Father Tim's Meditation

Ahh, November! The month of autumn leaves, Thanksgiving, Father Tim's birthday, and…elections! Not many of us get as excited about politics as we do about mashed potatoes and football games, but there's nothing like elections to get our blood pressure high! Especially these days, it can seem that a lot is riding on these midterm elections, and in a way that's true. A lot is at stake. A lot is on the line. But we also have a lot that we can do.

The responsibility of anyone living in a democracy is to go out and vote. Vote early if you can, but make sure to cast a ballot. Learn about the candidates, too. Choose wisely and in an informed way. That is your duty as an American.

The responsibility of a Christian, however, is to pray. As Christians, we can certainly pray for a particular candidate to win. I know that I look at the news and sometimes pray, "Oh Lord, please let X happen and let person Y win this election!" God hears those prayers, because, so often, they come from the heart. And while they may not be answered, God is still with you as you pray them and as you move forward into the future.

One thing to remember, however, is that God is in control. Whatever happens, whether this person or that person is elected, whether people are angry or sad or super happy, God remains in control. But we may ask: how can God be in control if X happens? Well, God has given us some amount of control over our destinies. We call this "free will." We are free to choose God but to also make mistakes. That said, God can bring good out of any situation, and God is present in even the worst circumstances. We will never be left alone. Justice may have to wait until the next world, but we don't have to wait, on our own, here in this life. We can pray for God's presence, and we can be that presence in one another's lives. And so please join me as I pray:

Lord, you are my guide, my hope, my life. Fix my heart and my soul on you, the morning star rising in my heart of darkness. Be with this country as we vote. May the elections be fair, tabulated with integrity, and accepted by the country, whatever the result. May those elected lead as servants of peace, justice, and especially care for those most at need. In your Name, Lord, we pray. Amen.

Some thanks and a prayer "for today"

Thank you to our preachers this month: Linda Albanese and Sandy Hesler. From all of us here at Christ Church, thank you for sharing your thoughts, considerations, and experiences of God with us. Thank you also for your work in our community. You both are wonderful parts of what makes Christ Church so wonderful.

Linda ended her sermon with a prayer from the little book of meditations Forward Day by Day. This small but powerful series has meditations on a verse of scripture for each day of the month, and are written by a new author each month. If you've never read Forward Day by Day, pick up a copy in the narthex just as you come in or in the atrium outside of Crosby Hall. If you can't find one, ask Deirdre or Father Tim.

The prayer Linda read is at the end of each volume. Here it is:

O God: Give me strength to live another day; let me not turn coward before its difficulties or prove recreant to its duties; let me not lose faith in other people; keep me sweet and sound of heart, in spite of ingratitude, treachery, or meanness; preserve me from minding little stings or giving them; help me to keep my heart clean, and to live so honestly and fearlessly that no outward failure can dishearten me or take away the joy of conscious integrity; open wide the eyes of my soul that I may see good in all things; grant me this day some new vision of thy truth; inspire me with the spirit of joy and gladness; and make me the cup of strength to suffering souls; in the name of the strong Deliverer, our only Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Vestry Voice

Initially I was reluctant to join the Christ Church Vestry. I wasn't sure exactly what the role entailed, it was a time commitment, and I didn't know all of the people on the Vestry. But over time I learned the role, discovered it's not a huge time commitment, and got to know the other Vestry members. I've found this to be true about many other opportunities at Christ Church. Whether ushering, serving as a counter, volunteering at the Fish Fry or Christmas Mart, I hesitated a bit when someone approached me about getting involved in each of these ministries. In every case, however, I am glad I finally said yes.

A similar thing happens in other areas of my life. I love walking at Green Lakes State Park, especially in the Fall. It's cooler, the leaves are changing colors and it's less crowded. But at times I procrastinate and have to force myself out for a walk. Then when I get to Green Lakes and experience the serenity and beauty of the place, I wonder why I procrastinated. Similarly, I'm not always thrilled about managing my mother-in-law's medications. It is a tedious weekly chore and at times I grumble about having to do it. But then when I am there visiting with her in her apartment, I am reminded of how much support she needs these days and my grumbling fades into gratitude that there is this regular opportunity to check on her.

I find that if I say yes when I'm asked to help out, stick to some simple routines, and show up for people who rely on me, I feel more connected and at peace. I feel like perhaps I am living more according to God's will when I do these things. It is often that simple, even though sometimes it is not easy.

