SEPTEMBER GROUP SHOW

The featured artists at the BAA Art Center for the month of September are students from Iva Fendrick's watercolor class. A reception will be held on First Friday, September 6th from 6 to 8 pm.

Iva Fendrick says, "Teaching the class of Watercolor with ink has been a venture for me as well as my students. Some of my students have been with me for over 10 years and others have just been with me for a couple of months. We're all learning something every week I hope, it is to be fun and to enjoy what you're doing without any pressure. Everyone has their own style.

Our youngest student will be leaving for college soon, and we wish her well.

Kay Hall (also the treasurer for the BAA). Her watercolor is entitled "Provence Market Day". Kay says, "A finished & successful painting is a happy result of being in Iva's class. But equally or more important are the friendships that develop in the class. Everyone in the class has become a friend and supporter and if we get some painting done, all the better but just being together each week is often enough."

Deborah Cooper's ("Fancy Magnolia"). Deborah has a background in oils but she is now diving into watercolor, learning the medium & enjoying the process. Deborah says, "I love being in Iva's class. She works hard to bring instruction and inspiration to us weekly."

Jane Thornton's ("Colorado Sentinel").

Jane says, "Iva Fendrick's class is encouraging and positive."

Janet Felton's ("lunchtime"). Janet says, "To me this class is a place where I can go and get lost in the company of likeminded artists and friends. Iva is a patient and talented instructor. I get great feedback from everyone in the class."

Mimi Placencia's watercolors, entitled, "Drifting on the Danube." Mimi says, "I signed up for this class when I retired over 10 years ago. The class was described as "fun" which was really what I was looking for at the time. It never fails. We're always learning something new, and we have a lot of giggles in the class. We have turned into a very cohesive and fun class."

Debbie Sakowski "Morning Blooms" Debbie Sakowski "Sunset Solitude"

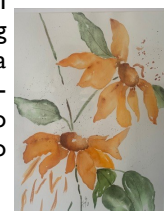

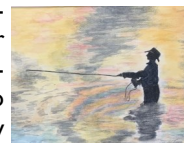

Debbie says, "Walking into Iva's art class each week is like the feeling I had walking into class on my first day of school...Always a bit anxious, happy to see friends, a loving and supportive teacher who accepts a bit of naughtiness and an opportunity to learn and experience new things."

Alicia Cazarez "Title: Recently Deceased". Watercolor is such a challenging medium, but such a giving one at the same time. When I paint, I get lost in the movement that my brush puts down. Pushing and pulling, lifting and blending. Watercolor has taught me so much and has helped me on my journey to become a tattoo artist. I'm so grateful to be a part of Iva's class. A couple of years ago, when I joined, I had no idea what doors it would open for me. Now I can say I am an artist. Either on paper or skin. The lessons I've learned in her class about color, composition, and having patience, will forever stick with me.

Claudia Keith "Hiking at Caliente". Claudia says, "Every class I learn something new from Iva. She is a gifted artist and teacher. Her class is the highlight of my week."

Pam Smith says, "I love my Wednesday morning class with Iva because she is a great teacher and helps us progress with each class!! I also love seeing my fellow artists who have become special friends!!"

1600 20th Street thru September. See page 3.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The First Friday reception on August 2nd featured photography by Todd Thorpe. Come on down to check out Todd's wonderful photography before the show comes down the end of August.

There was no August General Meeting during the hot summer month. We will meet again at the BAA Art Center on September 14th at 10 a.m. Micki Schulz has lined up a great program and also information about an exciting workshop. See Program & Workshop article on page 3.

Sissy Ullmann's painting will be featured for the next drawing at the September 14th General Meeting. The drawings will be every three months from now on.

The First Friday reception on September 6th will feature Iva's Fendrick's Watercolor class as a group show. As usual the reception will be from 6 to 8 p.m. More information about this show can be found on page 1.

The high schools exhibiting their art in the east gallery in September will continue to be from Golden Valley High School and Highland High School. A reception will be held on September 6th. More information can be viewed on page 7.

We're always looking for new artists to show their art in the Art Center. As a member, you are encouraged to get your art "juried" so that you can either show your art in the Art Center or at one of our Satellite Shows. Your participation is very important to our association.

Contact Kay Hall to renew your membership for the year 2024-2025 as of July 1st. No time like today to rededicate yourself to the mission of the BAA.

Stella Mullins, President

BAA MISSION STATEMENT

It is important for us to revisit the Objectives and Purposes for which the BAA was formed (the Mission Statement).

- To provide an opportunity for study and improvement in art technique;
- To encourage an interest in and an appreciation of art in the community;
- To provide opportunities for exhibition and for sales of member's work.

DAGNY'S FEATURED ARTIST

The BAA is happy to announce that watercolor artist Marilyn J. Smith will be the featured artist for the month of September at Dagny's Coffee Co., corner of 20th and Eye Streets. A full display of her works will fill the walls with human portraits, dogs, featured buildings from Bakersfield's past, and scenic views. Marilyn's specialty is human faces. She accepts commissions to paint your favorite people. If that interests you, be sure to come to Dagny's this September to check out her style.

Marilyn also has portraits on display at the BAA Art Center located at 1607 19th Street, Bakersfield, CA.

On November 23, Marilyn J. Smith will be teaching a watercolor workshop, "Watercolor Portraits 2" at the Bakersfield Art Center. Students will learn how to layer paints to get glowing skin and sparkling eyes. Students will leave this class with a finished portrait. People do not need to have been in the first watercolor portraits class. Students should have a basic knowledge of watercolor paints and be comfortable using a brush. Information and signups are at Bakersfield Art Association, 1607 19th Street, Bakersfield, CA. (661), 869-2320 $65 for BAA Members, $75 for non-members.

SEPTEMBER PROGRAM & WORKSHOP

PROGRAM: September is arriving quickly, which means our summer break from General Meetings, Programs and Workshops is over and we have a great lineup of new events! September 14th is our 2nd Saturday meeting, and the program will be Joanna Kendrick from the new Charter School of Art and Technology, which will be opening just around the corner on 18th and H Streets. They want to focus heavily on the Art community in Bakersfield and are excited about connecting with the BAA and others. Joanna will talk about what their new school will be offering.

PLUS, we have another speaker sharing about BAA and its history from the beginning 80 years ago (come next November). Kay Hall has put together a demonstration with projector of events, including fun stories, promising to enlighten our members on facts you may not know, but should!

We will also have a spread of good food to enjoy together. Please feel free to bring food to contribute to the event

WORKSHOPS: We have a lineup of monthly workshops, beginning with September 28th. Cindy Stiles (who is a past member) from the coast is coming to give an Oil Still Life Workshop on smaller canvases. Description of the class, supply list and signup sheet is in the lobby at the BAA Art Center. The cost is $65.00/member and $75.00/non-members. The class will be limited to 12, so sign up right away to secure your spot!

It will be nice getting back into the flow of activities. I personally have missed you and I'm looking forward to seeing everyone again.

STUDENT ART SHOW FOR SEPTEMBER

Golden Valley High School and Highland High School's Summer Schools will continue to be showcasing their artwork in September at the Bakersfield Art Association Art Center. The spotlight will be on the exceptional artwork crafted by students from Ms. Suender's and Mrs. Mayo's Beginning Art classes and Advanced classes.

We cordially invite you to join us for the opening reception on September 6th from 6 to 8 p.m. It's a wonderful opportunity to immerse yourself in the artistic achievements of our students and celebrate the vibrant tapestry of creativity within our school community.

In October we will resume exhibiting student art from two Kern County high schools.
