EGOMANIA

Our first meeting, on a dreary night
We played cards against humanity not knowing humanity would play its cards against us
There was a boy next to her too
The girl was a little distant thursday Observant or non-caring, I didn't know

30

The boy next to her was a little weird
He had something going on in disguise
Well, none of them should be my problem Didn't expect them to be, ever

friday
1 Birds fly Ears hear

Another person

Was on the boys heel

How Tables Have Turned /1

saturday
2 Truth has a bad habit of coming out

And when it does, you'll be fucked

No candle will burn for forever

Only disappointment remains when lights are out

How can you be this disgusting

Don't you have any honor when sleeping?

If you hate someone this much, go for it

But you'll hate yourself more after realizing

sunday
3 You must grow balls to be honest

Or you'll set everyone crying

The devil you... but fuck it

Who am I to judge what others are doing

Go kill everyone's feelings

Kill yourself after the evening

Your life

Live it

monday

4

Empathy, god forbid
Berke answer

Why do you care?

Aren't you scared?

5

Then we started talking more

She had something different

Will she understand me?

Am I feeling something?

I feel some movement

Butterflies in my stomach

I don't know how it happened

I did not chase to fall

wednesday

friday

8

Savvy Hand
12

Guide the way, I'm scared of love

Wish for happiness but under the shadows I hide

Everything was fine until we met

Again, I can't sleep when I put my head on my bed

Be honest with me, speak out your soul

9

It hurts me deep down overthinking

Who am I, I'm always wondering

Only solution is you telling

Let me escape this mind prison

I hate being chained by a past

Even your touch is a blessing

Mornings and nights, it is you who I am thinking

Another heartbreak is on the road, I feel it

sunday

10

I don't know what to contemplate

So close yet, so distant

Bonding and straining, what are your intentions?

Look me dead in my eyes

I really don't understand anything

Act like it is a kid who you are explaining

Do you feel it?

Cause you got me feeling

11

I don't know what's it with you
A smile appears when I am next to you
The beauty in your eyes pierce through my skull
I'm disoriented, what time is it?
Is this love at first sight?
Something clicked just right up
Do you feel the tension too?
Or do you also loosen up when talking?

Better know I won't stop fighting
I will not accept losing not this time...
Visit my grave if I die writing
The past and the future
All collides and fades to nothing
The fire burning in your eyes Mine have been dead for a while

wednesday

13

No matter how hard I try
I'm falling for you...
Too many scars that are still open
But an antiseptic, you are The bad ideas on you burn my skin
Yet know it'll heal over time
It drives me crazy
Will I escape this loneliness

thursday

14

Pain is a piece of me
Yet will you close my scars?

15

I hate fancy words

Romanticism never worked

But I found myself next to a river

Writing songs after a damned smile

Bottle my tears

Cause the ones I shed at the river

Are lost in the water, forever

After all, someone may free my mind

16

Take it easy on me...

18

Weird

13

If I called you up
Would you be down?
Throw in some sympathy
Come lets talk it out

I don't think anyone wants the drama

19

Lets find peace in this accursed dilemma

Remove the curtains seperating us
And act like who we really wanna
Just because I let you go Doesn't mean that I wanna

