September 2021

September Featured Art

Laura Lee Best will be the featured artist at the BAA Art Center through September.

The Art Center will be OPEN for September, and will have a virtual show on the Bakersfield Art Association website, Facebook and Instagram pages. There will regrettably be no First Friday reception.

One of Bakersfield's local Artists, Laura Lee Best is the Bakersfield Art Center's Featured Artist for the month of September. Her latest works titled, Scenes from Bakersfield, will be on display and available for purchase from the Art Center.

These special works are inspired by Laura's childhood growing up on the East side. They reflect her perspective of Bakersfield's diverse culture as well as the latest community movement of supporting downtown and Kern County's local businesses through events such as Farmer's Markets, and pop-up vendor shows. You can find more of the Artist's work by visiting her website www.lauraleestudio.com or her social media pages @LauraLeeArtStudio where she can be contacted directly.

Dagny's Featured Artist

Dagny's BAA Art Gallery 1600 20th Street. Marsha Black will be the featured artist at the Dagny's BAA Gallery through September. See page 3.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

(by Toni Lott)

The dog days of summer are upon us. We have a reduced staffing pool so we will be closed Sunday Monday and Tuesday until further notice. I was hoping to have First Friday Art Walk and Our General meetings, but the Covid-19 numbers keep us socially separated.

Our new artists and some of the old timers are selling and visitors increase in numbers as artists are bringing in friends to view the art. It's great to visit with them.

Our classes are reduced but still can provide an opportunity to hone your creative skills. Check out the newsletter information on classes and contact the instructor for any questions and to preregister. As they say, "Practice makes perfect".

If you are a past member, you can help support the Bakersfield Art Association by renewing your membership. We are a nonprofit and you can deduct the payment from your taxes. See the form at the end of our Newsletter.

Hope to see you at the Kern County Fair Fine Arts room.

HOUCHIN FEATURED ART

(by Charlotte White)

"A Glimpse of Bakersfield" Mark Englien is a retired Architect. Mark studied drawing, watercolor, and ceramics as part of his professional training at Cal Poly, SLO. He was an architect in Bakersfield from 1971 to 2013. From 2014 to 2016, he served as director of the Bakersfield Museum of Art.

Mark's early medium for recreational art was watercolor painting. Business pursuits and parenting limited the time he had to dedicate to this activity. Mark began to use ink sketches as a means to create memories of places he and his family visited in their travels. He would often share sketches with friends and family to help commemorate shared adventures. In 2018, Mark began using both digital rendering and watercolor to augment his ink sketches.

When the Pandemic struck, Mark used this confined time, to develop his use of watercolor as his primary medium. While architectural subjects and urban spaces embody much of his subjects, portraits and wildlife have been added to his body of work. This exhibit will highlight Locally inspired subjects

• Pick up price tags for Satellite Art Shows at the Art Center office, in the third drawer of the file cabinet, and use a black pen when writing on the labels.

KERN LITERACY FEATURED ART

(by Charlotte White)

Kathy Schilling will be a featured artist at the Literacy Council September through November. After a career in the hotel restaurant business, she finally realized her dream of opening her own art studio in 1997 where she teaches both adults and children in all mediums (drawing, watercolor, acrylic, pastel, oil, scratchboard, sculpture and silk). Kathy has been an artist most of her life. Over the years she studied under various artists: Jewell Shoulters in oil, Joan South in pastels @ Michelle's on South Chester, plus many workshops. Kathy's recent paintings are on silk material using silk dyes in a watercolor style. She started painting on silk scarves and ties several years ago and found she could enjoy the art on the wall as a full painting. Now she paints mostly for wall hanging and teaches the art in workshops and classes at her studio (Schilling Art Studio).
