August Featured Artist

“Mark Englein and Jim Bates, will be the featured artists at the BAA Art Center through August. There will be an artist's reception on First Friday, August 5 from 4 to 7 pm. Refreshments will be served. There will also be a virtual show on the Bakersfield Art Association website, Facebook and Instagram pages.

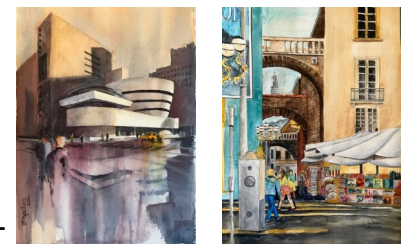

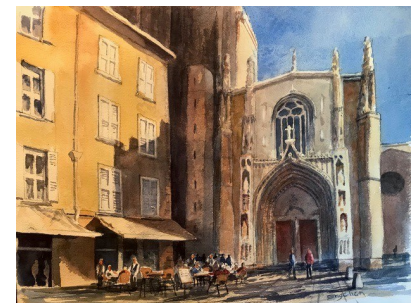

Jim Bates is a native Californian, educated in the Central Valley. He graduated from Fresno State with a teaching credential; and has been an educator for 35 years. Jim joined the Bakersfield Art Center approximately 15 years ago, after retiring. He has always enjoyed traveling and taking photos of various famous locations, both local as well as overseas.

Mark Englein studied drawing, watercolor, and ceramics as part of his professional training in architecture at Cal Poly, SLO. He created architecture projects in Bakersfield and California from 1971 to 2013. He served as director of the Bakersfield Museum of Art from 2014 to 2016.

Mark's early medium for recreational art was watercolor painting. Business pursuits and parenting limited the time he had to dedicate to this activity. Mark began to use ink sketches as a means to create memories of places he and his family visited in their travels. He would often share sketches with friends and family to help commemorate shared adventures.

In 2018, Mark began using both digital rendering and watercolor to augment his ink sketches. Continued on page 3

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I've been active in the Bakersfield Art Association (BAA) for 21 years, on the board for 17 years, headed up many committees and now am tasked with being president. Wow! Who would have thought, me even less, that a "worker bee" like myself would get to be president. Such an honor!

The July First Friday reception had a great turnout for the Masterpiece Show. Attendees voted Cheri Sperl's art as most popular among 21 beautiful copies of masterpieces. Again, thanks go to Vicki Meadows for preparing the decor, drinks, and munchies for the reception. August will feature the art of Mark Engelen and Jim Bates, with their reception to be held August 5th, 4 to 7. Our high school exhibitors are from the local summer programs, gathered by sponsors Lisa and Scott Mayo. Thanks to the Mayos for continuing this exhibit through the summer. And we look forward to the teen show continuing next school year.

Recent new exhibitors in the Art Center include Aaron Adkins, Xavier Elizondo and myself, with Tom Wright leaving the gallery. New artists who wish to show in the gallery or at any of our satellite venues should contact Jim Bates to be juried. His contact info is listed on this page in Contacts.

Thanks also goes out to member Karen Schuett who has taken on the mantle of being Librarian. She jumped right in after she heard we were in need of a librarian.

Thanks go out to the gallery managers for keeping the Art Center running through tough times, heat and covid restrictions. Check out the newsletter centerfold for info on classes and contact the instructor for any questions to register. If you are a current or past member, you can help support the BAA by renewing your membership. We are a non-profit and you can deduct the payment from your taxes. See the form on page 8. You can also help out by volunteering for any of the committees listed here on page 2. It takes all of us working together as a team to be a successful nonprofit!

BAA MISSION STATEMENT

It is important for us to revisit the Objectives and Purposes for which the BAA was formed (the Mission Statement).

- To provide an opportunity for study and improvement in art technique;
- To encourage an interest in and an appreciation of art in the community;
- To provide opportunities for exhibition and for sales of member's work.
- To recognize the works of other artists; and
- To offer scholarships to the community for art education.

