FEBRUARY FEATURED ARTIST: KELLIE HASKILL

Kellie Haskill is the featured artist at the Bakersfield Art Center for the month of February.

Kellie was born in Bakersfield and moved to the mountains of Lake Isabella when she was very young.

Her brother was a natural artist and her biggest inspiration. She started by drawing every natural thing around her until she was in high school where she switched to painting.

She progressed well and won the Bank Of America award in her senior year.

Between raising a family and taking care of her close relatives, she only had time to dabble in acrylics and oils. However, she really came alive when she discovered pastels. And it was a perfect medium for her to express her love of nature and animals in particular.

A reception will be held from 6 to 8 p.m. on Friday, February 6th at the Bakersfield Art Center which is located at 1607 19th Street in Bakersfield.

JANEEN CARTER SMITH is the featured artist at the Dagny's BAA Art Gallery, 1600 20th Street thru February. See page 3.

BAA PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Welcome February. Around our house there are several February birthdays plus Valentines Day.... That makes a lot of cake and cookies to consume!

At our Saturday, January 10th meeting I presented a short look at my process for painting dogs in a rainbow of colors in preparation for the January 17th "Colorful Canines" Workshop which was nearly full. We had a great time playing in the paint. Everyone went home with a very frameable painting of Sasha the Rottweiler.

See page 5 for information on a special class/workshop in clay lead by Michael Rousell in February. We also have a workshop coming up in March with the Bonsai plant guy. He has been here before and always has a lot of great information for the indoor gardeners.

We still have openings for some of the satellite shows in 2026. If you are interested in that, see Casey Dee for details and availability.

Contact Jim Bates if you would like to hang your work on the featured wall. Jim is taking reservations into 2027.

The High School exhibit for the month of February will be Kern Valley High School student artists. See page 7 for more information.

Our managers' group had a change. Iva Fendrick stepped down and Kellie Haskill has stepped up. We want to thank these ladies for all the work they have done and will do in the future to keep the BAA running smoothly.

Lisa Faulkenberry was featured in a very nice article in the new on-line "Kern Magazine". Take a look when you have a few minutes.

I would also like to say a special thank you to Gail Caffrey for handling that "dirty job" for us.

Be sure to check out every page in this newsletter. There are a lot of things to do and like-minded artists to paint with. Get involved. It's fun!

Marilyn J. Smith, President 2025-2026

BAA MISSION STATEMENT

It is important for us to revisit the Objectives and Purposes for which the BAA was formed (the Mission Statement).

- To provide an opportunity for study and improvement in art technique;
- To encourage an interest in and an appreciation of art in the community;
- To provide opportunities for exhibition and for sales of member's work.
- To recognize the works of other artists; and
- To offer scholarships to the community for art education.

DAGNY'S FEATURED ARTIST JANEEN CARTER SMITH

As a retired Art/English teacher, Janeen has been doing ART in one form another all her life. Winning a blue ribbon at the Kern County fair at age 12 spurred her onto a lifelong journey in art.

Although she started in a very traditional art style, she later adopted a looser, freer, fluid approach to seeing her surroundings. Now vibrant color and textures are the star of the show. She thinks of this impressionistic style as a personal, visual language reacting to the things she sees around her. She is expressing her reaction emotionally, in vibrant color, to the beauty of nature.

Janeen Carter Smith's art will be displayed at Dagny's Coffee Shop through the month of February. Dagny's is located at 1600 20th Street in downtown Bakersfield.

FEBRUARY PROGRAM, VALENTINE DAY POTLUCK & DEMONSTRATION

Join us for 2nd Saturday on February 14th! Following our general meeting, we'll enjoy a Valentine potluck at approximately 10:30 a.m., then settle in for a special clay demonstration by potter Michael Roussel.

With over 50 years of experience, Michael will demonstrate the magic of clay, share insights into his creative process, and talk about his upcoming class, "Come Play with Clay." Stop by, ask questions, and get inspired—we'd love to see you there!

THE CUPID PROJECT

The Bakersfield Art Association located at 1607 19th St. would like to invite our community to join us in participating in The Cupid Project. The Cupid Project is a nonprofit organization that has been encouraging community members around the country to come together to craft Valentines for local seniors. According to The Cupid Project, there are three reasons why we should make Valentines for the elderly. 1.2 million seniors in nursing homes face chronic loneliness, chronic loneliness is tied to serious health issues, and most have lost their spouse and get no visitors. Yes, we can spread love one card at a time.

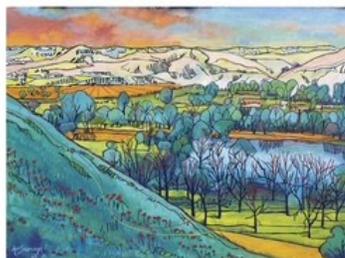

We welcome all family members to visit our art gallery Between Tuesday, February 2nd and Friday, February 13th when the gallery is open to create a Valentine's card for a senior in a nursing home. All crafting supplies are provided. Please help us to spread a little joy to the elderly this Valentine's Day.

Valentine's will be delivered To a nursing home by a member of the Bakersfield Art Center. For more information please contact Gail Caffrey 661-496-8734
