December 2024

FEATURED ARTIST GROUP SHOW

Art by Julie Fleming's class will be the featured art at the Bakersfield Art Association Art Center in December and January. There will be an artists' reception on First Friday, December 6th from 6 to 8 p.m. Refreshments will be served. There will also be a virtual show on the Bakersfield Art Association website, Facebook and Instagram pages.

Mondays are not dreary or dreaded at the Bakersfield Art Center, rather, they are anticipated and exciting. Anticipated because the artists participating in Julie Fleming's Monday painting classes are expanding their knowledge, increasing their skills and finding out they have more talent than they realized. Exciting due to the work being produced. The adults only class consists of artists working in different mediums, be it watercolor, acrylic or oil, and creating paintings depicting subjects as varied as the artists. From tigers to horses, and portraits to landscapes, the Monday painters are a talented group of artists who continue to inspire and push their instructor.

The instructor, Julie Fleming, has painted her entire life and continues to explore her own art while helping others to achieve their goals. Class size is limited to keep the instruction more personal and there is a waiting list.

If you too are an artist waiting to paint, contact the BAA for more information. Contact info: Art Center located at 1607 19th Street; phone is 661-869-2320.

Artists exhibiting in this show are:

"Best Friends" by Terri Alvarez,

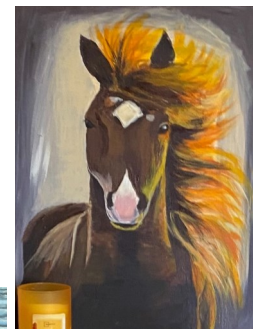

"Thank You" by Pam Smith,

"Grandson" by Laura Mizrahi,

"April Niight" by Sharon Brakebill,

"Horse" by Paz Perez,

"Swan" by Roline Witt

and

"Just Passing Through" by Chrissy Rogers.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The First Friday reception on November 1st featured the art of Kellie Haskill. The reception had a great turnout.

We celebrated the 80th Anniversary of the Bakersfield Art Association (BAA), the whole month of November, becoming a nonprofit on November 16, 1944. Wendy Johnson and Iva Fendrick chaired the celebration. Check out the 80th Anniversary banner in the east gallery at the Art Center, thanks to Iva for that.

The General Meeting at the BAA Art Center on November 9th featured Marilyn Smith demonstrating watercolor portraits, focusing on teeth and the mouth. Her workshop was on November 23rd.

Micki Schulz's painting will be featured for the next drawing at the December 14th Christmas Party & White Elephant fun. Buy your ticket for $5 each in the west gallery.

The First Friday reception on December 1st will be a group show featuring the art of students of Julie Fleming. The reception will be from 6 to 8 p.m. More information about this show can be found on page 1.

The high schools exhibiting their art in the east gallery in December will be from Mira Monte High School and Centennial High School. Receptions will be held on December 6th & 7th. More information can be viewed on page 7.

We're always looking for new artists to show their art in the Art Center. As a member, you are encouraged to get your art "juried" so that you can either show your art in the Art Center or at one of our Satellite Shows (pages 6 & 7). Your participation is very important to our association. Jim Bates has dates available to exhibit your art in 2025; for a single artist, group show or several artists together exhibiting the same subject. Jim also announced that for the time being, we will only be charging a single featured artist a fee of $120 instead of the previous $245. We are hoping this will encourage more artists willing to sign up to show their art. We depend on your support to ensure that we can continue as a nonprofit as costs continue to rise. Jim also encourages members to become sustaining donators to support our continued success.

We also hope that you will be looking to volunteer for one of the committees supporting our organization. Check in the adjoining column for areas looking for your participation. We depend on you to continue our mission (see below).
Stella Mullins, President

DAGNY'S FEATURED ARTIST, CHARLOTTE WHITE

Plein Air Art Show at Dagny's, Charlotte White artist.

Plein air painting is the practice of painting a finished artwork outdoors, capturing the natural light, color, and movement of the subject in real time. The term comes from the French phrase en plein air, which translates to "in the open air."

