

SUPPORT WORKER

JOEL

CENTRAL & SOUTHERN SUBURBS

Hi, I'm Joel, and I'm passionate about advocacy, self-determination, and helping others develop independent living skills. I like to focus on capacity building, empowering individuals to live their lives with confidence and independence.

Outside of work, I love fishing, hiking, camping, and staying active through sports like football, basketball, and golf.

Fitness and weightlifting are key to my routine, and I also enjoy photography, woodworking, and DIY projects.

I'm always up for traveling, exploring new places, and have a strong interest in automotive work, especially car restoration and mechanics. I bring a hands-on, practical approach to my work and am committed to supporting my clients in thriving.
