Father Tim's Meditation

What makes you feel like it's December? For a long time, it wasn't December for me without crisp, cold weather. It never snowed too much in New Jersey, but the cold weather always put me in the mood for the holidays. Later, the dark evenings made me feel like Christmas was coming. Now that I have children, Advent is about turning on the Christmas lights in the evening, reading from Advent calendar books, and the decorations that speckle the house. When I see or hear or do these things, I know that the holiday season has arrived.

What is it for you? What is it for your family? What things make your spouse or children or grandchildren or friends feel like it's time for the holidays even if you don't share them? Dig into these things this season. Allow them to flow over you and work their way into your heart. Live them and breathe them, both before and after the great feast that is Christmas and also on Christmas morning and Christmas evening, when all is goodness and light.

Are you attending Christ Church with a child? We have a nursery and church school at the 10:15 service, though all children are welcome to attend church with you. If the nursery is not staffed, it is still available for parents to stay with their child(ren), and we try to make sure we let parishioners know in advance of planned closures.

Letter from Presiding Bishop Sean Rowe concerning the US Election

Originally Published November 6th, 2024

Dear People of God in The Episcopal Church,

Early this morning, we learned that President Trump has been elected to another term as president of the United States. I pray that he will govern wisely and justly.

Regardless of our political allegiances, we must remember that God has called us in The Episcopal Church to seek and serve Christ in all persons. No matter the party in power, we are one church, and we will continue to fulfill our baptismal covenant by proclaiming in word and example the Good News of God in Christ, striving for justice and peace among all people, and protecting the dignity of every human being.

We commit to working with the new administration to advance policies that follow the teachings of Jesus by supporting the most vulnerable among us. Through Episcopal Migration Ministries, we abide by God's command to welcome the stranger, and since 1988, we have resettled more than 100,000 refugees through a bipartisan program with a strong record of success. We urge President Trump and members of Congress to exercise compassion toward the immigrants, asylum seekers, and refugees we serve and to know that, at every turn, we will stand for the dignity and human rights of all of God's people.

We are Christians who support the dignity, safety, and equality of women and LGBTQ+ people as an expression of our faith. I pray that President Trump and his administration will do the same.

In the coming months, I ask us all to be agents of peace and reconciliation in our communities, both in person and online. As people of faith, we can work and pray for peace and unity among God's people whether we are joyful, hurting, or afraid. Especially now, when we know of efforts by domestic terrorists and foreign adversaries to undermine our trust in institutions and in one another, we can combat the misinformation and fear by which the Enemy seeks to divide us from one another.

I give thanks for all the ministries in dioceses and congregations across the church that are tangible expressions of our belief in a God of compassion and mercy. In every season, this is the work that God has set before us.

Vestry Voice

A few weeks ago, I faced a minor personal dilemma. I'm chair of the Outreach Committee; the committee meeting was scheduled for the same evening as my grandniece's volleyball game. Normally this would be "no big deal"—a "no brainer"—only a minor schedule conflict. Yet the Outreach Committee meets only every 3 months; I had missed the last one. The Committee has a lot going on lately. But my grandniece is a Senior in High School...I promised to go to all her home games...this game celebrated "Senior Night"—a big deal for Seniors.

Well, my Catholic guilt took hold of me—which to do? I stewed for a few days, trying to discern, feeling guilty all the while. Until I realized that God doesn't care about the guilt; God wants us to show love. Is there anything more loving than showing up for family? So, I approached the past chair and another committee member. What a supportive, loving response I received from them! I went to the game—experienced my grandniece not only with the biggest smile I've ever seen on her AND her playing an amazing game! And the Outreach Committee... well they had a vibrant, productive meeting. They even took a happy photo collecting more than 70 winter coats, jackets, hats, scarves and mittens donated by you, our Christ Church family—showing love towards the homeless served by The Samaritan Center.

Thank you!

Dear Christ Church Family:

In this season of thanks and gift giving, we invite you to join us in contributing to the Christmas Purse fund so that, in a small but hopefully meaningful way, we can show our love, respect, and appreciation for time and talents that Father Tim, Deirdre, Helene, Shawn, Debbie, Peter, and Claudia give to us year-round to make our Parish the caring, open, and vibrant community it is.

It is a long-standing tradition that we honor our staff at the Christmas Pageant Service on Christmas Eve with a gift to each staff member. If you would like to contribute to the Christmas gift, please either place your contribution in the offering plate or mail your contribution to the parish office by Sunday, December 22. Please mark your contribution as “Christmas Purse” to ensure proper bookkeeping.

A donation of any amount will be truly appreciated and help us to show our gratitude for all of the faithful work of our staff throughout the year.

We hope you have a joyful and spiritual Advent and Christmas.

Faithfully and with thanks,

Your Parish Wardens
Stu Eddy
Candy Willhite

CHRISTMAS MART 2024

To all the people who contributed to the 2024 Christmas and Art Mart. For all of you who cleaned, moved furniture, attended meetings (in person and virtual), went door to door asking for donations, cooked, designed, organized, stood for long periods of time with a smile, greeted our patrons, created artwork, baked, decorated, wrapped, cajoled, labeled, performed, made ornaments, prayed, prepared and served wassail, collected and counted money, sold tickets, donated time, treasure and talent, and did more than we could ever know: THANK YOU!

