January 2021

The BAA Art Center may be closed during January. Check ahead.

January Featured Art

“Confinement Creations” group show will be the featured art at the BAA Art Center through January. The Art Center WILL be open for January with a virtual show on the Bakersfield Art Association website, Facebook and Instagram pages. There will regrettably be no First Friday reception.

While kept in our homes many artists found the time they have always wanted to create. Here is a sampling of that body of work by local artists including, Norma Eaton, Toni Lott, Gary Knerr, Tena Henry, Iva Fendrick and Jim Bates. It is a diverse show with each artist doing what they wanted. Come and see their “Creativeness”.

Dagny's January Featured Artist

Dagny's BAA Art Gallery 1600 20th Street. Micki Schulz will be the featured artist at the Dagny's BAA Gallery through January . See page 3.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

(by Toni Lott)

This has been a difficult year. 2020 will be remembered as the year that challenged us all. We are currently closed and will reevaluate the Governor's shutdown orders in January. Our health, finances and emotions have been on a roller coaster ride.

Looking forward to 2021 as a time to regroup and spend time working on ways to make the Bakersfield Art Association and the Art Center function more smoothly and harmoniously. We have areas where we need to follow suggestions given by those who have experience in these matters. Heaven knows I am lacking in social media, websites and marketing skills.

There are artists that have decided to leave the Art Center but will continue to show in our satellite shows. Check the newsletter for a list of these locations. Any member that has been approved to show can utilize this way to showcase their art.

Our website bakersfieldartassociation.org is another site to show your art. All artists showing in the Art Center can utilize this market to sell art. There is a small fee for artists not in the Art Center.

Thank you for your interest in the Bakersfield Art Association and Art Center. The board and I wish you all a healthy and prosperous 2021. When we are open again, come by and browse our wonderful artist's work. On December 13, 2020

I am Toni Lott
President

COVENANT COFFEE FEATURED ARTIST

Watercolor Paintings of Oildale and Kern County, by Charlotte White through January and February, 2021, at Covenant Coffee, 700 North Chester Avenue

Focusing on selecting a theme for the art show in the new year, was on the artist's mind as she drove slowly the streets of Oildale and Kern county. Looking for light and shadow across landmarks, thriving businesses, geometric signs from days gone by, and anything that would catch Charlotte White's attention. All the watercolor paintings were painted on location as the artist searched for shade. Gradually, watercolor paintings for this show developed. St. Paul's church, Our Lady of Perpetual Help church, Woolworth Five and Dime Antique Mall, the statue of the Founder of Oildale, the Green Hotel in Shafter, the chicken statues at Primo's Liquor and Deli and the Big Blue Bear Coffee Shop in Kernville. Then there are the Oildale signs from the liquor store on the corner, the trailer park, the pool hall... just to name a few.

Part of the sales from this exhibit will go to the programs provided by Covenant Coffee. To contact the artist: Call (661) 330-2676.

DAGNY'S FEATURED ARTIST

Micki Schulz is a relatively new artist, who didn't discover her passion for Art until her 60's. She loves learning and working with all mediums & styles, referring to this as her Creative Exploration. Micki lives in Bakersfield and is a member of the Bakersfield Art Association, currently serving on the Board as Vice President.

$20,000 GRANT!

The Board of Directors is pleased to announce that the BAA was granted a $20,000 Kern Recovers grant from Kern County. The Kern Recovers Nonprofit Grant was developed for county Non-Profits that are addressing the needs of the neediest or improving the quality of life in Kern County. We were able to apply because we had not received aid through the Kern Recovers Small Business Forgivable Loan Program.

We extend our thanks to David Gordon at the Arts Council of Kern for alerting us to the grant. At the last Board of director's meeting, it was decided that the grant will be used exclusively for pay our $2578 monthly rent until the funds are exhausted.

GROUP SHOW-CALL TO ARTISTS

The group show, "Confinement Creations" is hanging right now. Come in and see it wgat artists have been doing with the extra time on their hands because of the pandemic.

Be thinking about the next group show in July, deadline Monday, June 7. The new theme will be "Portals". In 2013 we did a show entitled "Windows and Doors" that was successful. This time lets define it more loosely as any transition to a new place, including window and doors. During the last year we were unable to travel much, we were confined often to views from restricted places. Use your imagination or just paint the neighbors front door. Just keep painting!!
