Father Tim's Meditation

It always amazes me how bright January is. We just came out of the dark month of December, and even though the days are getting longer, they're only just getting longer. And yet the world seems so much brighter after the turn of the new year. Maybe it's the snow on the ground, maybe it's just those few minutes of extra light each day, but there's a new joy to the air and sky in January.

There's also a new joy in our spiritual lives. In Epiphany, we look for the presence of God that pops out of nowhere, be they little moments of joy or God's presence that we've long waited for. We greet them with open hearts, ready to see what new things God has in store for us.

We also look towards Lent, which is usually considered a "dark" time, but which also is a time of renewal. We examine our relationships with God and with our communities, and we pray that God enlightens those relationships in preparation for Easter.

So be ready for some new things this month. Be ready for God's freshness and light. Be ready with open hearts and ready minds to do good work, to be nurtured in God's love, and to give ready hope for good things on the horizon.

Vestry Voice – Biographies of Vestry Candidates

Stu Eddy – Warden

I am a native of Buffalo NY and a graduate of SUNY Brockport. I met my wife Adrienne here in Syracuse and we were married in Christ Church by Reverend Morgan Silbaugh. Adrienne grew up in Manlius and is a graduate of F-M High School and Onondaga Community College. We have an adult son and daughter - Matthew, living in Washington DC and Nikki, living in Buffalo. Both were baptized in Christ Church.

My 45-year career in the insurance industry began in Pittsburgh with Aetna Life and Casualty. I spent my final 20 years with Marshall and Sterling Inc., a multi-state insurance agency specializing in insuring business clients. I retired at the end of 2020.

I currently Chair the Stewardship Committee and am a member of the Finance Committee, where I report to committee members regarding the status of our endowments. I have previously served on the Vestry. I am hopeful these experiences will be useful in enhancing some of the discussions that take place at Vestry meetings.

It is very important to me that Christ Church continues to thrive by offering individuals, families and children the same opportunities to search, learn, heal, and experience the warmth that I and my family have been afforded during our years at Christ Church. I would be proud to serve as one of your two Wardens over the next two years.

Julie Holder

Native North Carolinians, Julie and David Holder fell in love with Upstate New York when they moved to Corning in 1997. They lived in Corning for 8 years and attended, coincidentally, Christ Episcopal Church. After a brief move to Fredericksburg, Virginia, Julie and David returned to Upstate New York and began attending Christ Episcopal Church, Manlius in 2007. Julie was baptized and confirmed at Calvary Lutheran Church in Spencer, NC.

Julie and David have two children, Baden and Evie, who attend Villanova and Saint Joseph's Universities in Philadelphia. Julie is a Teaching Assistant at Moses DeWitt Elementary School. When David is not traveling for work, they enjoy spending time outdoors with their extremely spoiled dog, Louie.

Rob Hughes

My faith has always been an important part of my life. My relationship with God has been one of the few constants through all the joys and sorrows. I was raised Catholic here in Central New York, and started attending Episcopal Church services when I was in college in Rochester. Shortly after graduating from college my wife (Beth) and I were married at St. David's Episcopal Church in Dewitt. Our boys (Graham and Connor) were both baptized at St. David's as well. But when it came time for us to make a more formal commitment to a church community, we chose to join Christ Church. This was more than 25 years ago. Since then, the Christ Church Community has been the cornerstone of my spiritual life and for this I feel blessed.

About 18 months ago Beth and I became grandparents! It has been a joy getting to know our new grandson (Noah) and watching his parents (Connor and Emily) establish their own amazing family. About a year ago I retired after 31 years in education, having worked as a teacher, a building principal and finally as a school superintendent. Sometimes it is still hard to believe that I have entered this new phase of life. I just don't feel like a retired grandfather. One of the advantages of retirement, however, is having time to more deeply explore my faith and time to give back to the Christ Church Community. I am grateful and honored to have the opportunity to serve as a member of the Vestry.

Nancy Winiecki

Hello Christ Church Family! My name is Nancy Winiecki and I have been a member of Christ Church for almost 50 years. When my father's job brought us to Manlius, I joined the vibrant youth group and my parents quickly became involved in all aspects of the church from the social group, Friday Nighters (Any adults who wanted to be included, planned and attended fun-filled gatherings that ranged from progressive dinners to game nights) to teaching church school, chairing committees (Property and the Christmas Mart), serving on the vestry and becoming wardens. They made life-long friends and had some of the best times of their lives. As an adult, I have taught and directed the Church School, co-chaired Rummage Sales in the early 90s, co-chaired the Christmas Mart and have been a lector, chalice bearer, and leader of occasional Morning Prayer Services. My husband Tom and I were married in Christ Church and our daughters were both baptized here as well. Our oldest daughter Emily was married in Christ Church just 2 ½ years ago, which was a wonderful full circle moment! I recently retired from teaching elementary school and I am now in a position to give more of myself again to Christ Church. This is an amazing place and group of people with a vibrant history and a promising future and I am honored to be asked to serve on the vestry.