Passion and affection

Am I too selfish for a relation

Do I give what I search for

wednesday

20

Or ask everything for me

Tell me if I ever make a mistake I'll exhaust myself overthinking

thursday

21

22

I

Showed her this book opened the gates of my mind

If I knew she wouldn't leave

I would do it again with no fright

I cleansed my heart

Collected all the broken pieces

Prepared the deepest part

23

Come, sit at your throne

There are many people around

Excitement of a new start

But she has something much more

Each cogwheel is connecting one by one

Can I dedicate myself

sunday

24

I'm still unsure

It's been a long while

Since my heart was emptied out

I am scared to hurt you

Maybe it is not the best idea

I know the monster in the shadow

I hope I tamed it before

JULY

monday First insecurities started coming out

25 We sat together in your room

I explained my poems nearly crying

Gave you all my trust

Because that's the only thing I had

Except a lonely broken heart

Which I planned on giving away as well

Not caring about the consequences tuesday But we went out and everything changed

26 You acted different, I did not understand

I blamed the constant mess in my head

You disappeared and I felt lost

I had a hard time understanding what happened to the bond among us

I guess I still am a small kid lost in his feelings

Fly above all clouds when romanticizing

wednesday

27 Everyone started changing slowly

Maybe it was the masks falling off

Others I trust started to feel like someone else

I began feeling alone in a hundred small talks

My best friend was in Prague for chilling

What I saw behind his back, I'm never forgetting

The girl who told him, she wanted more was kissing thursday Who would have believed that would be our story too

28

friday
29

Disobedience 14

Since when has words lost their meaning?

Why would you lie looking into someone's eyes?

Speak the truth! you'll not conceal

It's like ostriches when they bury their head in the ground

The true evil, no horns but you are a devil

saturday

30

A fallen angel was not sinful until he fell vile

Emotions are dead, let's all abandon

Fancy notions behind false pretences we are hiding

I want to crawl to a corner and watch what's going

Hatred, animosity, antipathy and the chaotic abhorrence

I just want to run away from feelings

Is only the money fraud considered a crime?

What is true happiness, I forgot

sunday

31

How do having dreams feel?

I'm losing hope on too many people

Dug the dirt with my nails craving

Is the evil in our souls?

Under each mask a lucifer lies / There is no need to visit hell,

It's been with us for a long while / I'm actually scared, am I problematic?

Controversial thoughts strangle my heart / At this point I don't know who to trust..
I'll never...

AUGUST

1 I ran away
I did like all the time
I feel sick
It's like a kick in the stomach

Am I too childish to believe?

Am I too mature to act?

Am I too selfish to believe?

2 Am I too insecure to trust?

After what I saw

I had enough with most

People who forced girls to drink

Or those who sell their body as pleasure

Which one is worse I wonder

wednesday

Can you tell me

3 Can anyone break the silence?

I am about to vomit from the suffer

thursday

4

5

Illusion

15

We all laugh together, why do I cry all alone
 Why does every friend carry a dagger in their pocket Bite of power, a search for desire Dreamy lust, is it all, I wonder?
 This feeling of being unloved in the middle of a love circle

6

It shatters my heart into pieces every night
 I've been stressing way too much, can you hug me again?
 Can the clock stop ticking for a little while?
 I'm sorrowful for being this sad all the time!
 But how can I keep my chin up seeing what's happening right behind?
 Illusions of love
 Othello, consume my mind
 Exclusion, I want to run away all the time

sunday

7

Violence, tear my ears until I don't hear hate no more I beg you, I beg the time, someone, stop

monday

8

We met at a cafe

Got to know each other more

I invited you for tonight

To the match, at someone else's house

If I knew what would happen

I wouldn't have hurt you

But you acted kindly, caring about me

9

And I burned like a forgotten candle after you

Worst then anything

It was raining

Neither my bus was coming nor you were by my side

I walked in that weather

Where loneliness smiled

wednesday

10

I didn't want to let go of you, far away from my heart

I would prefer you every day

Be next to you rather than theirs

It wasn't a punishment but a prize

I'm not telling words I don't believe in Every word is coming from my soul

thursday

11

If you would have answered on time

I would have ran back to donou

You didn't leave my mind that night

friday

12

Second person with a heart in Passau

Smiled more beautiful than every painting ever drawn

Every thing was slowly starting to fall in its place

A possible future filled with grace

Eyes that make the heavens jealous

You took our photo like a renaissance art piece

Worth more than anything I held in my hand

My heartbeat is rising every second

Health

16

Fuck it, I've changed my mind
I don't want to care about others
I've fought god for too long
I've fought myself for too long
I feel way too tired

16

Open your arms so I fall into them Come to me, I'll show you all I have Don't be scared of my honesty
It's the reality I hate hiding
You'll find out eventually Please let me...

