PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

(by Toni Lott)

This Board of Directors has completed one of the most challenging years I can remember. The Pandemic has caused many changes in how we conduct business and how to keep the Bakersfield Art Association viable and keep the Art Center open for business.

We lost 7 artists for various reasons and managed to replace 4 of them. Our variety of art styles makes the Art Center a fun place to shop and more and more visitors have come in to see and purchase our artists' work. Classes are now able to take more artists and the Art Center is a cool and comfortable place to create our masterpieces.

We are waiting for the Arts Council of Kern to restart the First Friday Art Walk in September. This brings a larger flow of visitors and the more visitors that see our art the more possibility for a sale.

Our new Board of Directors was approved and will begin the new fiscal year with many projects to improve and complete. We hope for a prosperous year.

If you have any suggestions that will make the BAA and Art Center function better, please contact me any time.

DAGNY'S FEATURED ARTIST

Edwina Davis moved with her parents to Bakersfield in 1959. She always loved animals of all kinds and spent her time learning to draw them.

While attending East High School Edwina continued learning different art techniques in classes and joined with local artists to participate in several side-walk art shows sponsored by Cunningham Memorial Art Gallery. She also became friends with Barbara Fiser, a local wildlife artist and benefited from her instruction in that genre.

After graduation from EB in 1967, Edwina attended BC. Clayton Rippey was her favorite instructor and he taught her to expand her use of color and knowledge of anatomy in her art work. Her senior art show at Cal State Bakersfield consisted of several wildlife drawings and three life-size fiber glass casting of the human body. Edwina was in the first graduating class at Cal State Bakersfield earning a BA in 1971.

Edwina joined the United States Marine Corps in 1970 and served through 1982 where she attained the rank of Captain. She was a "Training and Audiovisual Support Officer" serving tours at Marine Corps Base Quantico, Virginia; Marine Corps Air Station, Iwakuni, Japan; Marine Corps Base Camp Pendleton, California; and Marine Corps Air Station Kanehoe Bay, Hawaii. Edwina spent many off-duty hours enjoying Plein Air painting. In particular, she enjoyed her tour at Camp Pendleton. She supervised the West Coast Motion Picture and Television Unit and trained Marine Combat Photographers and Artists. She found personal time for drawing and painting and became a member at the new Wild Animal Park in Escondido, CA where she spent many hours Plein Air painting in the park studying the wild animals and birds in their natural settings.

After completing her service in 1982, Edwina returned to Bakersfield and spent several years in commercial video production broadcasting in several capacities. She then began a 25-year career with the Kern County and Bakersfield Fire Departments where she led the audiovisual division documenting incidents, training and public interest events and producing training materials in various media. The highlight of her career was participating in the live international television coverage and broadcast of the historical Spaceship One Ansari X Prize, the world's first private piloted flights into space that took place at Mojave Space Port and Air Field in 2006.

Since retiring in 2011, Edwina has enjoyed getting back to painting and drawing and leisure photo outings. She is presently studying silk art with fellow high school friend, Kathy Schilling! (It is, indeed, a small world!)

"It is very good to copy what one sees; it is much better to draw what you can't see any more but in your memory. It is a transformation in which imagination and memory work together. You only reproduce what struck you, that is to say the necessary. That way, your memories and your fantasy are freed from the tyranny of nature... a painting requires a little mystery, some vagueness, some fantasy. When you always make your meaning perfectly plain you end up boring people."

LORENE'S FEATURED ARTIST

The paintings to be displayed at Lorene's will be sunsets and seascapes, mostly in oil by Roline Witt. One is a silk painting. She is having fun exploring the fabulous colors of the sunsets and learning to portray the waves. These colorful seascapes are so different from the animal sketches she has concentrated on the last several years. She has discovered she enjoys painting in oil, watercolor and on silk. "So much to learn!"
