

Private Music Lessons: Reviews

Instructor: Christopher Lewis, Carrollton, GA

Former Student:

"I took piano lessons from several different people growing up and wanted to continue learning, so I started taking lessons with Chris. He is very knowledgeable in music and does a great job explaining things! He takes the time to break everything down in terms that are easy to understand. He is patient with all the questions I ask. If I don't understand something, he will take the time to explain it in further detail. Taking lessons from Chris has challenged me. With all the years I took piano lessons, I didn't learn the reason "why" I did certain things. I couldn't tell you anything about things such as chords. He has really made things more clear and easier to grasp. It has been exciting and a confidence booster for me to learn from Chris! I highly recommend piano lessons with him!" (Kristi, 41 years old. "I love taking voice lessons from Mr. Chris! Honestly, I was nervous at first but within minutes of our first lesson, he put me at ease. I have learned so much since I have been working with him. My voice is getting stronger and the techniques he shows me really help! He is so much fun and super talented. I really look forward to these lessons each week." (Reagan Burns, 14 years old. Voice Lessons)

Former Student:

"I have been doing vocal lessons with Chris for a few months and he truly is awesome! He doesn't just instruct me but encourages and pushes in a positive way. When I leave I feel more empowered and stronger as a vocalist. My voice has changed so much because of the techniques, corrections, and advice. I'm truly blessed to have a knowledgeable and uplifting instructor." (Antoinette, 23 years old. Voice Lessons)

"I met Chris at my church and was interested in learning to play the piano, like he did. My mom asked Chris if he'd be willing to teach me piano, and we started teaching in person, then we had to do [virtual] teaching [be]cause of Covid19. Chris worked with me on ways for me to still be able to be taught piano, even though we were all sheltered in place. We still had fun learning, even though we weren't able to do it in person anymore. I learned a lot quickly, and Chris sent me things by text for me to use to study and learn from! I really like Chris and he is so easy to learn from and easy to get along with! He is a great "people" person!" (Parker, 15 years old. Beginner Piano)

Former Students:

"We met Chris Lewis at the Carrollton Center for the Arts where we enrolled our son [and] daughter in piano and voice lessons. The experience with Chris was extremely positive...They looked forward to their lessons and quite enjoyed them...We feel our kids made good progress, especially in their singing. This is where the lessons mostly focused, per our request. We were quite happy with the results, [and] were sad to leave his teachings as we moved to a different city...we would highly recommend Chris as a voice and piano teacher..." (David Oviedo, father of Adriano and Luciana, 8 & 9 years old. Voice & Piano Lessons)

Current Students:

"I am writing to wholeheartedly recommend Chris Lewis as an exceptional piano and voice instructor. I first became acquainted with Chris Lewis when my daughters, Khilee & Khilah, expressed a keen interest in learning to play the piano. After conducting thorough research to find the most suitable instructor, I was delighted to find Chris Lewis among our community's highly recommended music educators. Throughout Khilee & Khilah Burgin's tenure under Chris Lewis' guidance, I have observed significant progress in their piano skills and musical understanding, and I have had the pleasure of witnessing Chris' teaching abilities firsthand. Chris' teaching style is both patient and encouraging, fostering a positive and enjoyable learning environment for students of all ages. Furthermore, Chris possesses a contagious passion for music, instilling a genuine love for the art in [his] students. If you're looking for a teacher who will not only teach you how to play an instrument and sing but also ignite your love for music, look no further. I truly endorse Chris as a remarkable [teacher] who possesses the qualities necessary to inspire and educate students of all levels." (Danielle Burgin, mother of Khilee and Khilah, 10 year olds. "I have been taking piano lessons from Mr. Christopher Lewis for about a month now. I can truly say Chris has a vast knowledge about music and music theory. He will go at a steady pace making sure you understand everything he is teaching. Every time I leave a lesson I can honestly say I leave knowing so much more than I did coming in! I have been playing for about a year before I started the lessons but since starting taking lessons with Chris, I have improved my knowledge of music theory and have become better at training my ears to hear the notes."