... Let me love you

Feel your heart touching mine

wednesday

17

Maybe fix the scars that are open

I still have holes in my chest

Are you the one who'll get rid of my aches?

Come, sit next to me

Hug me more until I don't regret

Ease my mind, take it easy

Love me more, more than I do myself

Show me how to feel again

thursday

18

Believe me, I need you

19

Same nightmares are happening

Everything is genuine until the party

Even before people flooding in What changes so suddenly

I'm getting tired, believe me

I went back, I couldn't take it

I wanted to disappear and this time never come back

saturday

20

I still am insecure, you will see it

"Did you leave?"

Why did you ask me?

You are going to break me more

Don't care about me!

monday 22 Its the day after the party my mind is racing like it is usually I'll go to the river, music in my ear
Would you like to accompany?
Many things to do today
Kaptlinger and Donau bar
Are you sure you want to come?
"no, i'm coming with you"

tuesday 23 That meant a lot to me You chose to see the devil instead of having a party
I'm sorry for being different
The elephant in the room
I don't fit in
I show my problems
I should have hidden wednesday 24 Another insecurity came to mind

We won't be seeing each other in a few months
What if fate never weaves its webs
For us to meet ever again
The small world that brought us together
Gets big enough to separate everything, forever I'm afraid of falling in love thursday 25 what if an end does not come

friday

26

And that day has come Maybe it was the beginning of the end or end of the beginning, I'm lost Anyway, it was perfect
 I didn't kiss you that day
 Even your hug was enough
 A peace I haven't felt Replenished with hope next to your side

saturday

27

But I was afraid of hurting
 From the falsity of feelings Wondered if my thoughts were real
 I won't hurt you no matter
 I'm even more confused
 The wars have started again
 Will I be able to sleep?
 Will this nightmare ever end?

Line

/7

Where is the line, I think I crossed it Lost my senses, overthinking
I know you are different than the others
But still, I don't know how to act when talking Please guide me the way, I'm running off-track
Even though I said I was done asking people

tuesday

30

"Who am I for you?"

Kisses on your neck, us holding hands
Each color blends, my mind just melts
If each emotion is a water droplet
I'm drowning in an ocean of assumptions
I cannot separate fantasy from reality
So whisper yours into my ears

wednesday

31

Should I run away, I feel scared

Darkness isn't my only phobia

Pessimism lurks like the devil on my shoulder
I always wanted to be a superhero
Save everyone from bad things happening
I thought, I could give my all to everyone Each time failing

thursday

1

Am I the villain? I wonder...

