NOVEMBER GROUP SHOW: ADELANTE ART COLLECTIVE (Jeanette Schumacher)

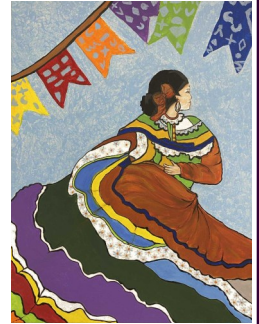

The Bakersfield Art Association has a very special show for the month of November 2025. The art of empowerment: In honoring Hispanic Latina elder women. Artist Jeanette Schumacher, a member of the Bakersfield Art Association, (BAA) has volunteered as a teacher to the Adelante Group in Arvin for the last five years. The Adelante Art Collective started in a small community (Arvin) and has blossomed into a powerful movement. The Collective journey started later in life. As their teacher, Jeanette Schumacher is continually inspired by their passion and progress.

For these ladies, art is more than a hobby – it's a form of healing and self-expression through painting and their heritage to celebrate their identities. The created pieces that they painted have a Latino motif with a modern technique that are both deeply, inspiring both pride and progress and full of life in every sense of the word. Their creativity is bold, the paintings are powerful, and their impacts lasting. By honoring their accomplishments, we uplift not only their words but the cultural tapestry they represent.

Exhibition details: Date: Friday, November 7, 2025; Time: 6 pm to 8 pm; Location: BAA Art Center, 1609 19th St., Bakersfield, CA. Refreshments will be served.

"Hombres en La Puerta" - Jose Fina

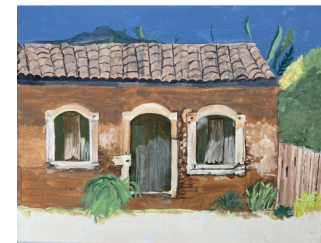

"Bailarina" - Monserrat Rodrigues

"Guitarrista" –

LAURA KETCHUM's show continues from October thru November.

BAA PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I recently took a wander through our gallery. I spent time perusing the greeting card racks. We have some wonderful merchandise there. The prices tend to be a bit lower than the grocery store greeting card racks and the artwork is certainly of a much higher quality. I stocked up on a few of several different artists. I would encourage you to take a look. With the holidays approaching you will need some, no doubt!

The October First Friday featured a group show titled "Fall". The reception was well attended, and the artwork will remain on the Featured Artist Wall throughout October. If you or your group are interested in exhibiting on the Featured Artist Wall, talk to Jim Bates. He is taking reservations for 2026.

At our October 11th General Meeting yours truly lead a fun exercise of drawing your own hand. It was different and got a good review. If you didn't attend, you missed a fun time.

The November First Friday (8th) will feature a delightful exhibit of art from a class lead by Jeanette Schmacher, a group of senior ladies from Arvin. See more on page 1.

The High School exhibit for the month of November will be Mira Monte High School student artists. See page 7 for more information.

Charlotte White, as the new Scholarship chair, is organizing a wonderful Christmas Raffle/Silent Auction. Information recently went out by email blast to the membership with how you can participate yourself and/or gather baskets from businesses you are connected to. This is a renewed effort to gather funds for the new Student and Teacher Scholarships to be presented in June, 2026.

If you are interested in participating in the satellite shows and have been juried in, check the book at the front desk to see about available space. Satellite Shows are a great way to get your work seen by many people.

Please make an effort to come to our First Friday Receptions and our Second Saturday Monthly Meetings. We need you here and it is a great time to visit with friends and meet other artists. Bring your spouse, your best friend, your cousin Jeffrey... well you get the idea!

I hope everyone is making time in their busy schedules to spend some making art. Let your mind wander and your spirit fly high. No telling how much you can accomplish when you are just having fun!

Marilyn J. Smith, President 2025-26.

BAA MISSION STATEMENT

It is important for us to revisit the Objectives and Purposes for which the BAA was formed (the Mission Statement).

- To provide an opportunity for study and improvement in art technique;
- To encourage an interest in and an appreciation of art in the community;
- To provide opportunities for exhibition and for sales of member's work.
- To recognize the works of other artists; and
- To offer scholarships to the community for art education.

