

This vignette style play by Lindsay Price details the experiences of students living through a Pandemic. This short zoom production includes creative one person monologues as well as 2, 3 and 4 person scenes creating believable characters and tells the relatable story we all can connect to as we each discover how to best survive in quarantine.

1. Fill out and submit the audition application by Feb. 5. Click here for audition application
2. Sign up for an audition time slot by Feb.5. Click here to schedule a time slot
3. We will email you a portion of the script.
Choose 1 monologue to present in the auditions.
Be prepared to do a cold reading time permitting.
4. Feb. 6, log in to zoom, Audition Zoom Link, for your audition time slot. Then present your monologue and read from script time permitting.