December Featured Artist

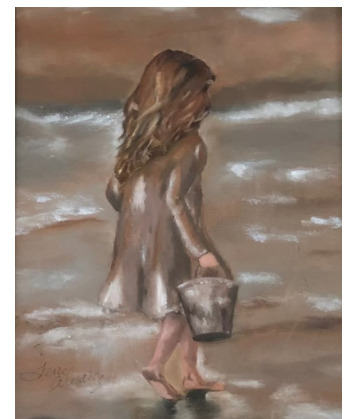

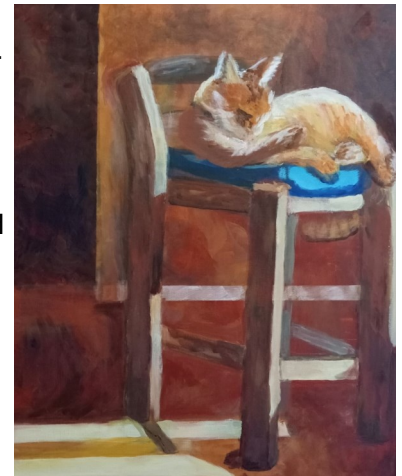

Julie Fleming's class are the featured artists at the BAA Art Center through December. There will be an artist's reception on First Friday, December 2 from 5 to 8 pm. Refreshments will be served. There will also be a virtual show on the Bakersfield Art Association website, Facebook and Instagram pages.

Julie grew up drawing from the time she was able to hold a pencil. She said painting followed as a natural progression and expanded her view of the world and especially colors in the world. She started teaching art at the elementary school level. By teaching art to children, she taught them to really see the world around them.

Her own art is inspired by artists from Miro to John Singer Sargent. Working with adults as artists is a challenge she thoroughly enjoys and finds rewarding.

Monday 12:00-3:00 p.m. ALL MEDIA "Painting with Julie" Fleming. Mixed media class using oils, watercolor or acrylics for teens & adult beginning through intermediate painters. (Limited to 8 seats, so early registration is encouraged). Please contact Julie for availability (661)345-3074 or artbyjulie@bak.rr.com

Dagny's Featured Artist

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

We finally got some rain and we're hopeful for more. With Daylight Savings off and colder weather, we are enjoying earlier sunsets.

The November 4th First Friday featured the paintings by Laura Valenzuela, on display for the month of November. As a last minute substitute, Laura was not able to be at the reception but her oil/landscape art was enjoyed by all who attended. Thanks to Vicki Meadows for providing the wonderful refreshments with assistance from Karen Schuett & others.

The BAA November monthly general members' meeting was held on Saturday, the 12th, at 10 a.m. The program was introduced by VP Micki Schulz: Cathi Thorpe. Cathi shared her wonderful card making techniques. There was so much enthusiasm in the room, that we were even talking about a future workshop sometime in the new year. VP Micki Schulz once again provided a great spread for all during the intermission.

Also of note, several of our members attended the Arts Council of Kern Pie & Fall Art Festival at their new location (22nd & E Streets) before and after our meeting. The event was from 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and included booths, tables, live music, children's arts activities, door prizes & chance to win free pies. We are told that this is leading to First Fridays back downtown as was held prior to the pandemic. Good news!

The December First Friday reception on the 3rd will feature the art of the students of Julie Fleming. Julie graciously agreed to exhibit the work of her students at the last minute after someone else was not able to show in December. Julie's all media class is held at the Art Center on Mondays from 12 to 3 p.m. Thank you, Julie.

The December 10th general members meeting will be our Annual Potluck & along with a fun White Elephant Gift Exchange. All family and friends are also invited and encouraged to bring a wrapped gift. Micki Schulz sent out an email blast prior to this newsletter with all the details.

The December High School Exhibit will feature BHS HS students; and South HS students. A reception will be held on Saturday, December 3rd between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. Two new high schools will be featured each month. All are welcome to view this great student art.

We are always looking for new exhibitors and in that light, we have two new artists who will be showing on the gallery wall: Lisa Faulkenberry and Ruth Saylor (artist name Aylor). Sadly, we've also lost two artists recently: Gerald Howse and Xavier Elizondo. Be sure to contact Jim Bates or Martin Varga if you are interested or know someone who is wanting to be a part of the gallery (contact information on this page under Contacts).

Bob Ross, our Workshop Chairman, has put out an invitation to two artists and is looking for more ideas. Under discussion was a workshop by Cathi Thorpe and a possible watercolor workshop by a previous BAA member who now lives in Morro Bay. Something to look forward to. When we know for certain, information will go out to you.