2

A funny sidenote to leave

Everything happened by a wish

The fountain of Salazar

Contains an one cent by me

The coin slipped through my hand

I wished as fast as I can Usually god doesn't like me that much

3

But I wished for you and it came right

Slowly my love grew

I was beginning to get sure

I was going to love you

The only owner of my soul

Something happened to my playlists

I used to listen to rap only

4

Why is Frank Sinatra speaking

Why do I only hear love songs playing

I sang to the angels

I gave all my prayers

I started to dream of a better future

Hopeless
18

I'm falling

The fight, all the fronts, I'm losing

It's like a never ending nightmare

Shouting and shouting yet no one is there

Dark nights are swallowing my dark thoughts

6

Lonely times feeding cursed ideas to my soul

It hurts to exist in this pain I suffer

Reality checks on people I call friends

Deeply overthinking about all possibilities

Things upcoming fill me with regret

Lost the last light in my eyes

I'm hopeless about the future that lies

I really hate god

wednesday

7

If he too hates me this much

Come down in human form and let's fight

Either kill me or I will kill you

This hatred among us is too much

Destiny shows unwritten agony

Violent confrontations in my head

Her becoming the main topic when I drink

I want to live but hate this unstoppable pain

thursday

8

I love my family, I love my friends

But I hate all the misery of being me

I want to breathe, but shut up the person in me

I love the grass, I love the sky

But I hate what's happening when the sun sets down

friday

9

That day after Shamrock

I was feeling sick

I had a fever

Yet wanted to see you

I came to the party

Hoping we would be

Spending time together

10

I thought you loved me too

Late in the night

When there were no more light

I've seen you kissing

With another heart

I ran away

From you and my thoughts

sunday

11

I was afraid to speak

Because of the pain I would inflict

I walked back home

Broken dreams I weep

My eyes I weep

I fell in love again

12 Towards pain I'm falling

Illusions of Love 19

Trust me I only want you
Close your ears, I'm gonna scream I love you You'll never see me crying, I'm too numb for that shit
My heart is too heavy, I can't stand on my two feet
It's not only during nighttimes I see nightmares

saturday

17

In the mornings I see the world burning down

Please hate me, let me know you hate me

So my heart accepts I'll always be lonely

Stop with your fancy love words

It's reconnecting the shattered pieces

I'm scared I won't survive again for this long

Leave me before it's too late

My heart is too weak to replenish don't trust the devil

sunday

18

Both of us will regret it

I might look like I'm chill outside

But too many wars raging in my head

Let me suffer in a hellfire of self hate

Don't come near me, I'm getting filled with feelings

I know each one I'll regret...

Waste

1/10

Humanity has ended

I gotta get used to it

There is none left around

In vast loneliness I'll slowly fly

Look back at the possibilities

tuesday

27

Love could have been suffice

Now grief is the only remaining feeling in parchment box

Humanity was terrifying

Fighting over small things as broken dreams

Will anything I do matter eventually?

Hundred years into nothingness

Will someone ever read through my memories?

Death listened to the twisted melodies carefully

wednesday

28

After all it ended so smoothly

Every color faded to black

Every touch turned numb

Every scent vaporized

Pain changes you fully

Message to future me

When scythe of demise burns your skin

Run as fast as you can, so once more you can feel

thursday

29

A war, so bloody and destructive

A painting will go nice with it

Angels in the heavens, look down on me

As I smile carelessly

friday

30

Involuntary self-judgement

Suffocation by the dreams you gave me

You are in my mind all the time

But why can't I dream of you any longer

This time I am the one who is sorry

For believing in something yet so impossible

I get hurt everytime I see you

And its not even your fault

1

I still want you next to me all the time

Stockholm syndrome and you'll never know

Am I a masochist, I wonder

The pain you inflict without knowing

I feel the grim reaper stalling in the corner

Stop telling me you are sorry

It's making me ~~even~~ even worse

Too many unknowns

sunday

2

An equation I can not solve

Just as you said "Humans, too complicated."

I cannot seem to find the truth in myself

So how can I explain my feelings

I suffer a lot, can't you see it

Behind a one-sided glass, I'm screaming

Arsonist you razed my mind

Pyromania, put my heart on fire

3

I will burn in hell until whenever

Obsessions, I wonder if I am insane

I need emotional support from you

Because of you, and that is my contradiction

If my heart gives upon you

My hands will pull it out of my chest

If my hands are broken from falling

I'll use my mouth, biting it out instead

tuesday

4

You'll never know, I won't let go

Did that once until I lost my soul

Take a break from what I can not control

I can not play god for this long

Love someone else, I can't compete

When I cross your mind

Kiss him until you forget me

Love is the most beautiful way to waste your life

wednesday

5

In your smile I will die

thursday

6

friday

7 I totally lost you

I can't recognize you

Nor myself anymore

It's all over in my head

I wanted to talk to you

"when" you said

I said before the party?

Euro vision you said

8 I asked "before that?"

You said you'd do homework

Was I not worth more than a piece of paper

I didn't even want to talk anymore

The hell in my mind

I wanted you to see for a moment

I was so selfish

Icarus

111

When she is ghosting

I sing my prayers for the dead and move on

You were right Daedalus

Foolish Icarus flew too high

Believing in a dream called love

tuesday

11

Even when my love wasn't enough

Do you think my words would still matter, Daedalus?