Community of Hope International at Christ Church Donates Books

For just about a year now, the Community of Hope International (COHI) group at Christ Church has been learning about ways both to deepen our connection with God through one another and to find ways to help the parish pastorally. One way we're doing this is by donating books to our church library. These books are for you to read and learn about how you can help others and how you can cultivate a sense of God's presence in your heart (and therefore being a spiritually healthy presence yourself!). These books were purchased with a grant from the diocese.

Christ Church's Children (and Teachers!) Have Been Busy!

Helene Hannon

It's been a wonderful Autumn and here we are in Advent already! Time really flies when you're busy having fun. Here are some of the things we've been up to since September:

- Since Sunday School began, we have had to rearrange classrooms twice, due to overflowing numbers. That's awesome!
- Families have joined us for meal-centered gatherings such as the weekly Wednesday lunches and First Friday Dinners.
- Our kids are engaged in a range of music during Sunday School, Joy Bell Chimes, Cherub Choir, and the Christmas Pageant.
- Each week, we have worked on crafts, played games, and done other hands-on activities. Our older classes have added journaling to their Sunday School routine.
- Fr. Tim visited the classroom to give the 3rd-7th graders an interactive lesson on Baptism to prepare them for the following week, when three babies were Baptized into our community!

Let's all thank our teachers for the love they share with our children! Thank you: Aimee, Alyssa, Carol, Deb, Heidi, Nancy, Oxana, and Sandy! Your joyful enthusiasm and caring guidance is what makes our program so successful.

Samaritan Center Visit Saturday, January 18th

Believe it or not, the time is rapidly approaching for our next visit to the Samaritan Center. We will be serving dinner and cleaning up as usual on the above date. The arrival time will be 12:30 pm and we should wrap up at around 3:00 pm. The numbers of people served has increased lately and we will need around 15 people to volunteer. Veterans and "newbies" are welcome, as are adults and youth 14 and older. Those younger than 16 should be accompanied by an adult.

Be prepared for a hungry and appreciative group of guests of around 200 (or more). Anyone interested can let me know either via email at winklerpb@windstream.net, by phone at 315-380-5382 or personally at church. I'm looking forward to hearing from you and working in January!

Incense and Crayons - Father Tim's blog

Did you know that Father Tim has a blog? For the past few months, he has been posting meditations on the life of a priest, a parent, and an author. The posts are a bit more personal than his other writings online and for the parish. You can find his meditations online at:

<https://incenseandcrayons.com/>

Coffee and Theology

The Christ Church "Coffee and Theology" group meets twice a month at Spill the Tea in Minoa to talk about a wide range of theological topics, from St. Peter's words for love to what kind of body Jesus may have had after the Resurrection. Conversations are open and respectful to all views and questions that might arise. Everyone is welcome to come and talk or just grab a cup of coffee and listen.

We meet from 2:00 to 3:00 p.m. on the 2nd and 4th Wednesdays of each month (exceptions are the fourth Wednesdays of December, and April). Our topics can be found on our blog.

Meals on Wheels of Eastern Onondaga County is in need of volunteers to help prepare or deliver meals. Based at Good

Shepherd Lutheran Church on Highbridge Road in Fayetteville, their ministry not only provides nutritious meals, it also provides a wellness check and a bit of chit chat between appreciative clients and the volunteer drivers. For more information, please visit

Afternoon Book Group

This year I have coordinated our list with the Manlius Library so that people don't have to buy books. The library will have our book for the month on reserve at the circulation desk. About a month before our discussion date you can go to the desk, ask for the Christ Church book group selection, and check it out with your library card. Our book for September, All the Broken Places, for example, will be available around mid-August.

We will continue to meet on the third Wednesday of each month at 3:30 in the parlor. The only exception is our November/December meeting. Since the parlor will be set up for Christmas Mart on the third Wednesday and because we all get so busy during the holidays, we will have a combined November/December meeting on December 4. Our book for that month, A Hand Outstretched, is a novel by our own Christ Church parishioner, Kirsten Panachyda. That book will not be available through the library. At our September meeting I will let you know how you can obtain a copy.

Anyone is welcome to join our group. Please pass this information along if you know of someone who might be interested. Happy Reading!

December 4	A Hand Outstretched by Kristen Panachyda
January 15	Lady Tan's Circle of Women by Lisa See
February 19	Gather by Kenneth Cadow
March 19	The Vanishing Half by Brit Bennett
April 16	Our Missing Hearts by Celeste Ng
May 21	North Woods by Daniel Mason

St. Margaret's Craft Guild

The St. Margaret's Craft Guild meets on the first, third, and occasionally the fifth Tuesday of the month from 1:30-4:00 in the community room. Attendees bring a handheld craft of some sort, and work and chat during that afternoon. (Not sure what to bring? Previous crafts have included knitting, crochet, hand sewing, diamond painting, journaling, and cross stitch.) Anyone is welcome to attend, but we recommend you check in with the office to make sure it's happening—it's a small group of regulars, so if only one person can attend it may be cancelled. We'd love to have you join us!

Do you collect your bottles and cans for recycling? Why not "donate" them to Christ Church! Bring them down to Manlius Bottle & Cans, located at 202 W Seneca Street (up the street from the Manlius Tops).

To drop off bottle redemptions through the Christ Church fundraising account you simply bring your cans in. They must be in a disposable plastic bag that is closed - such as a trash bag that is tied securely. At the counter there is a table with blank labels and a marker - write "Christ Church Manlius" on the label (one label per bag) and leave the bag in the charity area on the opposite wall.
