September Featured Artist

“Love the Car”, Art by Patti Doolittle will be the featured art at the BAA Art Center through September. The Opening Reception with refreshments will be First Friday, September 6 from 6 to 8 pm.

Patti will be displaying art from her period of painting old cars and going to car shows and taking lots of photos for reference, she loves the shine of the chrome and the interesting people who care for their cars, it is a love they feel, a family member almost! She saw Marilyn's car in Las Vegas at a car show, “I just fell in love with this convertible! It was her!”

Patti was born in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. She left when she was only 4 years old. Her family moved to Bakersfield where she went to school. Married at a young age, she began her career as a hairdresser for a length of time. Patti's first art teacher was Bill Ryan at North High in Bakersfield which was the beginning of her interest in art. He made also took art classes at Orange Coast College, as well as workshops. She found she had a love for painting people. She took life drawing, also. Patti is a more realistic, a difference in the way she approached her artwork even though she is drawn to portraits and realistic ideas of what she is portraying. She painted only when she had some spare time and took art classes from Clayton Rippey of Bakersfield College and Betty Hay, Ken Auster in Laguna Beach, CA. Patti contemporary artist, always feeling the need for more learning in her need for giving that extra punch in a painting.

Patti was a member of Women Artists of the West, which gives her a lot of joy to hear from the women who paint, getting lots of ideas, critiques, tips and being in National shows as well. Patti has shown at Ronald Reagan Library with

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

(by Iva Cross Fendrick)

Time to get ready for the Kern County Fair, vacations are over, sunburns have healed and hopefully the cool weather is not far away. Also, time to mark your calendars for all the Second Saturday Programs that the art gallery will have for you to enjoy. The first one will be "hands-on". Read Micki Schulz, your Vice President's report of what you will enjoy on Saturday morning, September 14th.

The gallery floors are beautiful after they were stripped and waxed this last month. I must thank several people for helping remove and replace furniture and art items. Saturday was Todd Thorpe, Greg Stanley, Vicki and Dennis Meadows, and I directing traffic. Sunday was Jim Bates, Robert Hofferd, Mimi Placencia, Vicki and Dennis, and I, getting in the way. In six months this will happen again, that will be your chance to help, please.

Marsha Black was our Featured Artist on First Friday. Her coverage in the local newspaper was extensive, with a large picture of her photography and the story about her photographs.. Marsha's photos show a depth of understanding of people of the world. Dagny's Feature Artist was covered also in the newspaper, showing three of my paintings. I had about fifteen of my friends who stopped by to show their support., much appreciated. The evening was hot, so the crowd at BAA was not what we usually see during the cooler months of the year. The gallery looked great, with an abundance of food and beverages, with wonderful art to enjoy.. We hope all of you will visit on First Friday and other days of the month, bring friends too. Come show off the gallery that we all should be proud of and our being part of the Downtown Arts District.

MONTHLY MEETING

(by Micki Schulz)

Summer is winding down and it's time for our 2nd Saturday General Meetings to begin again. The September meeting will be on the 14th. The first program is an exciting start to this year's lineup. Lisa and Scott Mayo are coming to give us a "Hands On" demonstration on Pottery with everyone making their own mug. Since they will provide the materials and tools, it will be important to have a close headcount. Please RSVP to Micki at (661) 330-3002. Remember that it's always good to bring friends and family, so invite others who may want to join us and create their own mug.

Since we haven't had a meeting in quite awhile I will also need people to volunteer to bring food. If you are willing to contribute food please call Micki @ (661) 330-3002. Looking forward to seeing everyone there. Welcome back!

DAGNY'S SEPTEMBER ARTIST

Norma Neil will present "The Splendor of Nature" this month at Dagny's Coffee Shop. Engaging the natural elements is what draws me to landscape painting. I'm increasingly driven toward more abstract representations of natural elements and even in my traditional paintings, the abstract structure guides the painting along.

Whether the subject is our sea coast, mountains, or valleys, each give me a sense of being part of a bigger world. I try to hint the local weather with sunny or storm clouds give life to the scene. Water in all forms, reaffirms its life giving nature.

Watercolor, my chosen medium, appeals to me because of its immediacy and versatility. Having worked in all the major painting mediums, it gives me the biggest challenge and the greatest rewards when it works. My paintings allow me to share the beauty I see in the world.

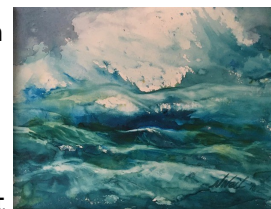

Art has always been a part of my identity, even when life's journey required other roles. "Retirement" has meant more time and freedom to develop in a self-directed path. Teaching painting to adults privately, at BAA, and as a volunteer at the Art and Spirituality program at Mercy Hospital has enriched my life by helping developing artists in their art journey. I also sponsor artist retreats and travel for an immersive art experience.

I graduated from Cal State Fresno and hold Lifetime teaching credentials in both elementary education and secondary art. I have been able to study with several national/internationally established artists who have helped me to develop my skills and define myself as an artist. An avid world traveler, I believe it has helped me to broaden my scope and understanding of life and art. Whenever I travel, I always take a sketchbook and some watercolors.

Watercolor is my primary medium as it offers a never ending challenge. I love the way watercolor requires the artist to engage in the moment with a balance of serendipity and control.

Most of my work is inspired by the natural world which I feel also has symbolic meaning beyond just the picture. I strive to create art that gives a visual statement to a spiritual truth.

My work can be seen at the BAA Gallery and other local art venues.