How can a reckless heart find a house

I belong to nowhere in existence

Death's violin only has one string

Let the golden moment be my last one

It's all a part of a novel that I won't know

A tragic ending succumbs to my spirit

wednesday

12

When the right person comes, I'll not leave it

But it wasn't meant to be, we all knew it

You were right, Daedalus

Icarus flew too close to the sun

Giddiness overcame my beliefs

I couldn't quench my feelings

It came without a warning

Until I fell down from heavens, collapsing

thursday

13

You were right, Daedalus

There is no meaning in flapping my wings

Sometimes you should accept the unfortunate endings

I'm getting closer to the ground each second

Will the fall stop if I close my eyes... Despair...

14

Everyone started talking

You two are meant to be nothing

Only you would get hurt in the end

You two are two different people

Only words that came from me

"What to you?"

"What do you know..."

saturday "... about my feelings?"

15

Shut up and watch

Hate will never win

Against everything

I will fight

She has a special place

Unlike your temporary ones

Against all odds

sunday Against everyone

16

I'll resist

I'll hold your hand

And smile while sleeping

Hold you for hours

And swim in an everlasting peace

OCTOBER

monday It was a monday near the fountain

17 We talked that I felt scared after what happened

I told you I got hurt when I saw you with someone

You told me that it didn't happen

I trusted in what you said

Your words I took as a fact

I would not look back

I was bonded into your trust tuesday We talked again about that night

18 You asked me "did you want to kiss me anytime?"

I said "no", I thought being honest was the best

I hope I won't regret all that

I went to Turkey

My two best friends by me

Plans to conquer the world wednesday Our backs to each other

19 We'll always watch one another

Three people who are meant for each other

We'll never go back right?

Not right,

One of us left the others

He said he felt uncomfortable thursday We are friends, we understand

20 No matter what he does

We'll be supporting his back

After all

We are best friends

friday

 Painfully in love pt.1 /12

I made up my mind Realized how selfish I was

I always thought love was to be loved
But with you I simply realized it was not Maybe the ideal hyperreal love is not true

saturday

22

Overloving someone is the worst I can do

But with you I realized I want to fight everyone through Break my heart in case of emergency Ring the sirens and you'll be there forever

I saved you a spot already Deep down where no one can touch it

When you asked me what I wanted from you
I had no clue at the time

sunday

23

I looked empty to your eyes

I told you before, I haven't felt anything for a while But now, I know what I desire

I want to be the one you share your sadness together
The one you call to fight whatever is bugging you Be the one you tell when something happy happens whenever Talk about how good today is the weather monday I don't care anymore if you don't love me back

24 I know what I feel, hoping you won't lack

Salsa is danced moving forwards and back

Little steps each time to ensure both is safe

Even chess takes turns to play together

Sacrifices had to be made to win against all other

Show me some passion, I'll be yours forever

Speak your mind, let's end all this suffer tuesday Hold my hand, show me the way we shall take 25 I promise, I'll follow even if we fall into the abyss

Maybe you don't understand, or maybe you do

But the way you make me feel special is true

Finally I feel something for someone

So I'll hang tight and continue to fight wherever

I'm sorry I can't trust easily

I had issues with even god before wednesday Whenever anything happy happens

26 Generally sadness is what follows

I'm sorry if I act obsessive

I tried letting go and lost my love before

Only thing that remained in me was grief

Until I realized hatred drove me around cold cities

I'm lost in a neverending forest in the shameless dark

Do I smell something bitter?

thursday

27

A small ray of sizzling light from far behind
Is it hope or a fire I'll burn in forever

friday

28

Heartbreaks and a neverending unrest
 Keep my mind out of sadness yet my heart drowns in it Am I always dramatizing the world too much Do you love me? Do you? Tell me?
 Let the questions running in my head reach an end
 Take my breath

