

SUPPORT WORKER

AMELIA

SOUTHERN SUBURBS

Hi, I'm Amelia! I'm currently studying at uni with plans to become a Registered Nurse, and I've previously worked as a Police Cadet. I support children, adolescents, and adults, with a strong focus on autism and mental health support.

I'm an active and creative person and love getting out for walks or swimming, as well as spending time cooking, painting, doing arts and crafts, or gaming together. I enjoy building genuine connections and supporting people to develop everyday skills, confidence, and independence in a way that feels comfortable and supportive. I aim to create a calm, positive environment where people feel heard, respected, and encouraged to reach their goals at their own pace.