Adult Forum: the Eucharist and the Sacraments January 7 to February 11

Roman Catholics have seven sacraments; most Protestants recognize two. Episcopalians have...two plus five sacraments. What!? What DO Episcopalians believe about the Sacraments? What do we mean when we say that the Eucharist is a mystery? What have been your experiences of the Sacraments? Is it okay if you really like the taste of the Bread and Wine (that's easy: yes!)? For these questions and more, whether you're a cradle Episcopalian or new to the church, join us between our services at 9:10 in the Community Room for fellowship and discussion!

Book Group: Queer Virtue January 7 to February 11

Many discussions of LGBTQ identity in the Church focus on the Bible: should we accept or deny queer folks a place in the Church. Instead, author and priest Elizabeth Edman asks what the LGBTQ struggle for identity can teach us about our own journeys as people whose core identity is a relationship with God. Join us in the parlor after the 10:15 service (about 11:30) for community and conversation.

On Being Anglican

a column on Anglican identity and tradition by Father Tim

Our annual meeting is on February 4th! Wait, what's an annual meeting!?

Annual meetings are part of the warp and woof of being an Episcopalian, but they may be new to those who haven't spent much time in the Episcopal Church. Basically, they are the time when the church gets together to look at how we live together, celebrate our community, and elect leaders to help manage and guide the church. That's easy to say, but all this is founded on something very important and particular to the Episcopal and Anglican traditions.

The term "Episcopal" points to our polity: we are organized vertically, with bishops making the rules and organizing what we can and shouldn't do liturgically and organizationally. The name, however, missed another important aspect of our polity. We are also organized horizontally and democratically. It is not only bishops or rectors, like myself, who make decisions. You all have a say in how the church runs, too. Power is shared between the clergy and the laity. You are not a simple, passive participant in the life of the church but, instead, an important and essential piece of how we live our lives together.

That's why the annual meeting is a celebration. It's a celebration of who we are together and how we live, the things we've done and the things we hope to do in the future. Your role in the church polity, however, also comes with a responsibility to care for and support the church in whatever way you can, be that through leadership, stewardship, volunteering, raising issues or critiques, or helping to praise and suppose your fellow parishioners. In other words, we're all in this together.

I think this has a direct effect on our spiritual lives. We all give our lives to God and we take up our cross, but God asks us to be participants in the Gospel, not only followers. God asks us to join him in how we live our spiritual lives, not just to have our spiritual lives lived for us. We submit ourselves and are given life and freedom to act in loving communion with one another and with those we serve. Jesus said, "Ask of me whatever you wish." More than an invitation to get what we want, Jesus here is asking us what is in our hearts and souls so that we may, together, work to its fulfillment in our lives and in the world around us.

The annual meeting is just one way that we respond to this reality. At the annual meeting, the leadership of the church will be asking who of you wishes to help lead the congregation, what hopes or dreams we have for the future, and what we can do to better live out our call to serve the poor in Christ's Name. These questions won't be part of a survey of opinions but a call to join together in the spiritual work of the Holy Spirit to make our community holy and effective in our community. I pray that you'll take this invitation and live it during 2024 and in the years to come.

A Habit of Prayer

deepening one's experience of God in prayer, alone or with our family

What are you giving up for Lent? I've never really liked this question. It makes Lent feel like a training regiment or an exercise program. Lent is neither of these things. Like all things that have to do with the Church and Christianity, the primary goal of Lent is to deepen our relationship with God.

So, as we approach Lent (which begins on Ash Wednesday, February 14th), instead of asking yourself, "What am I giving up for Lent?", ask yourself "What is my relationship with God?" Where is that relationship thriving? Where is that relationship stagnating? Where do I feel connected to God at the hip? Where do I feel like God is millions of miles away? Sit down with God and these questions and really ask them - and then really listen to what God points to in your life. That's where you begin your lenten journey.

Many of us spend the entire year trying to figure out how to get closer to God. We want a deeper relationship with the divine, and the problem is that we don't know how to get it. We may pray often, we may have set times that we devote to God, or we may read devotional or theological books that try to guide us deeper into the mystery that is the Trinity. So what makes Lent any different? What more can we do that we haven't already done?

Lent is special because, first, the entire Church is engaging in this effort to examine their lives with God. Lent is further special because it ends with Easter, a time when we are assured that all the new practices we've undertaken have been fulfilled - not through us necessarily but through the grace of Jesus Christ. In part, Lent is so different because we can lean on the Church and on the assurances of Easter so heavily. God breaks into our lives differently during Lent than God does during other times of the year. Rest in the fact that you are not alone.

Also, instead of doing many things, try to take on one, single spiritual practice. Do one thing and do it well. If you want to give up chocolate, then give it up and talk to God about it. If you want to take on praying the rosary or saying Morning Prayer, then do those things and don't worry about doing anything else. Let the grace of these practices flow through you and engage you with the Holy Spirit. But most of all, do one thing and do it well.

Finally, look at our liturgy. Listen to the readings with a heart tuned in to Lent. Come to our Taize services on Sunday nights and sink into the music and the presence of others and of the divine. Receive the Sacrament with the knowledge that Easter is coming. All these things can make for a more holy Lent.