The deadline for the January 2023 Group Show Critters and Creatures is coming up fast, December 12th. Norma Eaton sent out an email blast with information. Request the flyer by emailing her at Norma@federalimmigration.us. She also mentioned the possibility of a July 2023 Group Show about Book Covers, which she felt might be as popular as the Masterpieces Show.

Stella Mullins, President

BAA MISSION STATEMENT

It is important for us to revisit the Objectives and Purposes for which the BAA was formed (the Mission Statement).

- To provide an opportunity for study and improvement in art technique;
- To encourage an interest in and an appreciation of art in the community;
- To provide opportunities for exhibition and for sales of member's work.
- To recognize the works of other artists; and
- To offer scholarships to the community for art education.

DAGNY'S FEATURED ARTIST

Charlotte White, Drawings on newspaper is the featured artist at Dagny's for December. "Black, White and Read all Over" was the first title for the art show for the December exhibit at Dagny's. This title doesn't seem to identify or describe this current collection of oil pastel drawings on the newspapers by Charlotte White. Actually that was the title of a show that I had a number of years ago. Recently an observer asked with a perplexed look on their face, "Why draw on the newspaper?" Drawing on alternative materials started approximately 25 years ago

I went to the Hollywood Bowl for a jazz concert. After parking the car, walking quite a distance carrying a gourmet picnic lunch and assorted art supplies, I became aware that I had left my drawing pad in the car. Frustrated with my over-sight and not wanting to hike back to the parking lot, I decided to search the concourse for something to draw on. Upon discovering a Las Angeles Times newspaper stand, I purchased a hand full of the papers. Then returning to my seat in the nose-bleed section spent the day sketching the audience because I could barely make out the performers on stage.

Since then, I have enjoyed drawing and painting on shopping bags, newspapers, maps, game boards, and clothing.

On Saturday, an art admirer in the Art Center said, "They make me think of Van Gogh's painting." My smiling response was, "Thank you and you have just added $100.00 to the price."

"Nothing makes me so happy as to observe nature and paint what I see."

-Henri Rousseau

THANK YOU!

We want to thank our three volunteers who have come into the gallery and have helped us to keep the gallery looking fresh and presentable. Also, helping us greet visitors and promoting our artist.

They are Kathleen Faulkner, Julio Marquez and Larry Parris. We hope they will continue to volunteer. If you know of someone who would like to be a volunteer, please contact Iva Fendrick at the gallery, leave your name and number.

HOUCHIN BLOOD BANK SHOW

May Kang is a full time special education teacher. She likes to spend her weekend doing art.

May enjoys many types of mediums such as oil, acrylic, pastel and pencil drawing. She is self taught and hesitant to call herself an artist yet. However, she wishes to be able to share her feelings with the viewers through her paintings.

The pieces that she is going to show at the Houchin Community Blood Bank are inspired by the landscape around Kern County. They are oil and pastel paintings. As an art lover, she craves colors. The longer she lives in the desert area, the more beautiful colors she discovers. Someday, she wishes to bring more shades of the desert and the hills to her canvas.

DECEMBER MEETING PROGRAM

(BY Micki Schulz)

HAPPY HOLIDAYS to all our members! BAA is going to share the Holidays together again. We had so much fun last year & because of its success, we are doing it again.

Potluck with White Elephant Gift Exchange.
Date: Dec. 10th @ 10 am to Noon (2nd Saturday).

Place: Bakersfield Art Association Art Center (1607 19th St) There will be no business meeting & all spouses, family members and friends are invited & welcome.

POTLUCK: Part of celebrating the holidays includes sharing & eating. Please bring your favorite dish or whatever you would like to share our Potluck Feast.

Anyone who wants to participate in the gift exchange can bring in a wrapped gift of EITHER: * a new purchased item costing more than $20.00 OR * something else that is worth more but you want to pass on to someone else (these are the "Good White Elephants"). Will it be a hidden treasure or a "regifted" item looking for a new home.

When you arrive, give your wrapped gifts to the person at the gift table & you will be given a number. Remember to bring gifts for any guests you have invited so they can be included in the fun. When it's time for the exchange and your number has been called, you have the choice of picking a gift from the table, or taking someone else's gift that you know you want. They get to grab another gift from the table. Jeff Schulz has agreed to be MC for the white elephant gift exchange again this year. He was pretty entertaining last year & he will no doubt keep us laughing again this year. It's really a lot of fun.

I'm looking forward to seeing you and celebrating the holidays with my "Artist Family." If you have any questions or concerns, please call me.