I cannot do it myself

Scraps
/13

Scraps for jackals, Rotten, crushed livers

Untrustworthy, set ablaze the non-believers

Dead roses with plucked leaves

Does she love, she doesn't feel

Heartless; I resist falling

saturday

5

Wish you the best with scavenging

Backstabbers, let the rope go

Fucking cowards, delusional

Remaining scents, reminiscent of the past

Pearls on pearls, collapsing worlds

So close yet so distant

End of a war, no more dying soldiers

Who will pay the debt, heartstealer

sunday

6

Forseen what's coming yet decided trusting

Foolish commitments, no more solutions

Under the grave with love sentences

Tiredness, my muscles cramp by existence

I may forgive, maybe thousands

But trust, its gone forever

Memories I can't throw, they'll stay together

People, they don't, believe me, leave it

Locked Horns

/14

Everything is back to its original state

Lost the friendship I made

Lost the love I grew carefully

Over one night, let us stand

You are so fucking stupid

tuesday

8

Here is the reason why only you got punished

You was the one I loved

You was the one I cried

You was the one I missed

You was the one I cried after

You was the one I smiled when I looked in your eyes

You was the one I had a photo behind my phone

You was the one I hated when I saw with someone

wednesday

9

Now that it doesn't matter but

I wish you the best with the next one

Do you want to be pitied?

Go across your house and you'll find

What is the difference between reality and fakeness in if no one understands, right?

You can not stab the hole in my heart

You can try a thousand more times

thursday

10

The void you tried to swim in

The vast space every scar has left me

There isn't even oxygen to breathe in

You can not hurt me

friday

11

Everyone talks about justice
 How is it not fair what I'm doing
 But where is the equity I deserve?
 I did not chose any of this Yet suffer the twisted turns Heard you wanted to speak Say whatever you want Put any curse that you wish

saturday

12

It will come from one ear and leave without ever touching You're dead to me
 The trust I had is gone
 Now I can look at your face and lie anytime
 Maybe all that I speak will be untruthful Now we can kiss whenever you want

sunday

13

Your lips won't carry the same meaning as that night
 I did not kiss you to ensure it was love but not lust
 If it was lust, I would have broken your nonexistent heart
 I guess you don't care tho, do whatever you want
 I actually got you an evil eye bead
 While you were fucking from my behind
 Its to get rid of envy, lust and grief of others I guess you never needed one monday I'm running crazy

21 I blocked you to escape

Yet I felt maybe

For the memories you gave me

Speaking wouldn't be bad

It was all over in my head

I planned just to listen and go back

Yet it caused more confusion tuesday I couldn't even make words

22 None were invented that could explain

I had so much pain by you

Yet ended in your arms

Pushed my face to your shoulders

So I wouldn't cry

I couldn't hold myself

I'm drowning in my own mind

wednesday

She's too shallow

She's too cold

She's too hot

She kills with love

thursday

24 But it hurts less than my heart

friday

25

26

I thought you were coloring my world, I didn't realize only colors you had was black and white

In the shadows we carry who we are, a shy man can stand strong; an evil man can look innocent; and when two shadows collide they might dance or they might fight; whichever it is, they only last until the night and lights go out

sunday

27

I fucked up today
I became the monster I hated

I did the same thing as you did

There is no running

I won't say alcohol or this and that I am the one who fucked up monday I kissed another person

28 Hoping it would fill the void

By your stabbing

Nothing worked as expected

I fell and fell even more

Wishing death to speak

So I would be quiet

Way too much suffering

tuesday

29 Did I love you?

Or the idea of love

Am I romanticizing?

Or is this what I want

I came to explain my mistake

Believing truth was the best policy wednesday You listened carefully

30 But looked like you didn't care

It broke me even more

Because I would have suffered

Did you not care about the kiss

Or did you not care about me?

1

friday

Why did you kiss me right after?

2

The venom was injected by the lips

I wish it would never end

But also wished it would have never happened

Did it carry any meaning

I didn't want to ask anymore

But what were you aiming

I can not stand this.

