PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

(by Iva Cross Fendrick)

Wow. What a great holiday season we had at the gallery, especially the BAA Featured Wall artist, Laura Mizrahi and Dagny's featured artist Kay Hall, each had wonderful sales. The Christmas party and raffle went well, too. This is our important fundraiser for scholarships, If you missed it put it on your new 2020 BAA Calendar for this coming December, second Saturday of that month.

Time to make those New Year's resolutions. Perhaps to make art at least once a week and of course to exercise more, Does it count if I just walk into the gym? Didn't think so. But we all have good intentions when we start a new year, so 2020 should not be any different. Perhaps to drop by the gallery more, visit with those friends who are working that day and to buy something to give to a family member. We all need to support the BAA in whatever way we can and buying original art is a great way to keep us active for another 75 years. We have had some wonderful monetary donations over the years and those names are on our Giving Wall. These large gifts have allowed BAA to purchase items that we didn't have available in our budget. So thank you to all of those members and friends who appreciate the goals and mission of our organization by supporting in a variety of ways.

Many of our artists would like to promote their art in a variety of ways besides renting wall space. We have over twelve satellite locations to do that. This is thanks to Charlotte White who continues to find locations. Also available is the Featured Wall, if your art has been juried, contact Jim Bates and find a month that works for you.

I am wishing all of you a Happy New Year. May your new year be filled with good health and safe travels.

BAA MISSION STATEMENT

It is important for us to revisit the Objectives and Purposes for which the BAA was formed (the Mission Statement).

- To provide an opportunity for study and improvement in art technique;
- To encourage an interest in and an appreciation of art in the community;
- To provide opportunities for exhibition and for sales of member's work.
- To recognize the works of other artists; and
- To offer scholarships to the community for art education.

12. Calendars and art will be for sale at that time.

LIBRARY

(by Cheri Sperl)

Library books are loaned for 30 days only at a time and are for BAA members only. Don't be surprised if you have overdue books and you receive a call or email from the librarian with a friendly reminder to return the book(s).

DAGNY'S JANUARY ARTIST

Laura Lee was born on Nov. 26, 1986 in Bakersfield, California. As a young girl she was greatly influenced by her grandmother's passion for the arts- there was always something to draw with close in hand. She loved that her sketches could take her to wherever she wanted- which was usually to the mountains, and pictures filled with tall trees. But most of all she loved sketching portraits- attempting to capture the beauty of the model's faces in fashion magazines.

As a young adult she began teaching piano privately while studying Business & Art at Cuesta College. After graduating with her A.A. her and her husband moved back to their hometown where she completed her B.A. in Music Education from CSUBakersfield. After graduating college, she rested from teaching piano and art to focus on homeschooling their daughters (Annabelle, born in 2012, followed by Adeline in 2015). Personal experiences then inspired her to begin teaching again and publicly sharing her art.

Laura Lee's acrylic piece, "Hope" was shown in the "Sublime" Visual Arts Festival at the Bakersfield Museum of Art. In early fall she became an active member and Art Instructor at the Bakersfield Art Association where her artwork can be found in the east gallery. For the BMoA Via Arte Festival in October, Laura Lee recreated her recent work titled "Happy." Which is one of several pieces from her current series titled, "Expressions"- a collection of emotional self-portraits. The faces are not her own, but the expression on each face conveys the emotions she is feeling while creating each piece.

ART CLASSES FOR ADULTS REGISTER FOR CLASSES WITH THE INSTRUCTOR OR AT THE ART CENTER

NEW CLASSES FOR JANUARY

Intermediate Drawing -Landscapes with Carol Bradshaw This is a continuation of a structured series of 6 three hour classes in graphite. ## BAKERSFIELD LIFE MAGAZINE

(by Jan Wiley)

All artists who show their work at the BAA are eligible to show their art in our Bakersfield Life Magazine advertisement.. We drew the following artist's names at the November member meeting. January: DONNA BIANCO February: BOB ROSS

This will be a great opportunity for us!

THANK YOU!

(by Iva Fendrick)

It is important that I thank all those who helped to make our Christmas Party and Scholarship Raffle such a success Micki Schulz was the chair of the event. She and Jeff Schulz did a wonderful job of organizing the food and contributing many items for the raffle. Also, Jan Wiley who went about the neighboring businesses and advising those who donated that it was our Scholarship Fund. And thank you to Mimi Placencia for the special yearly Dewar's basket and her other baskets, too. Of course, thanks go out to the rest of you who brought in numerous baskets and gift items. Kay Hall worked for hours to type up the bid sheets and organize them in a manner that made the bidding move smoothly. Without that job being done where would we have been? I don't want to leave anyone out, so I apologize if I did. Many of us worked to set up and take down, and to put the gallery all back in order. It takes all of us to keep the gallery going and making it possible to contribute toward the scholarship fund and to have an enjoyable Christmas Party,

The BAA will be closed New Year's day.

WE ARE SAD TO REPORT

We are sorry to report that one of our long time members, Fred Jacober, has passed away. Fred was very active in the organization, being our manager for about 10 years when the BAA gallery was at the East Hills Mall.
