DECEMBER FEATURED ARTISTS: EDWINA DAVIS & ROLINE WITT

Edwina Davis & Roline Loung Witt will be exhibiting at the BAA's Art Center's featured wall in December. A reception will be held first Friday, December 5th from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Art Center located at 1607 19th Street.

They are jointly exhibiting their work on animals. Each artist portrays various animals in a variety of mediums. For this show, Edwina is displaying her work in scratchboard, pastels and ink on silk and Roline is including her works in oil, acrylics and ink on silk.

Edwina has entertained herself and her friends with her artistic endeavors since she was young. She deepened her knowledge with her experience in photography and videos, both of which increase awareness of how light affects the picture. Edwina has become wholeheartedly supportive of preserving the wildlands and wildlife to preserve not only the planet but also the population.

Roline started sketching animals in 2013 and began painting eight years ago. She has ventured into painting sunsets and beach scenes but remains devoted to portraying animals as well. Roline enjoys the play of colors in her paintings and likes to bring out the expressions on animal faces.

Both artists are fascinated by animals. Both Edwina and Roline occasionally do commissions for pet portraits in addition to focusing on wildlife.

LISA FAULKENBERRY is the featured artist at the Dagny's BAA Art Gallery, 1600 20th Street thru December and January. See page 3.

BAA PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Happy December Everyone This is the time of year when we typically gather with family and friends. We share a meal and give thanks for all the good things in our lives. I cooked a big 19-pound turkey for Thanksgiving. I love family gathered around. Sure glad I didn't burn it!

I read through the "BAA Mission Statement" at the bottom of this page. Our organization is committed to a lot of good things. I am happy to say we get an "A" rating right down the lists. We should all be hanging our paintings in the gallery as well as the satellite shows. Participate in our monthly meetings and First Fridays. Meet like-minded artists like yourself.

First Friday in November was excellent! Great turnout to celebrate the beautiful works of The Adelante Art Collective lead by our own Jeanette Schumacher. I hope you got to see them. Absolutely beautiful in my eyes!

Our December Meeting will be our Christmas Party. Guests are invited to come and enjoy our silly gift exchange, silent auction, and holiday foods. I hope to see you there. Charlotte White, as the new Scholarship chair, is organizing the wonderful Christmas Silent Auction. See her article on page 7.

When we welcome 2026, be ready for some good things. Our Featured Artist Wall will be presenting a group show titled "Animals". Contact Jim Bates if you would like to hang your work there. On the 3rd Saturday of January, we will have a fun watercolor workshop "Colorful Canines." Teaser on page 3.

The High School exhibit for the month of December will be Golden Valley High School student artists. See page 7 for more information.

I hope everyone is making time in their busy schedules to spend some making art. Let your mind wander and your spirit fly high. No telling how much you can accomplish when you are just having fun!

Merry Christmas!

Marilyn J. Smith, President 2025-26

BAA MISSION STATEMENT

It is important for us to revisit the Objectives and Purposes for which the BAA was formed (the Mission Statement).

- To provide an opportunity for study and improvement in art technique;
- To encourage an interest in and an appreciation of art in the community;
- To provide opportunities for exhibition and for sales of member's work.
- To recognize the works of other artists; and
- To offer scholarships to the community for art education.

DAGNY'S FEATURED ARTIST LISA FAULKENBERRY

Local artist Lisa Faulkenberry presents her soulful, expressive paintings at Dagny's Coffee Shop, located at 1600 20th Street in downtown Bakersfield, for a special solo exhibition on view through December and January. Her work blends realism, abstraction, and a touch of surreal imagery, brought to life through color, rich textures, intuitive brushwork, and emotional depth—inviting viewers into moments of reflection, imagination, and connection.

Originally from New York, Lisa has called Bakersfield home for 38 years. Living on a small horse ranch in the foothills, she draws daily inspiration from the beauty of nature and the quiet companionship of animals. Her artwork has been internationally recognized and published in Arts To Hearts Magazine, and she currently serves as Vice President of the Bakersfield Art Association, supporting and promoting the local arts community.

Learn more about Lisa at her website: lisafaulkenberryart.com. You can view more of Lisa's artwork at the Bakersfield Art Center, 1607 19th Street, Bakersfield, CA 93301

SILENT AUCTION DECEMBER 13th

We will be having a Silent Auction at the December 13th meeting to raise funds for art student & teacher scholarships to be presented at the spring June 13th meeting. An art student will receive a $1,000 scholarship to further their art education & a high school art teacher will receive $500 to use in their art classes. The funds raised will fund the scholarships.

We are asking all members to participate by asking businesses, individuals or yourself to donate. A letter is available at the Art Center front desk for any donation you obtain, which contains our Tax ID# for tax purposes for both businesses & your donations.

Members are encouraged to donate baskets, cellophane wrap, & ribbons for the merchandise. Charlotte will be putting the baskets together on the 3rd & 4th. Anyone & everyone is encouraged to come in to assist on those days. All help is welcomed!

Sample ideas: restaurant - donate dinner for two; store - basket of merchandise, or art teacher donate art classes. Other ideas for baskets: art supplies, car washes, rides down the Kern River, hot air balloon rides, Disneyland tickets, hockey tickets, etc., etc.

All donations (including estimated value) must be turned into the Art Center by 10 a.m. on or before Wednesday, December 4, 2025. All donations will then be placed in baskets and put on display. The public will be able to come into the Art Center to bid on the baskets. For questions or to participate, please call Charlotte White at (661) 330-2676.

Items already being donated for the Silent Auction: A 10 X 6 Audubon's Birds of America lithograph of three Black-bellied Plover birds nesting; a Salty's gift card and a coloring book; two art classes; two photo prints by Todd Thorpe; a Costco basket; a Mary Kay basket, a Dewar's basket, a Trader Joe's basket; baskets and wrapping supplies & art supplies basket, plus donations.