Plein air painting became popular in the 19th century, especially among Impressionist painters like Claude Monet, Pierre-Auguste Renoir, and Camille Pissarro. Their works often featured loose brushstrokes and vibrant colors to convey the mood and atmosphere of the scene."

Charlotte White is having an exhibit of her plein air paintings at Dagny's Coffee Shop, 1600 20th Street, during the month of December.

DECEMBER PROGRAM

HAPPY HOLIDAYS to all our members!

BAA is going to share the Holidays together again. We had so much fun last year & because of its success, we are doing it again. Potluck with a White Elephant Gift Exchange. Date: December 14th @ 10:00 am to Noon (2nd Saturday). Place: Bakersfield Art Association Art Center (1607 19th St.) There will be no business meeting & all spouses, family members and friends are invited and welcome to join in the fun.

POTLUCK: Part of celebrating the holidays includes sharing & eating. Please bring your favorite dish or what-ever you would like to share for our Potluck Feast.

WHITE ELEPHANT GIFT EXCHANGE:

Anyone who wants to participate in the gift exchange can bring in a wrapped gift of EITHER: * a new purchased item costing more than $20 OR* something else that is worth more, but you want to pass on to someone else (these are the "Good White Elephants"). Will it be a hidden treasure or a "regifted" item looking for a new home? When you arrive, give your wrapped gifts to the person at the gift table & you will be given a number. Remember to bring gifts for any guests you have invited so they can be included in the fun. When it's time for the exchange and your number has been called, you have the choice of picking a gift from the table or taking someone else's gift that you know you want. They get to grab another gift from the table. Jeff Schulz has agreed to be MC for the white elephant gift exchange again this year. He was entertaining the last two years & he will no doubt keep us laughing again this year. It's really a lot of fun.

PAINTING PROJECT/ JANUARY CLOSURE

The Art Center will be closed from January 2nd through (possibly) January 10th or 11th for our Paint Project (painting our gallery walls, etc.).

The carpentry work will be done early, probably in one day that we are closed. The project will start on January 2nd, at which time the gallery will be prepared for the painters.

You may take your art home or we will be looking for volunteers to help remove art from the walls, storing & wrapping all remaining work on tables during the project. We will need volunteers to both help organize on January 2nd, and then rehanging art the following week.

If you plan to take your art home, be sure to do so prior to January 2nd. Otherwise we will handle it with care.

The tentative schedule to complete the project is January 7th or 8th, pending progress of the work. A sign-up sheet will be at the front desk for volunteers to help prepare both galleries for the painters.

We will not have a general membership meeting on January 11th, nor a 1st Friday on January 3rd, and the featured show of the students of Julie Fleming will continue through the month of January. Classes during the project most likely will be cancelled, check with instructors for that information.

PLEIN AIR TREKKERS

Charlotte White, Chairperson

If temperature is 90 or above, we will not have plein air event.

Tuesdays 9 to 12 noon @ Kern County Museum. We will sketch at various locations. Enter the north open gate drive to the location, unload your painting equipment, and then move your car to not block traffic. Talk with Charlotte about admission fees.

Saturdays 9 to noon. Various locations. Call Charlotte White for details.

Plein Air is a French term for sketching/ painting outside on location. These activities are part of the Bakersfield Art Association. Anyone interested in sketching or painting on location is invited to participate. Come sketch/paint with artists who want to sketch/paint on location with friends. Artists are responsible for their own art supplies, transportation, motel reservations and meals.

SATELLITE SITE COORDINATORS NEEDED

There are three Satellite locations that need Site Coordinators. They are the Houchin Community Blood Bank, Kern Literacy Council, and Toss It Salad Bar. If you are willing to accept the opportunity to assist with the coordination of this location, please call Charlotte White at 330-2676.

If no one volunteers, then there is a possibility that we will no longer be exhibiting art at these locations.

We are also searching for a Satellite Show chairperson. Charlotte has led this committee for 30 years and hopes to pass it on in the near future.
