

BEN HOPE

GUITARIST AND SINGER

From the basement to Broadway; country singer, guitarist, and songwriter Ben Hope has spent the last 20 years honing his craft on stages all over the world. In 2006 Ben recorded his first album with his father and big brother, rehearsing in the basement of their home in Birmingham, Alabama. Along with inspiration from greats like Garth Brooks, Hank Williams and Johnny Cash this record would be the jumping off point for Ben and his music.

Ben decided to follow his passion for performing and storytelling to New York City in 2007. The city grind inspired his music further which led to his 2015 release 'Ragged and Rowdy' and pushed him all the way to Broadway where Ben performed in the Tony Award winning musical ONCE for 3 years.

Now spending some time in Chicago you can find Ben gettin' crowds rowdy at local bars with CLASSIC COUNTRY and HONKY-TONK hits from Cash, Brooks, Williams, Yoakum, Jones and more alongside his original country tunes. Ben is also planning his first solo acoustic tour in 2020! Stay tuned for updates at www.BenHopeMusic.com

'A breathtakingly fresh mashup of all the goodness that was Roy Orbison, Buddy Holly, Webb Pierce, and Hank Williams but is still authentic and original.'

-Country Weekly

'...Rich soul and sweet down home twang you won't be able to forget.'

-Music Rag

'...Hope delivers the kind of southern essence and rhythm that you can't help but move along to.'
