How to Enter: In 500 words or less, write your response to the following question(s):

Essay: During the Great Migration many African Americans transitioned from the rural south to the northern cities. One location was Harlem, New York where African Americans began to make a major impact on the overall American culture in the form of art, music, literature, fashion and social conciseness. This time period (1918-1937) is known today as the "Harlem Renaissance." Discuss one African American artist, musician, poet, actor/actress or writer who became popular during the Harlem Renaissance. What contributions did they make? Why were they significant? Are they still relevant today? Identify one African American from today's artist, musician, poet, actor/actress or writer and compare their two contributions.
