Bakersfield Art Association

May 2021

The BAA Art Center will be OPEN April Wednesday—Saturday 10 am to 4 pm.

May Featured Art

Greg Stanley will be the featured artist at the BAA Art Center through May. The Art Center will be OPEN for May, and will have a virtual show on the Bakersfield Art Association website, Facebook and Instagram pages. There will regretably be no First Friday reception.

Greg Stanley was born in Bar Harbor, Maine but grew up in Maryland. At a young age his mother gave him an oil painting set and he quickly began painting. Throughout the years, Greg Stanley has sold numerous commissioned works of all subjects.

ART THROUGH THE YEARS - This collection of works by Greg Stanley include some of his best since he joined the BAA in 2013. Some are experiments in color and were painted from Black and White photos. Other paintings in this group represent Greg's emotions while hiking through the Sierra Mountains in California during 2016 and 2017. Greg not only portrays the beauty of the mountains above, but also mirrors their reflections below. Each painting reflects "that moment" when Greg Stanley experienced some of the most beautiful scenery in North America. He is also an animal lover and enjoys painting a wide variety of animals, including his beloved cat "Aussie."

Dagny's Featured Artist

Dagny's BAA Art Gallery 1600 20th Street. ????? will be the featured artist at the Dagny's BAA Gallery through May . See page 3.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

(by Toni Lott)

One thing certain is that changes are constantly happening. We have several open spaces and invite artists who have shown with us in group shows or at outside venues to contact me to take a space in the Art Center. One of our spaces is the jewelry case that is great for 3D items. Please share this information with artist friends who are not familiar with us. I would be glad to visit with them and inform them of our programs.

With the changes in business openings, we are having more visitors and our classes are now open for students. Check the listing in the newsletter centerfold for information.

The Art Center meets the needs of our art community by having outside venues to show our art, classes by qualified instructors for kids and adults, providing a space to show and sell our art which included a website and provide scholarships to college students and art institutions in the community.

My personal thanks to all the artists/volunteers that keep the Art Center and BAA going strong.

Toni Lott, President

DAGNY'S FEATURED ARTIST

Tena Mullen-Henry was born a logger's daughter in Oregon in 1962. Her family moved to Shafter, California in 1969. The summers spent in the Sierra's living in a tent with her family as she listened to the chainsaws in the distance influenced her appreciation for the beauty of creation. Living in the Central Valley, Agricultural and Oil producing mecca of California is the inspiration for this show. Tena says she finds beauty in diversity of the mostly working- class people of Kern County and has dedicated this show to the "Essential Workers of Kern County".

Tena's artistic nature was inherited from her mother. She is an alumnus of Shafter High School 1980. There under the instruction of teacher/ artist Kalman Matis she won recognition for her pencil drawing winning Best of Show at Kern County Fair and went on to win third prize at the State Fair. Through the years she has taken various art classes. February of 2021 she was awarded the "Peoples Choice Award" for her pastel painting "Beach Ride at Sunset" from Kern River Valley Art Association.

During the pandemic of Covid-19 she has been exploring the medium of Soft Pastels. Pastel sticks produce vibrant colors and contain crystals with light scattering properties. Tena uses an under-painting of soft pastels and alcohol in her compositions. Each painting is created with passion and made with high quality soft pastels on sanded pastel paper and professionally framed under glass.

GUILD HOUSE FEATURED ART

(by Norma Neil)

Guild House has responded to the Covid-19 restrictions with a virtual art show by BAA artists on their internet website. The site is well maintained and beautifully designed. You can find it with a Google search for Guild House of Bakersfield. The link to the art is near the bottom of the home page with a photo of our gallery.

We have all been encouraged with Laura Best's sale of a large watercolor of the Guild House. Over the years Guild House has been one of our top locations for sales and artist's visibility to a community of potential art collectors.

Guild House hosts a children's art show in May but this year we are adding another show for the summer months with an entry deadline of May 28th.

The theme is open for the Summer show but the Guild House staff has asked us to include more three-dimensional art such as ceramics, wearable art, sculpture, jewelry, etc.

Norma Neil is chair of this location and may be reached at 661-204-4653 or by email at nneil2@att.net.

HOUCHIN FEATURED ARTIST

Photographer Michael Todd Thorpe has been carrying a camera of some sort ever since he was a child, starting with a Kodak Brownie. In high school he learned to shoot and edit video, which would later lead to a career in television. In college he studied photography, with a focus on composition, developing and printing.

In 2013, Thorpe left a 20+ year job as an award-winning writer/videographer/editor/producer in broadcast television to teach photography at Valley Oaks Charter High School. He still shoots film from time to time with his collection of classic 35mm cameras, along with his Canon DSLR.

Thorpe says, "In the end, it's not about the tools you use, it's how you use those tools to fulfill your vision."

This exhibition of photographs includes several of his favorite landscapes, most shot in and around Kern County.