3

I love you

How could I know

That I breathe you in every breathe

I understood when the wind blew

How I lost time I should forget

We hugged for the last time, it's over

If I were to rewind time

If I knew...

I wouldn't have kissed

I'm in love with the venom of the viper, kiss of the devil
They will call me crazy, they all will hate me for it
But I decided only important person is in my heart
I'll listen and continue to fight for my love

Everyone told me that in the end, I'll end up destroyed

tuesday

6

But this time I'll not give up, I know love is suffice

Hold my hand and together we'll not give up

Put your other hand on my heart, lets stand like this forever

In the small time we exist, lets create memories together

Can we go through this war, how much blood will spill, do you consider?

I tried holding myself from you, I can not tame my heart

Believe me, take my word, we can go through the pain

You and me, we will survive, this time let me guide the way

Do you tell everyone that they are also important?

Heartbreaks replace heartbeats

Pursuing answers inside a hell

Why are you not clear with your emotions?

Say what you want, and let's get done with it

My heart is still in love, but my mind is too tired

Ghost conversations, never stop talking

Why don't you understand the pain I'm having?

For only one day we would switch

So you recognize how I am feeling

The pain and the hope you are giving...

Hopelessly devoted...

If I knew you would become the center of my world

If I knew only for me you wouldn't be empathetic

If I knew how two people couldn't understand each other this much

I actually thought about something so special

thursday

29

I dreamt of a flourishing future that lied ahead

Crazy how everything turned so subtle

And everything is fading back to black

friday

30

I wouldn't have kissed;

If I knew you would become every breathe I take

If I knew I would be caught in such a spell

If I knew I would feel so much pain that I couldn't cry

I wouldn't have kissed;

If I knew I would carry a burden forever

If I knew you have never listened to my soul for once

If I knew you could lie while looking into my eyes

saturday

31

I wouldn't have ...

I can not lie...

I would have ...

NOTES

At this point I closed my feelings
I'll live inside, whatever is happening
The doors are shut without reopening
I no more want anything
I still care for you for you, I would do anything
But my dreams are dead
If you are fast enough you can see the coffin closing
I fucking hate everything when you are being hurt
And I was the one who is hurting you
I learned to stay away from you So you can be happy without me existing

To love is to be selfless

Berke,

If you love her, love

If you don't, leave

But don't hurt yourself

Nor her

Either care for her forever

Or stop wasting your time

This obsession is killing me Softly but surely Every face I looked into
I search for features of you
As I told you before
I love you and will do
You asked me, if I would forget you
I said probably, logically thinking
Now I came to realize
If I had alzheimers
Your smell will be the last thing I'd be forgetting Even if it's the last thing remaining
I don't believe we will meet again Maybe if there is an afterlife we will Another fallen angel I saw
At least I know I am not alone suffering

Always know you are not alone
Through this whole journey I understood Whatever the fuck you do
In my heart you'll be sitting

I wish you all the happiness in the world
Even the feelings I couldn't give I'll tell the stars about you Look into the reflections in lakes to see you

Nothing can no longer happen between us...

How hard was it to say it's over
While this love still engraves my heart
Not kissing your lips
And accept it as such
I realized, on giving each other up
We both are really bad
A grain of dust is always enough
To let us run and hug back
We have never been able...
... to love or to leave

I loved you so much to learn to let go of it Even the idea of hurting you scares me so much
Your face that stuns flowers when you smile
Your scent has permeated my mind
Tell me do you really believe That this heart can forget about you?
You are the lie I believe in the most
A fire burning in blind consciences
My heart is the place you shine the brightest

I could never give up on you
It started to rain again
Come, should we get wet together?
Dance with the rhythm of the sky?
Not think about what will happen,

Where will that last train take you?
Which road would put an end to us?
It's getting harder every day
Every second without you is being wasted
The end is approaching without stopping

The most beautiful phoenix I've ever seen Please promise me

Don't let your wings get hurt

Hope will be the last thing dying...
As I said a million times...
I love you

- from one fallen angel to another...
