Director's Note

There's something I love about our summer productions. The turnaround is quick, and that pressure does something wonderful to a cast: they get close, fast. This year the kids learned the entire show in about two weeks, and what they built together in that short window still amazes me. Junie B. Jones is also just a joy to direct because so many of our actors already know her. A lot of them read the books when they were younger, so they didn't just learn lines, they stepped into a character they already loved. I'm so proud of this cast. I'm also thrilled that Mr. Alex, our technical director, is now teaching our new Teen Tech Workshop, and I'm excited to welcome Ms. Julia as our vocal director. FRC keeps growing, and I'm grateful every day for the talented group of people behind our shows. -Mr. Michael K.

Our mission:

Front Row Center is San Diego's premier 501(c)3 non-profit performing arts company focused on providing equitable and accessible youth theatrical opportunities, through exceptional educational programming, theatrical productions, and workshops. Front Row Center strives to make these Theatre Arts experiences attainable to all young performers regardless of socio-economic, cultural, ethnic background, skill level, disability, gender identity or sexual orientation. Along with cultivating a lifelong admiration and passion for the performing arts, Front Row Center is committed to bringing high-quality youth theatre productions to San Diego. Our programming will supplement regional educational resources and school curriculums with accessible tuition fees.
