BAKERSFIELD ART ASSOCIATION

March 2026

MARK ENGELIEN, MARCH FEATURED ARTIST

Mark Engelién will be the featured artist for the month of March at the Bakersfield Art Association Art Center - 1607 19th St., Bakersfield California.

A Reception to meet the artist will be held from 6 to 8 p.m. on Friday March 3rd.

“Travel influenced Art” is his theme for this show. This show will include examples of plein air pieces (art done on site), ink sketches, ink and watercolor drawings, digitally rendered ink sketches and watercolor paintings. Some of his travel legacy notebooks will also be available to review. This collection of art chronicles visitors to his art journey over the past 25 years.

Mark began capturing memories of travels beginning with a river cruise with his family in 2000. For over 15 years he has filled numerous sketch book journals with ink drawings, a medium easily reproduced to create prints to share with his traveling companions.

“Mark the spot” represents his definition of this phase of his art journey. The act of drawing your impression of an experience is so much more profound than a photo, each sketch has a story that lasts forever.

In 2018 Mark attended an urban sketching workshop in Costa Rica under the guidance of James Richards a renowned Urban Sketching Master. Further workshops in Tuscany, Italy - Santa Fe, New Mexico and Tucson, Arizona were attended with his wife Debbie who is now fondly known as the “Sketch Monster”. Art is now an activity they share.

The couple now regularly stop to sketch and paint during their travels, sketching in their notebooks, and producing art from their photos while touring.

BAA PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

March has a lot to celebrate: St. Patrick's Day, 1st Day of Spring, and National Pi Day. (March 14 is 3.14.) Not that a mathematical constant is important to us, other than to say our next 2nd Saturday meeting will be on that day. Personally, I think we should celebrate with pie for snacks on Pi Day!

Our first Cupid Project was a great success! A huge thank you to Gail Caffrey for launching this idea and keeping it on track. We were able to deliver handmade Valentines to over 1300 senior citizens. The Bakersfield Californian got wind of it and featured it on their front cover page on Valentine's Day.

At our February meeting, Michael Roussel presented a nice demo of his ceramic works. He held classes here on February 21st & 28th for anyone wanting to get into the clay and make something. Hands on is always amazing!

March 1 begins our Book Sale. Check out details on page 5. I have heard there are a plethora of great art books to be had for a small donation.

Also, in March the Plant Guy will be returning (Jack Reynolds). Details on page 3. He can help you master the art of Bonsai trees at his workshop on March 28th.

It is still cool and crisp outside. The grass is green and the trees are budding. Take a good look at those clouds! Grab a pencil and start sketching ...

Contact Jim Bates if you would like to hang your work on the featured wall. Jim is taking reservations into 2027.

The High School exhibit for the month of March will be Highland High School student artists. See page 7 for more information.

We will also have a reception on March 7th featuring high schools participating in the California Art Education Association Youth Art Month digital competition. Local winners will be on exhibit at the reception on that Saturday. See page 5 for more information.

See page 5 for the April Plein Air Opportunity leading up to the April featured group show, Plein Air, Charlotte White will be leading this event.

Marilyn J. Smith, President 2025-2026

DAGNY'S FEATURED ARTIST, CHARLOTTE WHITE

Oil Pastels on Newspaper

The March art exhibit at Dagny's will feature Oil Pastels on Newspaper by Charlotte White. The Meet the Artist will be on Friday March 3rd at 6:00 p.m. Dagny's Coffee Shop is located at 1601 20th Street in Bakersfield.

Recently an observer asked with a perplexed look on their face, "Why draw on the newspaper?" Drawing on alternative materials started approximately 25 years ago when Charlotte went to the Hollywood Bowl for a Jazz concert. After parking her car, walking quite a distance carrying a gourmet picnic lunch and assorted art supplies, Charlotte became aware that she had left her drawing pad in the car. Frustrated with her oversight and not wanting to hike back to the parking lot, she decided to search the concourse for something to draw on. Upon discovering a Los Angeles Times newspaper stand, she purchased a hand full of the papers. Then returning to her seat in the "nose-bleed section," spent the day sketching the audience because she could barely make out the performers on stage.

Since then, she has enjoyed drawing and painting on shopping bags, newspapers, menus, maps, game boards, and clothing.

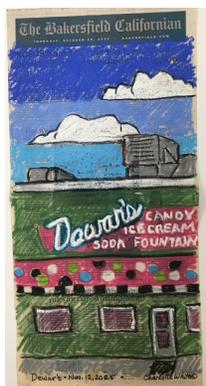

One art admirer in the Art Center recently said of her work, "They make me think of Van Gogh's painting's." Charlotte's smiling response was, "Thank you and you have just added $100.00 to the price!"