Pastoral Care Committee Update

Over the past several months members of the Pastoral Care committee have been exploring programs that have been designed specifically to prepare individuals to serve as lay chaplains (extensions of the priest in the delivery of pastoral care). After much prayer and discussion the Community of Hope International (COHI) was selected. In late February the first group of lay people from Christ Church will participate in 13, 2 ½ hour training sessions. We are blessed to have Father Tim participate in a co-facilitator role.

The focus of the sessions is two-fold. First, to educate a person in the theology of pastoral care, skills and methods of caring for others, and ways to recognize gifts and needs of others. Second, to form a community of caregivers that can rely on one another for support, reflection, and prayer. Pastors, experienced lay clergy, social workers and other pastoral care givers from the surrounding community will be invited to share their wisdom and experiences related to each session.

A $1,200.00 grant from the Episcopal Diocese of CNY will cover all expenses for the COHI curriculum and related pastoral care resources including books for our church library. There are on-line and in-person opportunities for ongoing continuing education. There is no cost to the participants.

A helpful overview of the COHI can be found at the following link: COHI brochure. If you have any questions or would like more information about the COHI please feel free to speak with Father Tim or with Carol Recker-Hughes (carolreckerhughes@gmail.com). We will keep you informed in the coming months as this program is implemented to complement other ongoing pastoral care activities.

New Coffee Hour Scheduling

Thank you to everyone who has signed up to host Coffee Hour! We've had a wonderful response so far. We do ask that everyone sign up for at least one date and consider signing up for more than one. Coffee hour is an important ministry at Christ Church (it's sometimes called the Eighth Sacrament of the Episcopal Church!), and we ask that everyone who can, continue to help make it possible.

A host is needed for February 11, and openings run through the end of June. Please visit this link to sign up or call the office.

thank you

Every year during the Christmas holidays, I make a weeklong trip to California to visit my son and his family. For the last 10 years or so, when I return, there is an envelope in my church mailbox containing a check which is a gift from many parish members. I continue to be amazed at the generosity displayed by the people who give money to support these gifts to the staff who work all year to keep our parish functioning. I would like to thank everyone who contributed to this effort to show appreciation to me and the rest of the staff. I feel very privileged to be able to continue my job as sexton for Christ Church, and to work with the other members of our outstanding staff. Once again, thank you very much!!

Peter Winkler

Thank you all for your generous Christmas Gift. It is my joy to impart the love of Jesus to your children. I am actually listening to my husband talking to his sister about his childhood memories regarding Sunday School (honestly, this is happening as I write this!). I hope and pray that we together will lay foundation for your children to know and love God. Thank you so much for all your support.

Rebecca Russell

I wanted to thank you all for the generous Christmas gift. It is greatly appreciated, and I feel so grateful every day for the opportunity to work at one of my very favorite places and contribute to the day-to-day operations of our parish.

Afternoon Book Group

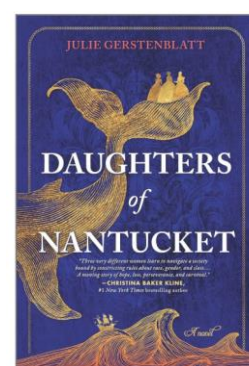

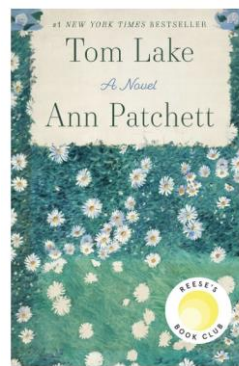

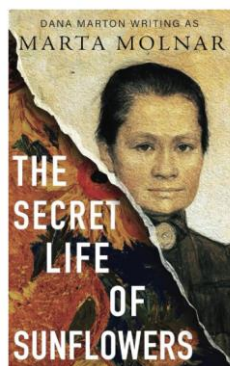

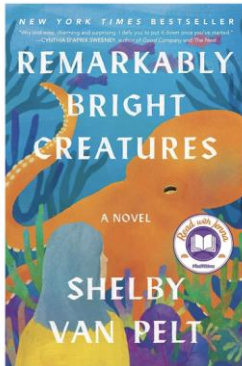

The Afternoon Book Group usually meets on the third Wednesday of the month. Please note that the organizers have stopped asking the library to pull books because the library can't pull recent best sellers for book clubs and take them out of circulation. But individuals can still request books from the library on their own. The group meets in the parlor from 3:30-5:00 p.m. You need not have read, or finished the book to enjoy the conversations. All are welcome!

The St. Margaret's Craft Guild meets on the first, third, and occasionally the fifth Tuesday of the month from 1:30-4:00 in the community room. Attendees bring a handheld craft of some sort, and work and chat during that afternoon. (Not sure what to bring? Previous crafts have included knitting, crochet, hand sewing, and cross stitch.) Anyone is welcome to attend, but we recommend you check in with the office to make sure it's happening—it's a small group of regulars, so if only person can attend it may be cancelled. We'd love to have you join us!