DAGNY'S FEATURED ARTISTS: CASEY DEE & LAURA KETCHUM

This is part of a satellite show series with the Bakersfield Art Association; Casey Dee will be the featured artist at Dagny's for the month of November and Laura Ketchum will continue her show from October.

Dagny's is located at 1600 20th Street. The artist will be on hand at 6 pm on First Friday to speak about her art process.

Casey Dee holds a B.S. in Fine Arts from the University of Wisconsin, Madison, and studied in Florence, Italy. She is the curator of the Meadows Field Airport (BFL) art program, overseeing all rotating exhibitions throughout the terminal. Casey is also the founder and lead curator of Heal With Hue, an interactive coloring book gallery show at the airport. Her multidisciplinary work includes painting, sculpture, ceramics, and mixed media. Currently, she is exhibiting a unique mixed media piece at Dagny's Coffee Shop, using lint to represent steam rising from a coffee cup, alongside a series of photographs capturing her journeys around the world. Learn more at healwithhue.com

at healwithhue.com

Laura Ketchum will be continuing her show at Dagny's from October. She is an emerging artist based in Bakersfield, known for her vibrant acrylic paintings and mixed media works. With a passion for art that was ignited in childhood, Laura has always been creatively inclined, culminating in an Associate of Arts degree in fashion design.

Laura began her artistic journey in 2019, participating in wine and paint nights that revealed an unknown talent and sparked a love for painting. Since then, Laura has embraced her talent, painting professionally since 2021. Her work is characterized by deep, vibrant colors and intricate motifs, often featuring skulls, which reflect her unique perspective and interests, including a deep love for espresso.

Laura is recognized as a featured artist in a small local gallery. Her art resonates with viewers, inviting them into a world where color and emotion intertwine.

SECOND SATURDAY PROGRAM—NOVEMBER 8th

Join us after the general meeting (approximately 10:30 a.m.) on November 8th for an informative and inspiring program presented by Mark Engelen: Building Perspective for Artists.

Mark will share valuable insights and practical techniques to help artists strengthen their understanding of perspective — an essential foundation for creating depth and realism in their artwork.

You won't want to miss this one! Thank you and hope to see you there!

Also, the gallery will be closed on Thanksgiving Day but open again on Friday when Kay Hall will be setting up a Christmas Table to display items for sale for the holidays.

Lisa Faulkenberry,
BAA Vice President

SATELLITE ART SHOWS IN BUSINESS - GUIDELINES

*So that all BAA members have a chance to exhibit, an artist must wait one year before exhibiting at the same location a second time. Also artists can only exhibit in two locations each month. All BAA members, who have been juried, may participate in BAA Satellite Art Shows.

*All artwork submitted must be original with the artist. All reference photographs, used in the creative process must be taken by the artist.

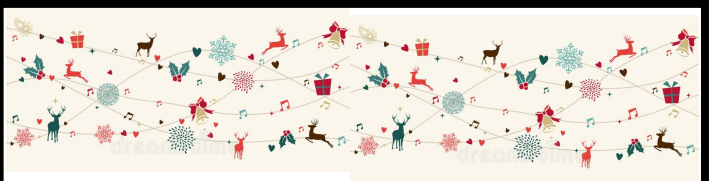

* Put the title of the painting/photograph, medium, copyright date/date painted, artist's name, address and phone number of the back of every painting/photograph.

* 16" x 20" is the recommended size. 11" x 14" is ok. Some locations may take larger pieces.

* D-rings only. All work must have a wire for hanging. Please tape wire end using transparent shipping tape. Wires must hang two inches from the top of the frame when the painting/photograph is hung.

*Pick up price tags for Satellite Art Shows at the Art Center office, in the third drawer of the file cabinet, and use a black pen when writing on the labels. Labels will be taped on the bottom right corner of the frame with transparent shipping tape.

*30% or 40% commission depending on location. When purchases are made, the artist must turn in the total price, plus the tax, to the Treasurer.

OUR CHRISTMAS TABLE

Once again, we will be having a special table full of great gift ideas for the friends and family on your list.

Our annual Christmas table will be set up on November 28th in the Gallery and will be chock full of wonderful handmade items until Christmas Eve.

Stop by, do your shopping, and support our local, talented BAA artists.
