PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

(by Iva Cross Fendrick)

Finally fall is really here with cool weather and hopefully rain, perhaps we will have enough rain so our spring will have another mega bloom.

October was filled with many activities for the Art Association Gallery. First is the good news that the Fair raffle earned the Scholarship fund over $2,000.00. A big thank you goes out to all those who donated paintings and helped to sell raffle tickets.

First Friday's Featured Wall displayed Jim Bates beautiful detailed painting, showing his wide range of talents in drawing and capturing life as it is happening. Dagny's Featured artist was Cheri Sperl, again giving us a fun time admiring how she can capture animals in all poses. Cheri's workshop, scheduled for October 19th. I am sure was a great success. We thank her for being BAA's Chair of the Workshop committee.

Toni Lott presented our October program at the General Meeting. We all enjoyed her sharing valuable information on matting your art and the pitfalls to look out for when preserving art. As most of you know, Toni will have her framing spot at the gallery in the office space. Bring your art for professional framing.

November Featured Wall is the calendar show. We have the 2020 calendars for sale with all the wonderful paintings and art. Hopefully you come and see and buy.

Thanks to large donations, BAA is able to have individual artist from the gallery as part of an advertisement in the Bakersfield Life magazine in the coming year. See Jan Wiley's notice on that subject.

Drop by the gallery to see all the new art and to visit.

DAGNY'S NOVEMBER ARTIST

Kelly was born and raised in Bakersfield, California. After graduating high school in 1993, she joined the navy, was stationed in Sicily for two years, then joined Seabee battalion 133 in Gulfport, Mississippi. She was deployed to Spain and Lithuania. Kelly returned to Bakersfield after her enlistment in January 1999, and attended Cerro Coso Community College and transferred to CSUB, earning a bachelor's degree in English with a minor in religious studies.

Kelly began experimenting with scratchboard four years ago, and has since earned numerous awards for her work, including two blue ribbons at the Kern County fair and having her work featured by Ampersand Art's 2019 fall Scratchboard advertising campaign.

Kelly's process for working on scratchboard is constantly evolving, as well as the subject matter for her work, but her style and creative use of symbolism and metaphor is immediately recognizable to her supporters and collectors.

CALENDAR REPORT

(by Kathy Schilling)

The Calendar committee has put together another wonderful calendar for the year 2020. It is available at the Art Center right now and the calendar show is being hung by October 30, 2019.

I would like all of the BAA members to know how the calendar came together so efficiently. It was the team work of a great committee. Special thanks goes to Stella Mullins, for organizing the dates and art, placing the Ads with the months, getting the work in for proofs to the printer and getting the calendars from the printer to you. Thank you, Stella. Thank you goes to Iva Fendrick for getting the ads and getting the money to proceed with the calendar payments, all this and running the BAA too. Thank you, Iva. Thank you to Kay Hall, without her we would not have gotten started. She received all the entries, printed the art and displayed them at the last meeting of the year so you could vote. Thank you, Kay.

Now it is up to you; buy one for $15.00 plus tax or buy 10 (for presents) at $10.00 each plus tax. It is a great bargain!!! Also, I would like to say thank you to all of you for submitting your wonderful art in this calendar competition. Your work was the best I have seen yet.

WE ARE SAD TO REPORT

We are sad to report the death of Terri Murray. She was an artist and art teacher in the Kern High School District. Terri will be missed by many.