74th CHRISTMAS MART
SATURDAY NOVEMBER 21, 2026 9AM-3PM

First off, thank you ALL for the support and generosity you have given over the years. There would be no Mart without the assistance we receive from so many parishioners in so many ways. It is a longstanding tradition and one of the major fundraisers for the church. Proceeds help our church financially, contributing to our general operating budget. In keeping with our commitment to community outreach, 10% of our profits will be donated to local community organizations. This year's recipients will be the FM Food Pantry and the Samaritan Center. If you are interested in helping out, here are some ways you can bring the Mart to fruition. Please see if any of these suggestions sound interesting to you:

- Contribute an item to the Christmas Mart silent auction (Eileen Emerson.).
  - Do you have a skill or talent that others might enjoy and value? Musicians, crafters, those you are gifted in cleaning or organizing. How might your gifts benefit others?
  - Do you have a vacation home that could be auctioned off for a night, weekend, or week?
  - Tickets to local events: sports, museums, symphony, indoor parks, etc.
- Donate items for the gift basket raffle. (Kathy Byrum. and Lori Gibson). Please drop off in the parlor on Sundays during church hours. There will be an additional time during the week of November 9th.
  - Baskets! We can always use some nice, large baskets.
  - Fancy wine, craft beer, chocolates, gourmet food, baking supplies, specialty coffees, teas and cocoa, seasonal mugs, and candles.
  - Items for a spa basket such as scented soaps, lotions, loofa, etc. or items for a basket designed for pets
  - Puzzles, art kits, trivia and card games.
  - Beautiful ornaments and decorations.
  - Children's baskets are popular and could include books, crafts, toys or games. A Bluey and Friends basket? Pokemon? Gnomes?
  - Please remember to keep donations seasonally appropriate.
- Contribute to the bake sale. (Jean Regan, Lori Gibson)
  - Think Thanksgiving pies! Apple, pear, pecan, yum!
  - Cookies, brownies, cakepops, muffins, bread, etc.○ Please nothing that needs refrigeration (including icing)
- Create boxwood trees. (Linda Albanese, Kathy Stoeckel)
  - We will provide materials and assembling guidance
  - Check out the signup sheets for meeting times.
- Be a Mart sponsor.

- Make your check out to Christ Church with "Christmas Mart Sponsor" in the memo section. Checks can be either placed in the collection plate or mailed/dropped off at the church office.

- Help us with set up/clean up. Just an hour or two helps.
- Help us during the Mart, 9AM-3PM
  - We need cashiers, greeters, and people to hand out programs and provide assistance to our guests.

Please bring in any donations by November 15th. We need all names of donors and artists/crafters by that date to ensure their names will be in the Mart brochure. Signups are posted in Crosby Hall and will be available online as well. Thank you for helping to make this year's Mart a success.
Questions? Speak with Rob Hughes or Nancy Winiecki or any of the subgroup chairs.

What are you listening to?

This is a fun way to learn more about the other people who are part of our Christ Church family. This month we asked the employees, and it may become a regular feature. If you'd like to share what you're listening to, please contact Deirdre or Father Tim.

John: Elvis Presley – Gospel; Johnny Cash/Willie Nelson – Storyteller Album; Paul McCartney – Chaos and Creation in The Backyard; Stan Rogers – Northwest Passage; Lovin' Spoonful – Summer in the City
Father Tim: Peacock by DJ Okawari
Helene: The Enduring Story by Brian Dunning and Jeff Johnson
Shawn: Billy Joel's An Innocent Man is an all-time favorite
Deirdre: Rites of Passage by the Indigo Girls

Are you attending Christ Church with a child? We have a nursery available during our Sunday services for children 3 and under. If the nursery is not staffed, it is still available for parents to stay with their child(ren), and we try to make sure we let parishioners know in advance of planned closures.

November First Friday Dinner

In November, we give thanks for our parish family and friends! Join us for our November First Friday dinner, where we'll enjoy the company of friends on Friday, November 6 with appetizers at 6 PM and dinner at 6:30. You need to sign up in advance, so contact Rene and Ron Hebert by November 4th to let us know who will attend and if you have any allergies (I sometimes am able to adjust recipes). Cost is $10.00 per adult, with a family price of $25.00. If paying by check, please make payable to Irene Hebert.

