PLEIN AIR ART SHOW IN APRIL

The Bakersfield Art Association is presenting a collection of sketches by local artists outside their studio through April. A Reception will be on First Friday, April 6th from 6 to 8 PM. The Art Center is located at 607 19th Street, Bakersfield.

"When I sit down to make a sketch from nature, the first thing I try is forget that I have ever seen a picture," said Constable, the artist credited with being the premier En Plein Air painter. John Constable (1776-1837) was a British artist on the Suffolk countryside where he lived. En plein air is a French phrase meaning "in the open air." Today artists tend to shorten the term to Plein Air. The Bakersfield Art Association sponsors plein air activities each week on Tuesday and Saturday mornings. They take place at locations in the Kern County Museum. The Saturday activity is at various locations in Kern County, including Hart Park.

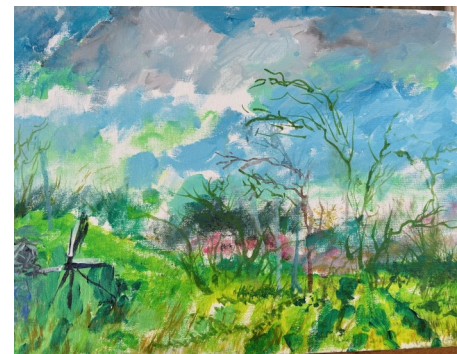

Historically, landscape painting dates back to the Renaissance with artists creating sketches that would be used as reference photos in studio paintings. With the invention of the metal rollers for paint and patented by John G Rand in 1841, artists were more easily able to take their palettes and easels into countryside to paint. Before then, handmade oil paints were stored in sections of a pig's bladder, and a hole was poked into the lining to squeeze paint onto the pallet.

"Mission San Xavier, Tucson, Arizona" by Mark Englien;

"Garden" by Phyllis Oliver;

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Our March general membership meeting on Saturday, March 9th had a great turnout to listen to Marilyn Smith who was giving a workshop on March 16th. Plus we had a great encouraging group critique of several artists' works and we drew for the winner of our monthly painting by Stella Mullins (yours truly). Cheryl Hernandez was the lucky winner. Jeanette Schumacher's painting will be for the April monthly drawing.

Next month for our April general membership meeting we will hear more about the Plein Air Festival from David Gordon and also Charlotte White will share about the Plein Air show on our Featured Wall.

The First Friday reception on March 1st showcased the Group Show - "It's All On Board", a continued show with new art by most of the board members. Come on down to check out this wonderful art. The refreshments were provided by Micki Schulz (& Jeff) & Ulani Curry.

The First Friday reception on April 5th will feature plein air art by BAA artists, to coincide with the Plein Air Festival and in conjunction with Bird Dog Arts. As usual the reception will be from 6 to 8 p.m. More information about the group show can be found on page 1.

The high schools exhibiting their art in the east gallery in April will be student art from West High School & North High School. Receptions will be held on April 5th & 6th. More information can be viewed on page 7.

Jim Bates announced that the featured wall schedule for 2024 is full and he is now looking forward to 2025 to showcase your art. He noted that if cost was the problem, two or three artists could combine their works and have a mini group show. So please, if you are interested, contact Jim asap at 661-805-6201 or leave a message at the Art Center for Jim.

We're saying goodbye for now to Ruth Salyers and Chrissy Rogers but hopefully they may return in the future. We're always looking for new artists to show their art in the Art Center. As a member, you are encouraged to get your art "juried" so that you can either show your art in the Art Center or at one of our Satellite Shows. Your participation is very important to our association. Thanks to everyone who has stepped up to help our organization prosper!

Contact Kay Hall if you need to renew your membership for the year 2023-2024 (prorated until next July 1st). Next fiscal year starts July 1, 2024 (2024-2025 membership). No time like today to rededicate yourself to the mission of the BAA.

Stella Mullins, President

DAGNY'S FEATURED ARTIST

Lisa Miller Faulkenberry is the featured artist at Dagny's Coffee Shop (1600 20th Street) for the month of April. She will be on hand on First Friday April 5th at 6 pm.

About The Artist: Bakersfield based artist and New York native, Lisa has explored multiple mediums throughout her life, with an early interest in all forms of artistic expression ranging from woodworking, interior design, photography to sketching and painting. This multifaceted approach and broad love for all things art has helped Lisa hold onto this passion throughout her adult life as she raised three children, entered into the business realm, and pursued her lifelong dream of raising and showing horses on a ranch with her husband. Though her art would many times find itself put aside, Lisa would continue to harbor dreams of one day being able to find a season in life to dedicate to her artistic pursuits and love for nature and its awe-inspiring beauty.

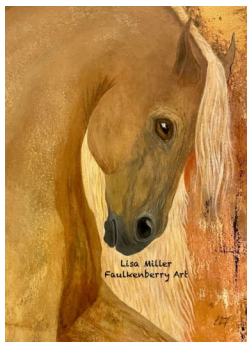

Lisa Miller Faulkenberry Art

Lisa would find this season in life through tragedy, as her mother, an artist in her own right, found herself fighting for her life, eventually succumbing to her illness with her daughter by her side. The loss of her mother left Lisa seeking peace. Eventually she picked up her mother's paintbrushes and began to paint. Canvas painting reunited her artistic passion and motivated her to make it a priority. Lisa is inspired greatly by her mother's work, along with spending many hours in nature and with her animals. Midway thru 2023, Lisa felt compelled to combine her natural abilities and passion with new skills and expertise. She found this knowledge at the Kathy Schilling Studios, with Kathy who provided her with the opportunity to learn foundational techniques, explore new mediums, and push beyond and expand her creativity.