DAGNY'S FEATURED ARTIST

Mike Doyle continues at Dagny's Coffee Shop for August. He became interested in art in his high school years and took several classes at Bakersfield College in the early 70's. Starting a career and raising a family took too much of his time, and consequently he put down his painting brushes what seemed to be for good. However, around five years ago his wife encouraged him to start painting again. He did and it became his passion. He's been painting ever since.

"Colors, like features, follow the changes of the emotions."

When the Pandemic struck, Mark Engelein used this confined time, to develop his use of watercolor as his primary medium. While architectural subjects and urban spaces embody much of his subjects, he has added other subject matters to his body of work. Portraits, wildlife and nature are now themes for his art.

Jim Bates enjoys the challenge of representing these majestic and historical locations in watercolor. Some are well known and others are personal locations that he has had the privilege of witnessing and he hopes his watercolors capture the historical nature of these locations. Each watercolor has a special meaning to him and he hopes that you enjoy these images as much as he enjoyed painting them.

He has sold work that has been sent overseas to our sister cities and to members of other countries. He finds his work is enjoyed by everyone and they appreciate the time, effort and skill that is used to make these art pieces. He has shown his work in various locations around Bakersfield and has tried to represent our city to the best of his ability. Much of his work is in locations in and around Bakersfield. This show features images outside of Bakersfield as well as a couple of local images.

A GUIDE FOR BAA ARTISTS DISPLAYING THEIR WORK ON THE WEBSITE

There is no extra fee to have your work posted for sale on the Website if you presently pay to display your art at the BAA Gallery.

There is a fee of $10 per month for those members who wish to have their work posted on the Website for sale and do not pay to display their art at the BAA Gallery.

Here are some Guidelines to keep in mind for those posting their work on the Website.

Submit a BIO (include contact info: phone number and/or email) with a picture of yourself to Edwina (edavis1@bak.rr.com).

Submit clear photos (JPG format, 1-2 Mb) of your work. Include "Title", "Medium", "Size and/or Weight", and "Sale Price". A limit of not more than 10 art works at a time to display is desirable.

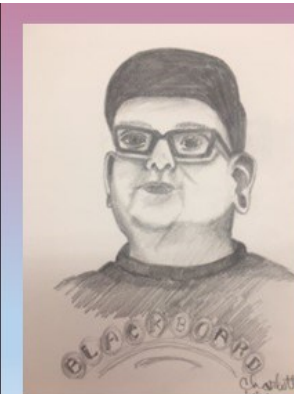

Check your Web Page at least once a month to ensure that your information posted is current and correct. If you want to add or delete items, you may do so any time by emailing me the information.

If you have sold an item that has been posted on your Web Page; contact me as soon as possible and I will remove it (edavis1@bak.rr.com).

Art work sales from your Web Page will be processed the same way as sales made at the BAA Gallery store. Make arrangements with your buyer for payment and pickup of your work at the BAA Art Gallery.

If you are showing at a Satellite location and include work that is currently posted on you Web Page, please notify me. Art work can not be displayed at both locations at the same time and must be removed from the photo gallery on your Web Page for the duration of your Satellite show.

Our Web Site averages 1,600 views a month. People are looking at us and your art work. Although we do not currently have an on-line sales process, posting your art and contact information to a personal Web Page on our Website can encourage sales. Please help me to keep your personal page current and enticing for our web visitors.

Portrait and Life Drawing Class

Mondays, 5:30 to 7:30 p.m.
Cost: $20.00

Call Charlotte White at 330-2676 to register.

CALL TO ARTISTS

(by Norma Eaton)

The "Masterpieces" show was a great success. There was almost "$600" in sales the first week.

For next year we're thinking it has been a long time since we did a show for animals. So the plan is to do "Critters & Creatures" for the January 2023 show. This would include animals that fly, walk, crawl, trot or slither; domesticated or wild. Prospectus /Rules can be found in the back of the BAA gallery or by email from normartist@hotmail.com

Be sure to read the rules as art will not be accepted in the future that is not entered properly in the format laid out in the prospectus/rules.
