and natural gemstones, is also currently on display at the Bakersfield Art Association. Karen is now transitioning to expressions on canvas. She is self-taught and enjoys exploring design.

Karen lived in Japan for two years and has been influenced by Japanese calligraphy (Shuji) in creating her forms. She has also been a long-time admirer of the abstract style, fascinated with the work of Franz Kline, Paul Klee and Jackson Pollack. She loves the simplicity of the monochromatic pallet and the contrasts that can be depicted in her creation of forms and patterns.

MARCH MINIATURE GROUP SHOW

Miniature Paintings. Entries no later than February 8th, midnight. Entry fee will be $15.00 as usual for group shows. No bigger than 8"x 8" framed. They can be 2"x 8" or 4"x 5" or 3"x 7", any variety, not to exceed 8" x 8". Paintings are to be small to fit into a frame but no bigger than listed. Any subject, any medium.

BRING BACK THE KERN

We wanted to give artists a heads up to get out there and start painting. You can paint areas of the Kern that are flowing now, or areas where the Kern is not flowing but how it would look with the River Restored. Registration and Entry Information will be in the February and March Newsletters. The Prospectus will be available at the BAA in February. Finished sizes include framing. The Minimum finished size is 8x10. The Maximum is 20x24

The BAA will be partnering with "Bring Back the Kern" organization to publicize the benefits of bringing back the Kern River through Bakersfield. We have reserved the month of April for a group show that will showcase Art of the Kern River. As with all group shows, the non-refundable entry fee is $15 for membership per entry, $20 for non-members per entry. A Prospectus is available at the BAA or you can request one from Kay Hall at artistsbaa@gmail.com Entry Deadline: All artists interested in participating in this exhibit must register with Kay Hall by Friday, March 10, 2023. Registration includes the Entry form and a digital image (at least 1 MB in size). Entry fee is due on or before the day you registration. E-mail Kay your entries at artistsbaa@gmail.com or call (661) 444-7360 (between 10am and 3pm) Be sure of the proper email spelling. You are not entered if you do not receive a confirmation reply within 24 hours. Do not text your entry. Jurying will be on April 10 and you will be notified that week if your entry is accepted into the show. We do our best to accommodate all entries.

Satellite Art Shows in Businesses Guidelines

· So that all BAA members have a chance to exhibit, an artist must wait one year before exhibiting at the same location a second time.

All BAA members, who have been juried, may participate in BAA Satellite Art Shows.

- All art work submitted must be original with the artist. All reference photographs, used in the creative process, must be taken by the artist.
- Put the title of the painting/photograph, medium, copyright date/date painted, artist's name, address and phone number of the back of every painting/photograph.
- 16" x 20" is the recommended size. 11" x 14" is ok. Some locations may take larger pieces.
- D-rings only. All work must have a wire for hanging. Please tape wire end using transparent shipping tape.

JANUARY MEETING PROGRAM

(BY Micki Schulz)

Many members have requested to have more critique sessions.

So January's general meeting will be just that. There will be more information to come soon, but in the meantime, gather those paintings that you would like to get some coaching on.

I'm looking forward to beginning the new year with you & hope to see you there.
Happy New Year.
