Yea nice Agency to work with, they always check that we are working in good working condition and always make sure that we do exactly what the client ask on the job description so we are not exploited, they always check if we have updated our qualification so they could place you where you get help and gain skill, if you work here you will no the true quality of been respected while working for someone else, hard to see,, 👍👍👍👍

A very good agency that I would recommend at any time. Jack will go above and beyond to sort any issues out there is and he always does a follow up. rates are good and he assigns you to decent cites and good projects. Best agency I've worked with so far.

Good agency. Didn't had to do with many agencies before,but this is the only serious one. Got me and my mate on a good long term job, not the odd " yeah mate, 4 months of work at least ",which is actually 2 weeks tops. Payments always on time. Jack is the man you want to talk with. Overall I would definitely recommend.

I was looking to add more work to my existing clients and Jack found me a local company to which I could offer my services very quickly. This boosted my workload massively with great rates of pay.

It has nearly been a year with consistent work coming in from Jack at Uk labour supply.