MENU
Guacamole with tortilla chips • Vogue "Ultimate Meat Loaf" • Mashed potatoes • Herbed asparagus • Apple sauce • Peach slab pie

Bring your own plates, silverware and beverage of choice! They are the only things not included. Also, if you are available to help cook, let us know and we'll start about 4 PM. Clean up helpers are also needed at the end of the meal as the cooks tend to be exhausted.

Treasurer's Corner

Paid pledges year-to-date are $185,842 as of Sunday October 11. The total pledge for the full year 2026 is $222,851. The church has also received $8,125 in non-pledge income to date. Thank you for keeping your pledges current.

You may have noticed that, recently, the Stained-Glass windows in Christ Church have been cleaned and some minor repairs made to the sills. Brennan Stained Glass Co, the people who fully restored the stained-glass windows 12 years ago, completed this periodic work. The cost was $7,750 which was paid fully by the earnings of the stained-glass endowment fund. That fund was set up and specifically designated for the ongoing maintenance of the windows. Your generous donations, and a matching gift from an anonymous donor established that fund. As a result, we have the ability to continue maintaining the beautiful windows without drawing on our operating budget.

Please remember that in the month of October we hold the Stewardship campaign. Pledge cards are due on Ingathering Sunday, October 25. Your prayerful responses will allow the finance committee to recommend the 2027 budget, and the Vestry to discuss and vote on the budget in a timely manner. Your gifts allow us to continue our faith community, support our parish staff, property, and all of the outreach efforts we undertake.

Fiction Book Group

Once again, Eileen has coordinated our list with the Manlius Library so that people don't have to buy books. The library will have our book for the month on reserve at the circulation desk. About a month before our discussion date you can go to the desk, ask for the Christ Church book group selection, and check it out with your library card.

Anyone is welcome to join our group. We meet in the parlor from 3:30-5 p.m. on the dates below. Please pass this information along if you know of someone who might be interested. Happy Reading!

December 2	My Friends by Fredrik Backman
January 20	The Nightingale by Kristin Hannah
February 17	The Lion Women of Tehran by Marjan Kamali
March 17	Atmosphere by Taylor Jenkins Reid
April 21	The Midnight Library by Matt Haig
May 19	Braiding Sweetgrass by Robin Wall Kimmerer

Coffee Hour

Our program year is well underway, and coffee hour remains an important ministry for Christ Church, and offers all of us the opportunity to welcome newcomers, and catch up with friends.

We do still have a large number of slots remaining after the New Year, particularly for the 8:00 service. These openings can be viewed at our SignUp Genius link below. Instructions for the sign-up are right on the page, but if you have any questions or would like help signing up, please contact the office.

Coffee and Theology

The Christ Church "Coffee and Theology" group meets twice a month at Spill the Tea in Minoa to talk about a wide range of theological topics, from St. Peter's words for love to what kind of body Jesus may have had after the Resurrection. Conversations are open and respectful to all views and questions that might arise. Everyone is welcome to come and talk or just grab a cup of coffee and listen.

We meet from 1:00 to 2:00 p.m. on the 2nd and 4th Wednesdays of each month (due to holidays in November, we will meet on November 18). Our topics can be found on our blog. https://christchurchmanlius.org/blog%2Fpodcast%2Fnewsletter/f/coffee-and-theology-2025-edition

St. Margaret's Craft Guild

The St. Margaret's Craft Guild meets on the first, third, and occasionally the fifth Tuesday of the month from 1:30-4:00 in the community room. Attendees bring a handheld craft of some sort, and work and chat during that afternoon. (Not sure what to bring? Previous crafts have included knitting, crochet, hand sewing, diamond painting, journaling, and cross stitch.) Anyone is welcome to attend, but we recommend you check in with the office to make sure it's happening—it's a small group of regulars, so if only one person can attend it may be cancelled. We'd love to have you join us!

Do you collect your bottles and cans for recycling? Why not "donate" them to Christ Church! Bring them down to Manlius Bottle & Cans, located at 202 W Seneca Street (up the street from the Manlius Tops).

To drop off bottle redemptions though the Christ Church fundraising account you simply bring your cans in. They must be in a disposable plastic bag that is closed - such as a trash bag that is tied securely. At the counter there is a table with blank labels and a marker - write "Christ Church Manlius" on the label (one label per bag) and leave the bag in the charity area on the opposite wall.

Meals on Wheels of Eastern Onondaga County is in need of volunteers to help prepare or deliver meals.
