

SUPPORT WORKER

TAVIRI

NORTHERN SUBURBS

After a long career as a chef and manager, I've transitioned into support work-something that feels like a natural fit. I have lived experience supporting people with ASD, anxiety, intellectual disabilities, and challenging behaviours, including supporting my partner and family members over many years.

Outside of work, I'm a musician, martial arts fan, and a proud nerd who loves Star Wars, gaming, and hanging out with my three-legged special needs dog. I bring patience, understanding, and a strong focus on emotional regulation and person-centred support.
